A Russian Doll & Other Stories Adolfo Bioy Casares, 1992-09-17 This collection of traditional and experimental stories by Argentinian novelist Bioy Casares The Adventures of a Photographer in La Plata offers sophisticated seamless prose as well as magical realism and biting political satire Publishers Weekly A Russian Doll and Other Stories is the ninth collection of short fiction by one of this century's premier Argentinian writers who with his fellow countrymen Julio Cortázar and Jorge Luis Borges helped change the world's perception of Latin American literature Bioy Casares's narratives are elegant and urbane his style precise and streamlined as he paces his characters through seriocomic traps of fate ensnared by love impelled by lust ambition or plain greed even metamorphosed by pharmaceuticals These are not stories in a psychological mode but like the image of the Russian doll of the title piece are carefully wrought congeries of intractable selves within selves

Inside Stories Judy Robertson, Rose Luckin, Lisa Gjedde, 2008-11-01 Five travellers meet on a train a teacher a technologist an educational researcher and two children As they travel across the continent towards the Future of Learning conference they exchange their stories This book explores the ways in which new technology can support storytelling skills in learners Written in the form of discussions between teachers learners and researchers it is an accessible introduction to issues in educational storytelling and technology A challengingly thoughtful book about narrative daringly written in the narrative form Bravo Jerome Bruner New York University This is the perfect introduction to the possibilities of narrative learning I warmly recommend Inside Stories A Narrative Journey to creative educators of every variety Dr Donald Smith Director of the Scottish Storytelling Centre

The Female Artist in Academia Anastasia Kamanos, 2019-11-07 This book delves into the conflicts contradictions and paradoxes inherent in the lives of women who as artists and academics seek to connect their personal and professional lives in their work It explores how creativity and the pursuit of self knowledge relate to their lives and arises from the author's own experience as a woman writer and academic Inquiries into creativity and feminist critical and cultural theory provide the framework for examining how the identity of the female artist is shaped within the patriarchal institution of academia These inquiries allow a deeper understanding of the impact of this institution on the life and work of the female artist both within and beyond academia As an auto ethnographic study Kamanos distinctive voice is developed through narratives journals letters and a development of personal metaphors as well as with a dialogue with others As performative text the narratives map a process of transformation that traces the artist's path from silence to voice This book has important implications for women in higher education as self study is revealed to be an essential methodological instrument for the articulation of alternative authentic perspectives of marginalized and under represented women Moreover the acknowledgement of the academic artist paradigm in teacher education opens the path for a re viewing of the metaphors of self denial impersonation and masks that are part of the landscape of teacher knowledge

Selected Stories Adolfo Bioy Casares,1994 Fifteen stories by an Argentinian writer mixing the fantastic with the real The subjects range from love to madness

Where There's Love, There's Hate Adolfo Bioy Casares,Silvina Ocampo,2013-05-14 A witty yet gripping pastiche of murder mysteries set in an Argentine seaside resort peppered with literary allusions In seaside Bosque de Mar guests at the Hotel Central are struck by double misfortune the mysterious death of one of their party and an investigation headed by the physician writer and insufferable busybody Dr Humberto Huberman When quiet young translator Mary is found dead on the first night of Huberman s stay he quickly appoints himself leader of an inquiry that will see blame apportioned in turn to each and every guest including Mary s own sister and culminating in a wild wind blown reconnaissance mission to the nearby shipwreck the Joseph K Never before translated into English Where There s Love There s Hate is both genuinely suspenseful mystery fiction and an ingenious pastiche of the genre the only novel co written by two towering figures of Latin American literature Famously friends and collaborators of Jorge Luis Borges husband and wife Bioy Casares and Ocampo combine their gifts to produce a novel that s captivating unashamedly erudite and gloriously witty

Montanao's Malady Enrique Vila-Matas,2015-10-27 A quirky cosmopolitan novel about life and literature by the prize winning Spanish writer Enrique Vila Matas author of Bartleby Co The narrator of Montano s Malady is a writer named Jose who is so obsessed with literature that he finds it impossible to distinguish between real life and fictional reality Part picaresque novel part intimate diary part memoir and philosophical musings Enrique Vila Matas has created a labyrinth in which writers as various as Cervantes Sterne Kafka Musil Bola o Coetzee and Sebald cross endlessly surprising paths Trying to piece together his life of loss and pain Jose leads the reader on an unsettling journey from European cities such as Nantes Barcelona Lisbon Prague and Budapest to the Azores and the Chilean port of Valparaiso Exquisitely witty and erudite it confirms the opinion of Bernardo Axtaga that Vila Matas is the most important living Spanish writer Latin American Mystery Writers Darrell B. Lockhart,2004-03-30 Latin America has a rich literary tradition that is receiving growing amounts of attention The body of Latin American mystery writing is especially vast and diverse Because it is part of Latin American popular culture it also reflects many of the social and cultural concerns of that region This reference provides an overview of mystery fiction of Latin America While many of the authors profiled have received critical attention others have been relatively neglected Included are alphabetically arranged entries on 54 writers most of whom are from Argentina Mexico and Cuba Every effort has been made to include balanced coverage of the few female mystery writers Each entry is written by an expert contributor and includes a brief biography a critical discussion of the writer s works and primary and secondary bibliographies The volume closes with a general bibliography of anthologies and criticism

