A Flight of Green Parrots Dipak Basu, 2004-06-28 Bound to a naval officer in a loveless marriage Pauline Wainwright comes to India against her will and finds herself thrust into the turmoil that surrounds a remote English outpost threatened by the Bengal Army In her adopted land during forays into the idyllic countryside between encounters with wild animals amid chaos of war preparations Pauline strangely finds peace She makes several friends and wins the admiration and love of two strong men As their military situation deteriorates the three draw strength from one another and throw themselves into a mad scramble to avert a terrible catastrophe Heroic efforts to defend the garrison and acts of incredible bravery are counterpointed by squabbles spineless direction and ultimate desertion by the fort's leadership Misfortune after misfortune haunts the survivors Still the fortress holds inspired by memories of an England which they may never see again The climax of A Flight of Green Parrots occurs in a suffocating dungeon where Pauline desperately attempts to save her men and a hundred others from a fate history only knows as the Black Hole of Calcutta Catalogue Hispanic Society of America. Library, 1962 Unity in Diversity: Achieving Structural Race Equity in Schools Rachel Macfarlane, 2023-06-01 A third of all children in our schools are from racially minoritised backgrounds Yet the data on attainment exclusion progression and representation indicates that our education system is structurally racist Unity in Diversity explores the unconscious biases at play in our schools and demonstrates how educators can address this by improving representation in the curriculum staffroom and on the governing trust board Drawing on case studies from leaders this book demonstrates what schools are already doing to create an impactful anti racist ethos and how these strategies may be applied in practice Written by an experienced headteacher who has supported a diverse range of schools in improving their race equity each chapter addresses a different aspect of race inequality and provides practical strategies for overcoming it This book empowers readers To acknowledge that systemic race inequality exists in schools and that this necessitates an anti racist approach To become comfortable talking about race and to create safe spaces for staff and students to engage in discussions about race To address unconscious biases and white fragility and to examine the inequality and underrepresentation of ethnic groups To audit all aspects of educational provision to determine what needs to change and to action and implement this change with lasting impact Schools and teachers can play a major role in eliminating systemic racism in society This book is an essential read for any teacher leader governor or trustee who is restless to address race inequity in our education system creating a more equal and represented school community Some Traditional Herbal Medicines, Some Mycotoxins, Naphthalene and Styrene IARC Working Group on the Evaluation of Carcinogenic Risks to Humans, International Agency for Research on Cancer, 2002 This monograph evaluates the carcinogenic risks to humans posed by the use of some traditional herbal medicines fumonisin B1 and the industrial organic chemicals naphthalene and styrene and provides an update of the data on the carcinogenicity of aflatoxin Jungle Blaze Sarah Makela, 2019-10-29 An Amazon and a werewolf cause a battle between races but will they find love together in time Sol has seen others around her find their mates and she's determined to find her own except the man who has caught her eye is standoffish and has no intention of getting into a relationship Eduardo the second in command of the werewolves has no interest in the mating going
