Russian Voyages Round The World:

Russian Voyages Round the World Nikolai Nikolaevich Nozikov, 1945 Russian Round-the-world Voyages, 1803-1849
Nikolai Alekseevich Ivashintsov, 1980 One of the keys to the early history of countries bordering the Pacific Ocean is shipping. In isolated Russian America or Kamchatka, Australia, Spanish California or the Sandwich Hawaiian Islands, the movement of ships was history itself. Ships brought supplies and took away colonial products, transported new personnel or those who were departing provided communication with the motherland and other establishments and made possible the exploration, settlement or exploitation of new areas. Thus their comings and goings provide firm dates and a frame of reference for various facts. If this or that official came on a certain ship, the date can usually be ascertained or vice versa. Information about the voyage may be indicated from whence he came and when. Other passengers or ship personnel may be seen as contracts or may have written about the voyage. Such details can also indicate just when certain instructions reached the homeland. Thus can be avoided the error of some writers who treat exchanges of information in the light of modern instant communications whereas there was always a lag of many months. For reconstruction of the history of the Russian colonies in North America, this historical auxiliary can be particularly useful in the absence of other information. Compilations of shipping data therefore prove their worth and in this volume the earliest and in many ways still the best guide to the remarkable series of circumnavigations undertaken by Russia in the first half of the last century deserves to be brought from obscurity.

William Robert Broughton's Voyage of Discovery to the North Pacific 1795-1798 Andrew David,2016-02-17 Edited and richly annotated by Lt Cdr Andrew David this volume offers for the first time a complete transcript of the handwritten journal kept by William Broughton on his voyage to the North Pacific 1795 1798 together with supplementary letters and the journal of Broughton s journey across Mexico 1793 An extensive introduction by Professor Barry Gough places the voyage in its historical context Broughton had first visited the North Pacific in 1792 in command of the brig Chatham during Vancouver s voyage When negotiations between Vancouver and Juan Francisco Bodega y Quadra reached an impasse Broughton was sent back to London to seek fresh instructions travelling across Mexico and returning to Europe in Spanish ships Back in London in July 1793 he was appointed in command of the sloop Providence with orders to rejoin Vancouver in the Pacific taking with him the astronomer John Crosley

The Complete Works of Charles Sumner Charles Sumner,2020-09-28 The speeches of Charles Sumner have many titles to endure in the memory of mankind They contain the reasons on which the American people acted in taking the successive steps in the revolution which overthrew slavery and made of a race of slaves freemen citizens voters They have a high place in literature They are not only full of historical learning set forth in an attractive way but each of the more important of them was itself an historical event They afford a picture of a noble public character They are an example of the application of the loftiest morality to the conduct of the State They are an arsenal of weapons ready for the friends of Freedom in all the great battles when she may be in peril hereafter They will not be forgotten unless the world shall attain to such height of virtue that no stimulant to virtue shall be needed or to a depth of baseness from which no stimulant can arouse it Mr Sumner held the office of Justice of the Peace and that of Commissioner of the Circuit Court to which he was appointed by his friend and teacher Judge Story He was a member of the convention held in 1853 to revise the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts With these exceptions his only official service was as Senator in Congress from Massachusetts from the 4th of March 1851 when he was just past forty years of age until his death March 9 1874 If his career could have been predicted in his earliest childhood he could have had no better training for his great duties than that he in fact received He was one of the best scholars in the public Latin School in Boston He received the Franklin medal from the hands of Daniel Webster who told him that the state had a pledge of him His school life was followed by four years in Harvard College and a course at the Harvard Law School where he was the favorite pupil of Judge Story He was an eager student of the Greek and Roman classics But his special delight was in history and international law After his admission to the bar he was reporter of the decisions of his beloved master and edited twenty volumes of the equity reports of Vesey Jr which he enriched with copious and learned notes A little later when he was twenty six years old he spent a month in Washington tarrying a short time in New York on his way In that brief period he made life long friendships with some famous men including Chancellor Kent Judge Marshall and Francis Lieber He had a rare gift for making friendships with men especially with great men and with women With him in those days an acquaintance with any person worth knowing soon ripened into an indissoluble friendship A few years later he spent a little more than two years in Europe coming home when he was just past twenty nine years old That time was spent in attending courts lectures of eminent professors and in society No house which he desired to enter seems to have been closed to him Statesmen judges scholars beautiful women leaders of fashionable society welcomed to the closest intimacy this young American of humble birth with no passport other than his own character and attainment It is hardly too much to say that the youth of twenty nine had a larger and more brilliant circle of friendship than any other man on either continent The list of his friends and correspondents would fill many pages He says in a letter to Judge Story what would seem like boasting in other men but with him was modest and far within the truth I have a thousand things to say to you about the law circuit life and the English judges I have seen more of all than probably ever fell to the lot of a foreigner I have had the friendship and confidence of judges and of the leaders of the bar Not a day passes without my being five or six hours in company with men of this stamp My tour is no vulgar holiday affair merely to spend money and to get the fashions It is to see men institutions and laws and if it would not seem vain in me I would venture to say that I have not discredited my country I have called the attention of the judges and the profession to the state of the law in our country and have shown them by my conversation I will say this that I understand their jurisprudence
