Sacraments Readings In Contemporary Sacrament Theology Readings In Contemporary Sacramental Theology:

The Sacraments Michael J. Taylor, 1981 Well chosen and readable anthology of articles on contemporary sacramental theology

Christian Marriage and Family Michael G. Lawler, William P. Roberts, 1996 A definite shift in the Catholic Church's understanding of marriage took place at Vatican Council II Rather than perceiving marriage as a contract whose primary purpose was the procreation of children the council spoke of marriage as an intimate partnership of life and love Then recapturing an earlier tradition it went on to describe the family as a domestic church In this book seven theologians who have lectured and written extensively on marriage probe the rich theology of marriage and family that emerged from Vatican II and explore some of the implications that flow from this theology Part One reflects on the sacramentality of marriage and on the family as a church of the home Part Two examines the pastoral implications this has for marital and family ministry and spirituality

Urban Ecclesiology Pascal D. Bazzell, 2015-05-21 Pascal D Bazzell brings the marginal ecclesiology of a Filipino ecclesial community facing homelessness FECH into contemporary ecclesiological conversation in order to deepen the ecumenical understanding of today's ecclesial reality He contributes relevant data to support a theory of an ecclesial oriented paradigm that fosters ecclesial communities within homeless populations There is an extensive dialogue occurring between ecclesiologies church planting theories or urban missions and the urban poor Yet the situation with the homeless population is almost entirely overlooked The majority of urban mission textbooks do not acknowledge an ecclesial oriented state of being and suggest that the street level environment is a place where no discipleship can occur and no church should exist By presenting the FECH's case study Bazzell emphasizes that it is possible to live on the streets and to grow in the faith of God as an ecclesial community To be able to describe the FECH's ecclesial narrative Bazzell develops a local ecclesiological methodology that aims to bridge the gap between more traditional systematic and theoretical ideal ecclesiology and practical oriented ecclesiology e.g congregational studies in order to hold together theological and social understandings of the church in its local reality He articulates a theological framework for the FECH to reflect on who they are the essence of identity studies who they are in relationship to God the essence of theological studies and what that means for believers in that community as they relate to God and to each other in ways that are true to who they are and to who God intends them to be the essence of ecclesial studies The research provides a seldom heard empirical tour into the FECH's social world and communal identity The theological findings from the FECH's hermeneutical work on the Gospel of Mark reveal an understanding of church being developed as gathering around Jesus that creates a space for God's presence to be embodied in their ordinary relationships and activities and to invite others to participate in that gathering Moreover it addresses ecclesial issues of the supernatural world honor shame values and further develop the neglected image of the familia Dei in classical ecclesiology that encapsulates well the FECH's nature mission and place

Jeffery Loomis,1988 Identifying sacramentalism as the key to the poetry and spirituality of Gerard Manley Hopkins this study suggests that Hopkins most dominantly emphasized the sacramental Mystical Body of the Church and that his poems aspire to see past the out scape of nature and humanity to revelations of spiritual inscape Dancing to the Post-modern Tune

Tobias O. Okoro,2010 Religions and Discourse explores religious language in the major world faiths from various viewpoints including semiotics pragmatics and cognitive linguistics and reflects on how it is situated within wider intellectual and cultural contexts In particular a key issue is the role of figurative speech Many fascinating metaphors originate in religion e g revelation as a garment apostasy as adultery loving kindness as the circumcision of the heart Divine

Enticement:Theological Seductions Karmen Mackendrick,2013 Divine Enticement argues for a reconception of theology and its subject matter as modes of seduction of both body and mind Theological language as evocation opens onto rereadings of faith sacrament ethics prayer and scripture The conclusion argues for a sense of theology as calling upon infinite possibility

