Britton,2018-05-16 Henri Nouwen wisely said The great illusion of leadership is to think that man can be led out of the desert by someone who has never been there Jesus has been there and knows how to lead us out but first he just may lead us in He meets us in the desert and does his best work in us there We look for an easier way in vain I myself reluctantly entered the desert and eventually received unimagined gifts there gifts I didn t ask for deserve or want gifts hidden in such painful loss that I despaired and yet looking back now these desert gifts were the best thing that ever happened to me I entered the desert and years later found my way out It s not a new way it was just new to me Jewish and Christian sages had been living it for thousands of years Somehow in recent generations we managed to forget it In this collection I mean to begin to make those riches available to you I m hoping that like me you ll discover something that you didn t know you wanted or needed and something now you wouldn t give up at any price A Spirituality for Brokenness Terry Taylor,2012-04-12 A gentle clear guide to finding hope and help in troubled days When you begin to understand what brokenness means you will be armed with information that empowers you to take the steps that can turn your leaden feelings into opportunities for health and happiness When you can accept and perhaps even celebrate your brokenness you can cease your endless search for healing and get on with your life scars and all from Chapter 1 We each have broken areas of our lives Whether from things that happen to us or as consequences of our own choices there are times and situations where our very souls feel fractured With wisdom and profound personal experience Terry Taylor guides you through a compassionate yet highly practical process of facing accepting and finally integrating your brokenness into your life a process that can ultimately bring mending He offers a clear eyed kindhearted method based on teachings and practices from many religious traditions including Ancient Christian practice of Lectio Divina to face our brokenness Tibetan practice of tonglen to generate compassion for ourselves Jewish tradition of Sabbath keeping to give us the space we need to mend Muslim practice of hajj pilgrimage to bring the journey full circle No matter your faith tradition you will find lovingkindness and wise counsel in this useful step by step guide to transforming these moments of supreme vulnerability into opportunities for reflection and spiritual growth The One Year God's Great Blessings Devotional Patricia Raybon,2011-09-23 In The One Year God s Great Blessings Devotional acclaimed writer and speaker Raybon leads believers on a 365 day journey through Scripture that traces the connection between God's virtues, his timeless, smart life-giving principles and his promised blessings Creation and Hope Nicola Hoggard Creegan, Andrew Shepherd, 2018-04-25

We live in an ecological age. Science in the last few hundred years has given us a picture of nature as blind to the future and mechanical in its workings, even while ecology and physics have made us aware of our interconnectedness and dependency upon the web of life. As we witness a possible sixth great mass extinction, there is increasing awareness too of the fragility of life on this planet. In such a context, what is the nature of Christian hope? St Paul declares that all of creation will be set free from its bondage to decay and will obtain the freedom of the glory of the children of God. How are we to imagine this freedom when death and decay are essential to biological life as we currently experience it, and when the scientific predictions for life are bleak at best? This book explores these questions, reflecting on how our traditions shape our imagination of the future and considering how a theology of hope may sustain Christians engaged in conservation initiatives. The essays in this volume are partly in dialogue with the ground-breaking work of Celia Deane Drummond and are set in the context of global and local Aotearoa New Zealand ecological challenges Communion with God Kelly M. Kopic, 2024-09-03

The recent resurgence of interest in the Puritan John Owen has resulted in increasing requests for Kelly Kopic's Communion with God, which was one of the books that helped foster renewed attention on this classic theologian. This book is now back in print with a new preface by the author. According to Kopic, a variety of people today are rediscovering Owen, including academic theologians, ministers from different denominational backgrounds, and laypeople interested in classic forms of spirituality. With this diverse audience in mind, Kopic focuses on the concept of communion with God in Owen's thought, covering key areas such as anthropology, Christology, trinitarian studies, and the Lord's Supper. Kopic shows that Owen remains a rich dialogue partner for those engaged both in contemporary theology and pastoral practice That Their Work Will Be a Joy Cameron Lee, Kurt Fredrickson, 2012-09-01

For those who are called to it, pastoral ministry can be a source of deep joy. But there are also challenges. An increasing number of pastors seem to be burning out under the load. Congregations may not be aware of the many and conflicting demands placed on a pastor's time and energies, nor the pastor's need for rest and personal support. That Their Work Will Be a Joy was written to encourage mutual understanding between pastors and congregations about the stresses of ministry. The authors present five principles that will help ministry remain more of a joy than a burden. Every chapter contains practical recommendations targeted specifically for pastors, congregational leaders, and even seminarians preparing for ministry. A dozen personal responses to the book, written as letters from people in ministry, have been collected together at the end. The book is helpful as a ministry preparation text, a guide for those serving as pastors, or as a discussion starter for pastors' support groups. It will help church committees smooth a pastoral transition or calm seminary graduates anticipating their first placement. The hope is that stressed-out pastors will recover their sense of vocation and congregations will begin to fulfill their calling as the body of Christ Beautiful Blessings from God Patricia Raybon, 2016-04-01
