Spitfire Girl Diana Mackintosh and Douglas Thompson, 2020-07-30 An extraordinary life in the shadows of war and a Century in the making Diana Mackintosh came of age to the drone of sirens alerting the people of Malta to the arrival of relentless flights of belligerent German and Italian menace the bombers she first imagined as a swarm of black flies pests that stung and cursed her Mediterranean homeland The three year onslaught never took a day off it was endless but supplies were not The hope of a shipment of high protein became an ongoing dream The only time Diana wasn't hungry was when she slept Her story of that time and in 2020 she is one of the very few remaining who experienced it first hand makes it clear why Malta was collectively awarded the George Cross the highest British civilian honour for heroism Of course as she argues no one was trying to be heroic but somehow they helped reverse the fortunes of the Second World War in the Mediterranean and North Africa Now at the age of 101 Diana is also celebrated for her children's achievements she helped her eldest son Sir Cameron Mackintosh and worked as his unpaid secretary and for a life in the wings of British cinema Hollywood and theatre land Spitfire Girl recounts Diana's extraordinary life more than a century in the making

Revolution came in different stages in the gradual development of the brain in humans The entire focus instead of betterment of life got diverted to living a self absorbed and narcissistic life at the cost of others Ambitions turned into hatred revenge and self sustenance by killing Revolutions gave more and more weapons in the hands of humans to wipe out everything that they did not want It became a race of massacres which became only a number without any value Industrial Revolution meant for comfort peace and harmony turned into a competition to see who had more Right from the Mahabharat War around 3500 B C and then World Wars I II the top leaders of the world took pride in devastation and killing A man never looked at a woman as a human being and used her as an object to satisfy his lust Torturing other humans was enjoyed over a toast of wine Dharma the righteous path explained in the Vedas the Bhagavad Gita and then the Ten Commandments is grossly misunderstood misinterpreted and distorted They taught sacrifice and virtues and order that will make life and the universe possible Even nature was not spared Selfishness has become the order of the day What is the view of the young
