Battle for the Beetle Karl E. Ludvigsen,2000 Ludvigsen traces the history of the Volkswagen Beetle from its inception as a people s car for Hitler s Germany to its status as a beloved American icon to the arrival of the New Beetle in 1998 He focuses on the car s creation the industry wide power struggle following the German defeat in World Automobile Year ,1973 The Complete Book of the World Rally Championship Henry Hope-Frost,John Davenport,2004 For 30 years some of the most talented and bravest drivers have battled across the continents of the world to claim what is arguably motorsport s toughest prize the World Rally Championship Now a multi million dollar global technology battle and terrestrial television phenomenon played out over the frozen wastes of Finland the dusty plains of Australia and the sun kissed mountain roads of Corsica the WRC has reached its 30th birthday This book celebrates that important milestone and paints an exhaustively detailed picture of the people and personalities who have shaped this great sport The Complete Book of the World Rally Champions provides a biographical account of the 65 men who have won at least one World Championship Rally since 1973 The biographies are compiled by the sport s leading writers and historians and complemented by stunning photography The book includes a detailed and accurate statistical career record of each driver plus highlights of all the significant cars Focus On: 100 Most Popular Sedans Wikipedia contributors, Focus On: 100 Most Popular Station Wagons Wikipedia contributors, The New Domestic Automakers in the United States and Canada A.J. Jacobs,2015-12-16 Over the past forty years state provincial and local governments in the United States and Canada have provided foreign automakers with approximately 4 80 billion in incentives in order to lure light vehicles assembly plants to their areas This has included tax abatements infrastructure construction land giveaways job training programs and other subsidies As of early 2015 ten foreign vehicle makers operated 20 light vehicles in developed North America Despite the fact that all ten of these automakers have pursued a similar pattern first exporting vehicles into the United States and Canada before launching vehicle plants in developed North America each has followed its own specific historical development path and has created its own unique growth trajectory This book provides a unique historical and qualitative review of these ten vehicle makers from their early beginnings to their export entry into the United States and or Canada through early 2015 In addition it chronicles the histories of more than a dozen former automakers and potential future foreign light motor vehicle assembly plants in the United States and Canada This includes the first foreign automaker to build its cars in the United States De Dion Bouton of France in July 1900 the early 20th Century endeavors of Fiat Mercedes and Rolls Royce and the present day hopes of Chinese and Indian automakers In the process the text also provides an assessment of the top competing states and sites for any future plants the possible incentives packages governments may offer to attract such facilities and an estimated incentive value for each automaker Overall the goal of this book is to expand the knowledge of policymakers at all tiers of government in the United States and Canada and to help them take a more holistic look at the pros and cons of attracting Automobile Manufacturing FDI It is hoped that this will enable them to make more informed decisions when pursuing a new foreign motor vehicle assembly plant Its findings should also prove informative to urban and regional planning political science sociology economics labor and international development scholars and students in North America and worldwide
