Rylands Haggadah A Medieval Sephardi Masterpiece In Facsimile:

האגדה של פסח היא אחת מהאגדות המפורסמות ביותר, והיא נחשבת לאחד מהמסמכים העבריים החשובים ביותר. האגדה של פסח היא אחת מהאגדות המפורסמות ביותר, והיא נחשבת לאחד מהמסמכים העבריים החשובים ביותר. Dating from the mid fourteenth century and made in Catalonia Spain the Rylands Haggadah is a facsimilie of the masterpiece of medieval art considered one of the most important Hebrew manuscripts in the John Rylands Library Haggadot the word means telling tells the story of Exodus the flight of the Jews from Egypt with the text typically recited during the annual feast of Passover The Rylands Haggadah is illustrated with a series of wonderfully vivid miniatures showing the plagues visited upon the Pharaoh and his people and the parting of the Red Sea to allow the Israelites to escape Includes a commentary and a cycle of poems in English and in Hebrew Hagadah Shel Pesah Raphael Loewe,1988 The Brother Haggadah Marc Michael Epstein,2016-05-31 The first ever facsimile edition of one of the most beautifully decorated and important Hebrew manuscripts from medieval Europe Commissioned by wealthy patrons in the Middle Ages the Haggadot are among the most beautifully decorated Hebrew manuscripts The Brother Haggadah so called because of its close fraternal relationship to the Rylands Haggadah in the collection of the John Rylands Library Manchester is one of the finest of these to have survived Created by Sephardi or southern artists and scribes in Catalonia in the second quarter of the fourteenth century it sets out the liturgy and sequence of the Passover Seder This exquisitely produced facsimile of the Brother Haggadah is accompanied by an introduction by medieval scholar professor Marc Michael Epstein focusing on the historical background of the Passover and iconographic scheme of the manuscript an essay on its provenance by Ilana Tahan head of the Hebrew and Christian collections at the British Library and an essay by Hebrew scholar Eliezer Laine that looks at the Shaltiel family former owners of the manuscript The book also contains a translation of the poems and commentary in the manuscript by the late Raphael Lowe former Goldsmid Professor of Hebrew at University College London and a translation of the Haggadah liturgy Haggadah šel pesah Raphael Loewe,1988 The Rylands Haggadah Raphael LOEWE,1988 The Medieval Haggadah Marc Michael Epstein,2011-06-07 Discusses four illuminated haggadot manuscripts created for use at home services on Passover all created in the early twelfth century The Late Medieval Hebrew Book in the Western Mediterranean Javier del Barco,2015-09-29 This collection takes the Hebrew book as a focal point for exploring the production circulation transmission and consumption of Hebrew texts in the cultural context of the late medieval western Mediterranean The authors elaborate in particular on questions concerning private vs public book production and collection the religious and cultural components of manuscript patronage collaboration between Christian and Jewish scribes artists and printers and the impact of printing on Iberian Jewish communities Unlike other approaches that take context into consideration merely to explain certain variations in the history of the Hebrew book from antiquity to the present the premise of these essays is that context constitutes the basis for understanding practices and processes in late medieval Jewish book culture Postcolonising the

Medieval Image Eva Frojmovic, Catherine E. Karkov, 2017-03-16 Postcolonial theories have transformed literary historical and cultural studies over the past three decades Yet the study of medieval art and visualities has in general remained Eurocentric in its canon and conservative in its approaches Postcolonising as the eleven essays in this volume show entails active intervention into the field of medieval art history and visual studies through a theoretical reframing of research This approach poses and elicits new research questions and tests how concepts current in postcolonial studies such as diaspora and migration under represented artistic cultures accented art making displacement intercultural versus transcultural hybridity presence absence can help medievalists to reinvigorate the study of art and visuality Postcolonial concepts are deployed in order to redraft the canon of medieval art thereby seeking to build bridges between medievalist and modernist communities of scholars Among the varied topics explored in the volume are the appropriation of Roman iconography by early medieval Scandinavian metalworkers multilingualism and materiality in Anglo Saxon culture the circulation and display of Islamic secular ceramics on Pisan churches cultural negotiation by Jewish minorities in Central Europe and the Iberian peninsula Holy Land maps and medieval imaginative geography and the uses of Thomas Becket in the colonial imaginary of the Plantagenet court

Reassessing the Roles of Women as 'Makers' of Medieval Art and Architecture (2 Vol. Set)

Therese Martin, 2012 The twenty four studies in this volume propose a new approach to framing the debate around the history of medieval art and architecture to highlight the multiple roles played by women moving beyond today's standard division of artist from patron

The Cambridge History of Judaism: Volume 6, The Middle Ages: The Christian World Robert Chazan, 2018-10-31 Volume 6 examines the history of Judaism during the second half of the Middle Ages Through the first half of the Middle Ages the Jewish communities of western Christendom lagged well behind those of eastern Christendom and the even more impressive Jewries of the Islamic world As Western Christendom began its remarkable surge forward in the eleventh century this progress had an impact on the Jewish minority as well The older Jewries of southern Europe grew and became more productive in every sense Even more strikingly a new set of Jewries were created across northern Europe when this undeveloped area was strengthened demographically economically militarily and culturally From the smallest and weakest of the world's Jewish centers in the year 1000 the Jewish communities of western Christendom emerged despite considerable obstacles as the world's dominant Jewish center by the end of the Middle Ages This demographic economic cultural and spiritual dominance was maintained down into modernity