The Active Participation of the Faithful in the Eucharist on the Basis of Common Priesthood Stella Adamma Nneji,2018-06-15 One of the significant points of the Second Vatican Council is its emphasis on the status of the lay faithful in the church which includes active participation in the life of faith The council spoke of the active participation of all the faithful in liturgical celebrations on the basis of the common priesthood of the faithful which is conferred during baptism and through which every believer shares in the priestly kingly and prophetic offices of Christ In this book Stella Nneji develops an ecclesiological critical reflection on the teaching of the Second Vatican Council with regard to active participation Focusing especially on the church as people of God Nneji shows how the idea of participation is not merely a passive action but an active one Based on the ecclesiological reflection on the church as people of God and its relevance for active participation she maintains that Vatican II's vision on active participation is relevant to the upbuilding of the body of Christ church This vision integrates a critical thinking especially regarding those places where the implementation of Vatican II's teachings seems difficult Sacraments Ray Robert Noll,1999 Firmly rooted in the tradition of the Church and some of the best scholarship of the past 40 years Noll explores the sign meaning and experience of each of the seven sacraments in the church Included is a CD ROM containing articles and passages by some of today's key sacramental theologians Ars Liturgiae

Tradition Irish Church Architecture Introduction to the Sacraments John P. Schanz, 1983 Beginning with an exposition of religion and ritual worship as a constant in human life the author brings the reader to the Biblical statement of a loving God who gave himself to humankind through the Father's free gift of his Son to form a new family Thus saving history comes to a climax in a sacramental Church The author shows the sacraments to be the actualization of Christ's saving acts alive through word and rite in the world today Faith and Culture Emmanuel Osigwe, 2022-12-05 The recognition of the intersection of faith and culture has become a significant trend in contemporary theology Cultures are locations of divine activity The Sacramental Theology of Elochukwu Uzukwu in Light of Vatican II and Its Application in African Context brings freshness to the dominant Catholic sacramental thinking by offering an African appropriation of the Christian faith through African cultures It demonstrates the historical interaction of the Christian faith with multiple anthropologies that resonates with different peoples to celebrate rituals that convey divine activity This work engages the theology of Elochukwu Uzukwu a recent African sacramental liturgical theologian whose work reflects the elements of sacramental and liturgical renewal of the Second Vatican Council especially in its openness to a plurality of cultures This book retrieves resources from the African universe to offer a contextual appropriation of the interface between faith and African cultures It highlights the African view of the body in its expressive worship and significance of relationality as an undergirding existential philosophy of life Consequently it offers a flexible theological methodology that avoids polarities It provides an additional resource to the philosophical and theological approach to the perennial problem of duality and theologies constructed on this template This study moves beyond monocultural sacramental expression to engage symbols and indigenous resources to articulate an African sacramental theology Sacramental Theology Bruce T. Morrill, 2019-11-18 Throughout the second half of the twentieth century sacramental theology has evolved as a discipline advancing comprehensive theories of sacraments and sacramentality as integral to the Christian faith while also studying the history and theology of the particular rites Now in the twenty first century the need for attention to the actual performance and specific social settings of sacramental worship has become well established This makes the work of sacramental theology necessarily engaged with multiple cross disciplinary theories attentive to particular contexts whether local national or global Still the divine human encounter at the heart of Christian symbol and ritual likewise beckons to philosophical theological reflection The essays in this volume begin with profound philosophical perspectives on the personal and communal sacramental experience expanding from traditional cosmology to evolutionary and chaos theories of our planetary existence continuing with shifts especially among youth to interreligious and non institutional perspectives consideration of change in popular notions of guilt and social ethical issues in relation to liturgical theology and practice so as finally to return to fundamental theological reflection on human sacramentality and divine revelation Sacramental Theological Thinking in the African Symbolic Universe Isidore Okwudili O. Igwegbe, 1995 Sacramental thinking is that world view of a believer which understands and explains certain signs and symbols as purveyors of a sacred and salvific