Rubbing Torsos:

Journal of the Engineers Society of Pennsylvania Engineers' Society of Pennsylvania, 1911 The Concrete Body Elise Archias, 2016-11-29 Offering an incisive rejoinder to traditional histories of modernism and postmodernism this original book examines the 1960s performance work of three New York artists who adapted modernist approaches to form for the medium of the human body Finding parallels between the tactility of a drip of paint and a body's reflexive movements Elise Archias argues convincingly that Yvonne Rainer b 1934 Carolee Schneemann b 1939 and Vito Acconci b 1940 forged a dialogue between modernist aesthetics and their own artistic community's embrace of all things ordinary through work that explored the abstraction born of the body's materiality Rainer's task like dances Schneemann's sensuous appropriations of popular entertainment and Acconci's behaviorist inflected tests highlight the body's unintended movements as vital reminders of embodied struggle amid the constraining structures in contemporary culture Archias also draws compelling comparisons between embodiment as performed in the work of these three artists and in the sit ins and other nonviolent protests of the era Philosophical Transactions of the Royal Society of London Royal Society (London), 1838