Text and Transmission in Medieval Europe

Chris Bishop, 2008-12-18 Scholars of the Middle Ages are familiar with the notion of text as an inscribed document whether that inscription occurs upon stone metal vellum or textiles but the concept of inscription and therefore of text can be extended to cover a range of evidence Thus one might speak of archaeological remains land use patterns traditional stories remnant practices and revenant beliefs as constituting texts in their own right Broadly defined then text is the means by which we engage with the historical subject The medievalist however faces particular constraints in interpreting these texts through the agencies of their transmission Questions such as who authored these texts when and why intersect with problems of transcription translation and redaction to inform a complex discourse The majority of the chapters in this book started life as papers presented at a conference entitled Text and Transmission in Early Medieval Europe and the title of this book ultimately derives from that theme The subjects these chapters deal with range in geography from Ireland through to Byzantium and cover almost a millennium of European history but they are united in their effort to prise from their subjects some truths about texts transmission and the critical literacies needed to interpret both

The Experience of Jewish Liturgy Debra Reed Blank, 2011-09-09 This edited collection honors Menahem Schmelzer's influence upon the field of Jewish liturgy Three generations of scholars apply different analytical methods to varying texts and ritual occasions providing an up to date picture of the field and its implications for related areas

Music and Jewish Culture in Early Modern Italy Lynette Bowring, Rebecca Cypess, Liza Malamut, 2022-03-01 Musical culture in Jewish communities in early modern Italy was much more diverse than researchers originally thought An interdisciplinary reassessment Music and Jewish Culture in Early Modern Italy evaluates the social cultural political economic and religious circumstances that shaped this community especially in light of the need to recognize individual experiences within minority populations Contributors draw from rich materials topics and approaches as they explore the inherently diverse understandings of music in daily life the many ways that Jewish communities conceived of music and the reception of and responses to Jewish musical culture Highlighting the multifaceted experience of music within Jewish communities Music and Jewish Culture in Early Modern Italy sheds new light on the place of music in complex previously misunderstood environments

Imagining the Self, Imagining the Other Eva Frojmovic, 2021-10-05 This collection revisits the complex subject of medieval visual representations of Jews and Judaism by themselves and by Christians The topics range from questions of Jewish identity in Iberian illuminated Hebrew manuscripts 13th 14th centuries to representations of Synagoga and Judas in the Bible Moralis e and cathedral sculpture to early modern Jewish self images The essays are prefaced by a critical study of the discovery of medieval Jewish art among art historians and cultural activists ca 1900 35 The volume will be of value to art historians as well as medieval and early modern historians with an interest in Jewish culture and Jewish Christian relations Contributors include Michael Batterman Marc Michael Epstein Eva Frojmovic Thomas Hubka Sara Lipton Annette Weber and Diane Wolfthal

Out of Bounds Pamela A. Patton, Maria Alessia Rossi, 2023-10-03 Where are the limits of medieval art as a field of study What happens when conventionally trained art historians disregard the chronological geographical or cultural parameters that both direct and protect their scholarship Beginning with Thelma K Thomas and Alicia Walker's acute assessment of the need for a medieval art history for now the essays in Out of Bounds ask what happens when the study of medieval art disregards boundaries that it once obeyed The volume focuses on questions surrounding the production of knowledge and on how scholarly investigation beyond the conventional thematic boundaries of medieval art history is changing demonstrating how the field can address the ethics of scholarship today by positing a global turn in response to growing demands for socially responsible medieval studies Collectively the contributors demonstrate how going out of bounds can transform modern understanding of the people traditions and relationships that gave rise to medieval works As such this book argues for the necessity of reshaping scholarly discourse about the nature and significance of medieval art and generates fresh scholarly interpretations and important new critical tools for teaching and researching the Middle Ages The contributors to this volume are Suzanne Conklin Akbari Michele Bacci Jill Caskey Eva Frojmovic Sarah M Gu rin Christina Maranci Alice Isabella Sullivan Thelma K Thomas Michele Tomasi and Alicia Walker

People of the Image Marc Michael Epstein, 2025-06-24 The Middle Ages provide us with one of the richest repositories of art in the West Yet the rise in the production of art made for and by Jews especially in the form of illuminated manuscripts is often neglected in general surveys or viewed as a mere emulation of Christian art during this period In People of the Image Marc Michael Epstein demonstrates how medieval Jews transformed their visual art into a vital site of critical commentary Through bold speculation and radical interpretation Epstein considers how viewers might have empathized with depicted emotions how they envisioned the relationship between the monstrous and the human and how they could effectively perpetrate subversive acts merely by anticipating what might occur next in a given image were it to be set in motion Examining these artworks and imagining the circumstances of their production and reception Epstein uncovers otherwise inaccessible social political and theological perceptions among Europe's major medieval minority He goes on to illuminate the afterlives of medieval Jewish art in its reimaginings by postmodern Jews struggling to establish a conceptual as well as a political space for themselves as a minority in majority Christian society Bringing together diverse currents from various fields and bodies of literature People of the Image reveals how medieval Jews understood themselves the world and God Provocative and engagingly written the book will appeal to audiences across medieval studies cultural studies art history and Jewish studies

Church, State, Vellum, and Stone Therese Martin, Julie Harris, 2005-12-01 The sixteen essays in this volume were written to honor John Williams's contributions to the study of medieval Spanish art and architecture Contributors from the fields of Art History History and Archaeology were chosen to demonstrate Williams's wide ranging influence as scholar and teacher Thus the collection represents current research by scholars from five countries providing an interdisciplinary international and even intergenerational view of the work being done in Spanish medieval History and Art History today With contributions by Achim Arbeiter Simon Barton Ann Boylan James D Emilio Angela Franco Julie A Harris Peter K Klein Therese Martin Eileen P McKiernan Gonz lez Pamela Patton David Raizman Bernard F Reilly Diane Reilly Roc o S nchez Ameijeiras Jos Luis Senra and Kenneth B Wolf
