Rubble Years:

The Miracle Years Hanna Schissler, 2020-12-08 Stereotypical descriptions showcase West Germany as an economic miracle or cast it in the narrow terms of Cold War politics Such depictions neglect how material hardship preceded success and how a fascist past and communist sibling complicated the country's image as a bastion of democracy Even more disappointing they brush over a rich and variegated cultural history That history is told here by leading scholars of German history literature and film in what is destined to become the volume on postwar West German culture and society In it we read about the lives of real people from German children fathered by black Occupation soldiers to communist activists from surviving Jews to Turkish guest workers from young hoodlums to middle class mothers We learn how they experienced and represented the institutions and social forces that shaped their lives and defined the wider culture We see how two generations of West Germans came to terms not only with war guilt division from East Germany and the Angst of nuclear threat but also with changing gender relations the Americanization of popular culture and the rise of conspicuous consumption Individually these essays peer into fascinating overlooked corners of German life Together they tell what it really meant to live in West Germany in the 1950s and 1960s In addition to the editor the contributors are Volker R Berghahn Frank Biess Heide Fehrenbach Michael Geyer Elizabeth Heineman Ulrich Herbert Maria Hahn Karin Hunn Kaspar Maase Richard McCormick Robert G Moeller Lutz Niethammer Uta G Poiger Diethelm Prowe Frank Stern Arnold Sywottek Frank Trommler Eric D Weitz Juliane Wetzler and Dorothee Wierling

Gendering Post-1945 German History Karen Hagemann, Donna Harsch, Friederike Brühöfener, 2019-04-02 Although entanglement has become a keyword in recent German history scholarship entangled studies of the postwar era have largely limited their scope to politics and economics across the two Germanys while giving short shrift to social and cultural phenomena like gender At the same time historians of gender in Germany have tended to treat East and West Germany in isolation with little attention paid to intersections and interrelationships between the two countries This groundbreaking collection synthesizes the perspectives of entangled history and gender studies bringing together established as well as upcoming scholars to investigate the ways in which East and West German gender relations were culturally socially and politically intertwined

To See In the Dark Nicholas Mirzoeff, 2025-01-20 Timely and clearly written To See In the Dark is a manifesto to solidarity Stephen Sheehi co author of Psychoanalysis Under Occupation Mirzoeff sharply urges us to divest from a mere spectatorship to a genocide and insists that we see in relation in solidarity and as an anti colonial collective Simone Browne author of Dark Matters Mirzoeff argues incisively for a return to ways of seeing that are grounded in solidarity and resistance Candice Breitz video and photography artist To see Palestine is to see the world Since October 7th 2023 the forces of racial capitalism and settler colonialism have become all too visible in Israel s genocidal war on Gaza In To See In the Dark Nicholas Mirzoeff explores how images and especially video viewed outside Palestine enabled a dramatic switch in public opinion leading to a global uprising against the genocide In this groundbreaking analysis he connects the personal and the political through his own anti Zionist Jewishness and its histories of violence The result is a new collective and anti colonial way of seeing intersecting online and embodied experience Nicholas Mirzoeff is a pioneering figure in the field of visual culture and has written extensively on Jewishness and Palestine His books include How To See The World and The Right to Look He has written for the Guardian and The Nation Kilo Wharf Expansion, Apra Harbor Naval Complex , 2007

Werner Egk Paul Hindemith Kurt Weill Karl Amadeus Hartmann Carl Orff Hans Pfitzner Arnold Schoenberg and Richard Strauss Noted historian Michael H Kater weighs issues of accommodation and resistance to ask whether these artists corrupted themselves in the service of a criminal regime and if so whether this is evident in their music He also considers the degrees to which the Nazis poetically socially economically and aesthetically succeeded in their treatment of these individuals whose lives and compositions represent diverse responses to totalitarianism

Miniature Monuments Helmut Puff,2014-09-23 Miniature Monuments Modeling German History offers a series of essays on small scale models of bombed out cities Created between 1946 and the present these plastic renderings of places provide eerie glimpses of destruction and devastation resulting of the air war This study thus permits fresh angles on post war responses to the compounded losses of WW II and it does so through considering these miniature monuments of among others Frankfurt Munich Schwetzingen Heilbronn and Hiroshima in a deep cultural history that interlaces the sixteenth eighteenth and twentieth centuries Three dimensional renderings in diminutive size have rarely been subjected to rigorous theoretical reflection Conventionally models whether of ruins or intact spaces have been assumed to be easily legible that is they have been assumed to be vehicles of the authentic Yet rubble and other models should be theorized as complex simulacra of abstract realities and catalysts of memories Miniature Monuments thus tackles a haunting paradox building ruins The book elucidates how utterly contingent processes of crumbling and collapse the English words for the Latin ruina came to command such great interest in modern Europe that tremendous efforts were taken to uncover render and most of all recreate ruins

The Chora of Croton 1 Jon Morte,2012-10-03 From 1974 to the present the Institute of Classical Archaeology ICA at the University of Texas at Austin has carried out archaeological excavations and surveys in ancient territories chorae in southern Italy This wide ranging investigation which covers a large number of sites and a time period ranging from prehistory to the Middle Ages has unearthed a wealth of new information about ancient rural economies and cultures in the region These discoveries will be published in two multivolume series Metaponto and Croton This volume on the Neolithic settlement at Capo Alfiere is the first in the Croton series The Chora of Croton 1 reports the excavation results of a remarkable Neolithic site at Capo Alfiere on the Ionian coast Capo Alfiere is one of a very few early inhabitation sites in this area to have been excavated extensively with a full team of scientific specialists providing interdisciplinary studies on early farming and animal husbandry It provides comprehensive documentation of the economy material culture and way of life in the central Mediterranean in the sixth and fifth millennia BC Most notable are the remains of a wattle and daub hut enclosed within a massive stone wall Unique for this area this well preserved structure may have been used for special purposes such as ritual as well as for habitation The presence of Stentinello wares shows that the range of this pottery type extended further east than previously thought and casts new light on the development of ceramics in the area