No Jews Live Here John Lorinc,2024-11-12 A stolen sign No Jews Live Here kept John Lorinc s Hungarian Jewish family alive during the Holocaust From pre war Budapest to post war Toronto journalist John Lorinc unspools four generations of his Hungarian Jewish family s journey through the Holocaust the 1956 Revolution and finally exodus from a country that can t rid itself of its antisemitic demons This braided saga centers on the writer s eccentric and defiant grandmother a consummate survivor who with her love of flashy jewelry and her vicious tongue was best appreciated from afar Lorinc also traces the stories of both his grandfathers and his father all of whom fell victim in different ways to the Nazis genocidal campaign to rid Europe of Jews This is a deeply reported but profoundly human telling of a vile part of history told through Lorinc s distinctively astute and compassionate consideration of how cities and cultures work Set against the complicated and poorly understood background of Hungary s Jewish community No Jews Live Here is about family stories and how the narratives of our lives are shaped by our times and historical forces over which we have no control John Lorinc weaves Hungarian history with the equally fascinating history of his own family to tell a deeply researched story with universal resonance how events enormous and seemingly tiny a genocidal war foggy skies conspire to create outcomes with life and death implications through generations Marsha Lederman author of Kiss the Red Stairs The Holocaust Once Removed

Unfaithful Suzanne Jill Levine,2025-06-12 In this witty and incisive memoir Suzanne Jill Levine winner of the 2024 PEN Ralph Manheim Award for Translation establishes a new way of writing about a translator s life Levine is a living legend in the translation world who credits her good fortune as a young translator to being in the right place at the right time beginning in the era of the Cuban revolution with growing interest in Latin America and its writers and unfolding in New York City in the turbulent 1960s and 1970s and beyond In Unfaithful A Translator's Memoir Levine interweaves her personal history and translation history in an important period Levine analyzes how her openness to another culture and new experiences along with a knack for translating the most difficult Latin American novels and positive interactions with her authors took her from a modest New York background into a whole new literary and linguistic world She also writes about how her friendship and then long relationship with Uruguayan writer and intellectual Emir Rodríguez Monegal helped her develop her career and how translating creatively subversive Guillermo Cabrera Infante and Manuel Puig taking on the task of making spoken Cuban and Argentine into a new literary language in translation was her true entry into the world of writing It is now common for translation scholars to talk about the embodied nature of the act of translation Levine fleshes out that embodiment in provocative detail with humor and style

The Woman Who Pretended to Be Who She Was Wendy Doniger, 2005 Many cultures have myths about self imitation stories about people who pretend to be someone else pretending to be them in effect masquerading as themselves This great theme in literature and in life tells us that people put on masks to discover who they really are under the masks they usually wear so that the mask reveals rather than conceals the self beneath the self In this book noted scholar of Hinduism and mythology Wendy Doniger offers a cross cultural exploration of the theme of self impersonation whose widespread occurrence argues for both its literary power and its human value The stories she considers range from ancient Indian literature through medieval European courtly literature and Shakespeare to Hollywood and Bollywood They illuminate a basic human way of negotiating reality illusion identity and authenticity not to mention memory amnesia and the process of aging Many of them involve marriage and adultery for tales of sexual betrayal cut to the heart of the crisis of identity These stories are extreme examples of what we common folk do unconsciously every day Few of us actually put on masks that replicate our faces but it is not uncommon for us to become travesties of ourselves particularly as we age and change We often slip carelessly across the permeable boundary between the un self conscious self indulgence of our most idiosyncratic mannerisms and the conscious attempt to give the people who know us personally or publicly the version of ourselves that they expect Myths of self imitation open up for us the possibility of multiple selves and the infinite regress of self discovery Drawing on a dizzying array of tales some fact some fiction The Woman Who Pretended to Be Who She Was is a fascinating and learned trip through centuries of culture guided by a scholar of incomparable wit and erudition

Blood in Water 8 Short Stories Madeleine Watson, 2020-06-20 Between 2011 and 2014 I wrote eight short stories I had been writing stories since I was about six Weird scenarios would enter my head and I would feel compelled to write about them Blood in Water relates on Abby who makes an awful discovery about her family Dead Letter Room samples the life of lonely Finch at his workplace Outside enters the disturbed mind of an ex convict and What Goes Around considers the makings of a bully On the surface all appear to delve into diverse worlds and minds But this isn't quite so They are all about alienation My other stories are the same alienation It goes right back to my early children's mysteries of the Seventies How strange I hadn't noticed The reason is that I would make my own personal discovery in 2016 I was fifty one years old and living with my partner and two children Until then I was completely unaware of a vital truth about myself This truth has leaked into my stories and creations without my realisation This account is true Relevant diary entries have been included as well as illustrations Analyses and further dissections provides an insight into the force behind these stories and ventures into the strange phenomena I have discovered It's like a ghost language
