president and vice president of the United States have fallen ill with mysterious flu like symptoms It is not long before both me receive the same devastating diagnosis pancreatic cancer But that is not the worst of it Soon many in Congress and the Supreme Court start to exhibit the same symptoms In less than four months the president is dead the vice president is barely hanging onto life and one third of Congress is deceased Unfortunately the United States is not the only country ravaged by the scourge By the time research leads medical experts to determine that only Muslims seem to be immune to the plague most governments around the world are left with few survivors As a Muslim takes over the presidency of the United States he declares that the cancer spares no one except true believers in Allah After he urges nonbelievers to convert to Islam in an effort to stop the population from dying off forever a ban on pork and alcoholic beverages is put into place But it is not long before experts discover what is truly causing the epidemic a sinister virus In this political thriller the world is thrown into turmoil as a powerful group of evil saboteurs hold the future of humanity hostage

Septemics: Hierarchies of Human Phenomena Jim Marshall, 2021-01-26 Portions of this book are posted on Septemics com Isaac Asimov in his famous Foundation trilogy imagined a future in which a science of the mind could accurately predict human events This work is a down payment on that promise It comprises a revolutionary and elaborate system for accurately analyzing assessing predicting and managing the behaviors and characteristics of groups and individuals It is a textbook about a new philosophical science called Septemics which consists of thirty five scales each of which delineates the exact sequence and patterns in which human beings actually behave and manifest in various contexts

Each of these scales describes an axis upon which individuals and or groups advance or decline This book would generally fit into the literary category of Psychological Philosophy although there has never been a book quite like this in human history One must actually read the book in order to access the power of its contents because it is not like anything else     How Constitutional Rights Matter Adam S. The Trial Sadakat Kadri, 2007-12-18 For as long as accuser and accused have faced each other in public criminal trials have been establishing far more than who did what to whom and in this fascinating book Sadakat Kadri surveys four thousand years of courtroom drama A brilliantly engaging writer Kadri journeys from the silence of ancient Egypt's Hall of the Dead to the clamor of twenty first century Hollywood to show how emotion and fear have inspired Western notions of justice and the extent to which they still riddle its trials today He explains for example how the jury emerged in medieval England from trials by fire and water in which validations of vengeance were presumed to be divinely supervised and how delusions identical to those that once sent witches to the stake were revived as accusations of Satanic child abuse during the 1980s Lifting the lid on a particularly bizarre niche of legal history Kadri tells how European lawyers once prosecuted animals objects and corpses and argues that the same instinctive urge to punish is still apparent when a child or mentally ill defendant is accused of sufficiently heinous crimes But Kadri's history is about aspiration as well as ignorance He shows how principles such as the right to silence and the right to confront witnesses hallmarks of due process guaranteed by the U S Constitution were derived from the Bible by twelfth century monks He tells of show trials from Tudor England to Stalin's Soviet Union but contends that no trials in Guantanamo Bay and elsewhere are just as repugnant to Western traditions of justice and fairness With governments everywhere eroding legal protections in the name of an indefinite war on terror Kadri's analysis could hardly be timelier At once encyclopedic and entertaining comprehensive and colorful The Trial rewards curiosity and an appreciation of the absurd but tackles as well questions that are profound Who has the right to judge and why What did past civilizations hope to achieve through scapegoats and sacrifices and to what extent are defendants still made to bear the sins of society at large Kadri addresses such themes through scores of meticulously researched stories all told with the verve and wit that won him one of Britain's most prestigious travel writing awards and in doing so he has created a masterpiece of popular history

Prophets Without Honor William Strabala, Michael Palecek, 2002 Radical priests laid it on the line challenging government corporations and the Church Some were jailed some were killed Personal accounts tell why they had to do it and why governments and the Church fought so hard to stop them The book tells the story of a group of American men who happen to be priests and who happen to have served decades in American prisons and the stalwart women who helped them form an international movement called Plowshares In so doing the book tells the morally patriotic story of America a story told before only from behind an open hand across the face like a football coach talking to his spotters in full view of a national television audience afraid someone might see Darrell Rupiper Larry Rosebaugh and Carl Kabat are Oblate missionary priests Frank Cordaro is a diocesan priest from Des Moines Roy Bourgeois is a Maryknoll priest Charlie Liteky is an ex Trinitarian priest Rupiper was in the national spotlight during the Iran hostage crisis He traveled to Iran as part of team of clerics hoping to gain the release of the hostages Rosebaugh now lives with the poor in El Salvador He was a member of the Milwaukee 14 a group that burned draft records in accord with the example set by the Berrigan brothers at Catonsville Maryland in 1968 Kabat has served over 16 years in United States federal and state prisons since 1980 as a result of his anti military actions Cordaro has served half a dozen federal prison terms for his anti nuclear activities He has also given sanctuary to a manure spreader in support of Iowa farmers During the Carter presidency Cordaro found himself on the front page of the Washington Post after he stood in front of Carter during a press conference to tell the world the truth about the S A L T treaty Bourgeois from the deep South and a former military officer who served in Vietnam recently made his own front page news N Y Times Washington Post and others as leader of the massive protests at Fort Benning Georgia calling for the closing of the School of the Americas Bourgeois and Rosebaugh also served prison terms in the 1980s when they sneaked into Fort Benning climbed a tree and played a tape outside the Salvadoran soldiers barracks of the last sermon given by slain archbishop Oscar Romero Liteky is a former chaplain who served in Vietnam He received the Congressional Medal of Honor and later surrendered it challenging General Abrams and President Nixon in the process With the exception of Cordaro all of these men began their clerical careers as missionaries in Brazil the Philippines Bolivia and Vietnam and discovered America in the process They discovered that the trail of the poor leads through such countries directly back to America It leads directly to Rupiper s home in Carroll Iowa to Rosebaugh and Kabat s roots in rural Illinois to Cordaro s Des Moines Italian household and to the nation s capital where Liteky was born They also discovered that the America they grew up in never existed They read history and learned about America s militarism its attempts at global hegemony and they felt they must resist They wanted with all their hearts for their childhood America to be made real a just and loving America even if that meant they must spend years behind prison walls
