Organized Information Jillian M. Hess,2022-07-21 Every literary household in nineteenth century Britain had a commonplace book scrapbook or album Coleridge called his collection Fly Catchers while George Eliot referred to one of her commonplace books as a Quarry and Michael Faraday kept quotations in his Philosophical Miscellany Nevertheless the nineteenth century commonplace book along with associated traditions like the scrapbook and album remain under studied This book tells the story of how technological and social changes altered methods for gathering storing and organizing information in nineteenth century Britain As the commonplace book moved out of the schoolroom and into the home it took on elements of the friendship album At the same time the explosion of print allowed readers to cheaply cut and paste extractions rather than copying out quotations by hand Built on the evidence of over 300 manuscripts this volume unearths the composition practices of well known writers such as Samuel Taylor Coleridge Sir Walter Scott George Eliot and Alfred Lord Tennyson and their less well known contemporaries Divided into two sections the first half of the book contends that methods for organizing knowledge developed in line with the period's dominant epistemic frameworks while the second half argues that commonplace books helped Romantics and Victorians organize people Chapters focus on prominent organizational methods in nineteenth century commonplacing often attached to an associated epistemic virtue diaristic forms and the imagination Chapter Two real time entries signalling objectivity Chapter Three antiquarian remnants serving as empirical evidence for historical arguments Chapter Four communally produced commonplace books that attest to socially constructed knowledge Chapter Five and blank spaces in commonplace books of mourning Chapter Six Richly illustrated this book brings an archive of commonplace books scrapbooks and albums to the reader Buttress's World Guide to Abbreviations of Organizations L. Pitman, 2012-12-06 The previous edition of this directory extended its coverage of the Far East Australasia and Latin America areas previously under represented For this new edition emphasis has been given to increasing the number of entries for organizations from Britain the United States and Australia and particular attention has been paid to new political organizations in Central and Eastern Europe and the former Soviet Union The number of entries included has gone up to over 68 000 of which over 9 000 are new or amended Cross references from defunct organizations in the previous edition have been deleted and references indicated by ex and now added for organizations which have changed their name since the previous edition As before the range of organizations included is broad and only purely local organizations have been excluded This directory therefore lists official and unofficial organizations national and international on all subjects political economic and social Acronyms of parent bodies of subsidiary organizations are given where appropriate and equivalencies are used to link acronyms in different languages for the same organization Further information about the organizations listed can be found in the sources listed in the bibliography I would like to thank Henry Heaney and Graeme Mackintosh for their advice and David Grinyer for his technical support L M Pitman Bibliography Adams R ed 1993 Centres Bureaux A Directory of UK Concentrations of Effort Information and Expertise 2nd edn CBD Research Beckenham Barrett IK 1993 Encyclopedia of Women's Associations Worldwide Gale London Architectural Design Procedures Arthur Thompson, 2012-12-06 This book explains how architects obtain and administer work from the moment the contract is signed to the handing over of the finished building to the client and is an indispensable guide to all architecture students This second edition has been thoroughly updated and expanded It now includes significant additions to the section on design constraints a new section on quality assurance and management and information on new acts and regulations introduced since the publication of the first edition Other sections on subjects such as the Building Regulations use of computers and standard forms and letters have been brought up to date Beeton's Dictionary of Universal Information Samuel Orchart Beeton, 1884 The Lancet, 1872 Libraries and Information Services in the United Kingdom and the Republic of Ireland 2015 Facet Publishing, June York, 2014-12-31 For over fifty years anyone needing information on British and Irish libraries has turned to Libraries and Information Services in the UK and the Republic of Ireland for the answer This newly updated directory lists over 2000 libraries and other services in the United Kingdom the Channel Islands the Isle of Man and the Republic of Ireland with contact names addresses telephone and fax numbers e mail addresses and URLs The listing is broken down into the following main categories all fully indexed alphabetically public library authorities with entries for headquarters libraries plus the main administrative divisional area and regional libraries universities and institutes of higher education and other degree awarding institutions with entries for major departmental and site campus libraries and selected government national and special libraries together with schools and departments of information and library studies
