The Rubáiyát of a Persian Kitten Oliver Herford, 2019-11-26 In The Rub iy t of a Persian Kitten Oliver Herford ingeniously adapts the poetic form of Omar Khayyam s classic work to create a whimsical homage to feline existence Through a series of lighthearted quatrains Herford captures the curious yet indifferent perspective of a pampered Persian cat exploring themes of leisure uncertainty and the philosophical musings on life from a cat s point of view The literary style is characterized by clever wordplay and a playful tone reflecting the author s ability to blend humor with thoughtful introspection while situating his work within the larger tradition of comedic poetry predominant in the early 20th century Oliver Herford known as the Gentleman of Comic Verse was an American writer illustrator and humorist whose experiences in social circles filled with artists and intellectuals likely influenced his unique voice Herford s background in graphic arts and his connections to the literary elites of his time provided fertile ground for his creativity allowing him to infuse his work with both wit and artistic sensibility His penchant for celebrating the eccentricities of life is vividly showcased in this playful reinterpretation of a beloved classic The Rub iy t of a Persian Kitten is a delightful read for anyone who appreciates literary parody or the charming quirks of feline companions With its enchanting verses and engaging illustrations the book offers a refreshingly humorous take on the existential questions that haunt both humans and pets alike It invites readers into a world where the observations of a cat become provocatively profound making it an essential addition to the library of both poetry enthusiasts and cat lovers

FitzGerald's Rubáiyát of Omar Khayyám Adrian Poole,Christine van Ruymbeke,William H. Martin,Sandra Mason,2013-11-15 Edward FitzGerald's Rubaiyat loosely based on verses attributed to the eleventh century Persian writer Omar Khayyam has become one of the most widely known poems in the world republished virtually every year from 1879 to the present day and translated into over eighty different languages And yet it has been largely ignored or at best patronized by the academic establishment This volume sets out to explore the reasons for both the popularity and the neglect

The Selected Works of Amy Ella Blanchard Amy Ella Blanchard,2006-01-01 The cat and kitten were both eating supper and Marian was watching them Her own supper of bread and milk she had finished and had taken the remains of it to Tippy and Dippy Marian did not care very much for bread and milk but the cat and kitten did as was plainly shown by the way they hunched themselves down in front of the tin pan into which Marian had poured their supper In the next room Grandpa and Grandma Otway were sitting and little bits of their talk came to Marian's ears once in a while when her thoughts ceased to wander in other directions If only one could have faith to believe implicitly Grandma Otway said If ye have faith as a grain of mustard seed and should say to that mountain be ye removed quoted Grandpa Otway Marian sighed They talked that way very often she remembered and she herself had grown to consider it quite as difficult as did her grandmother to exercise complete faith She had made numberless mighty efforts and yet things did not come out as she supposed they ought She sat gravely watching the cat and kitten lap up the last drop of milk and carefully clean the sides of the pan in a manner quite inelegant for humans but no doubt entirely a matter of etiquette in cat society and then when Tippy having done her duty by the pan turned her attention to making Dippy tidy Marian walked slowly away The sun was setting behind the hills and touching the tops of the trees along their base further away the mountains were very dark against a yellow line of sky Marian continued her way thoughtfully toward the garden turned off before she reached the gate and climbed a ladder which leaned against the side of the old brick wall From the ladder one could reach a long limb of a scraggy apple tree upon which hung early apples nearly ripe Marian went up the ladder very carefully taking care not to catch her frock upon a nail or a projecting twig as she crept along the stout limb to settle herself in a crotch of the tree From this spot she could see the distant sea pinky purple and shimmering silver Marian did not gaze at this however but turned her face toward the mountains She clasped her hands tightly and repeated firmly Be ye removed into the midst of the sea Be ye removed into the midst of the sea Then she waited but the mountain did not budge an inch though the child kept her eyes fixed upon it Twice three times she repeated the words but the mountain remained immovable I knew it I just knew it exclaimed the child when she had made her final effort and now I want to know how large a mustard seed is To morrow I ll go ask Mrs Hunt The