reality The Church's evangelization mission includes the project of educating her members to think and live sacramentally Africans can easily cultivate sacramental thinking on the basis of the fact that sacramental thinking presupposes the symbolic Using expository and critical analytic methods the study clarifies the need for a passage from the mere symbolic to the more perfect sacramental reasoning while at the same time deploying J H Newman as a springboard for the African intelligentsia The Oxford Handbook of Sacramental Theology Hans Boersma, Matthew Levering, 2015-08-06 As a multi faceted introduction to sacramental theology the purposes of this Handbook are threefold historical ecumenical and missional The forty four chapters are organized into the following parts five parts Sacramental Roots in Scripture Patristic Sacramental Theology Medieval Sacramental Theology From the Reformation through Today and Philosophical and Theological Issues in Sacramental Doctrine Contributors to this Handbook explain the diverse ways that believers have construed the sacraments both in inspired Scripture and in the history of the Church's practice In Scripture and the early Church Orthodox Protestants and Catholics all find evidence that the first Christian communities celebrated and taught about the sacraments in a manner that Orthodox Protestants and Catholics today affirm as the foundation of their own faith and practice Thus for those who want to understand what has been taught about the sacraments in Scripture and across the generations by the major thinkers of the various Christian traditions this Handbook provides an introduction As the divisions in Christian sacramental understanding and practice are certainly evident in this Handbook it is not thereby without ecumenical and missional value This book evidences that the story of the Christian sacraments is despite divisions in interpretation and practice one of tremendous hope The Eucharistic Liturgy Jameson K. Pallikunnil, 2017-03-20 The Malankara Mar Thoma Syrian Church exists as a hybrid church by blending the Eastern liturgical elements of the Oriental Orthodox Church and the evangelical ideas of the Protestant Reformation of the sixteenth century This Church is a bridging church connecting Protestantism and Oriental Orthodoxy The reformation in the Malankara Church 1836 instigated a new impetus for this church in constructing an ecclesial identity and pattern of mission A major missiological imperative employed by CMS missionaries in India was solely centered on the scripture Against this popular understanding the Mar Thoma Church through its reformation process showed that liturgy can also be an imperative for mission The translation and revision of the Eucharistic liturgy is the basic visible expression of reformation in the Malankara Church Hence this book explicitly places how the Eucharistic liturgy of the Mar Thoma Church is observed as the foundation for mission in its course of growth In order to accomplish this objective the writer has examined the historical evolution and the developmental process of the Eucharistic liturgy of the church which is a revised version of the liturgy of St James In a nutshell this study is an appraisal of various missiological themes reflected in the Eucharistic liturgy of the church This study throws ample light on how the Mar Thoma Church integrated liturgy and evangelism in its course of development The writer systematically illustrates how the church made a serious effort to bring missional themes employed in the liturgy into the practical realm by its ancillary organizations convention gatherings and sociocharitable works This volume asserts that an emphasis on Eucharist centred ecclesiology guides and motivates the church to enliven a mission oriented life which is crucial for accomplishing a relevant mission The Oil of Gladness Martin Dudley,Geoffrey Rowell,1993 This is a comprehensive survey of the use of oils in the Christian tradition The 16 essays discuss anointing in the Catholic Orthodox Anglican and Reformed Churches and covers the period from Old Testament times to the revival of the use of oils in contemporary culture Marriage and Sacrament Michael G. Lawler,2017-06-15 At a time in human history when women and men are more concerned about interpersonal relationships and when there is an extensive questioning of the specific relationship between a woman and a man in marriage Marriage and Sacrament offers an understanding of how to live out the Christ meaning and Church meaning of that relationship so that by living martially and sacramentally couples can reveal to the world and to the Church the deeper meaning of all human love The book examines the relationship among love marriage and sacrament it examines the meanings of the sacrament of marriage its biblical basis its history and what happens when it comes to an end it examines sexual love indissoluble love fruitful love and ecumenical love in relationship to both marriage and sacrament Marriage and Sacrament is an indispensable resource for pastoral ministers and ministry students as well as all who contemplate or are now partners in marriage Divine Promise and Human Freedom in Contemporary Catholic Thought Kevin A. McMahon,2015-07-01 It has always been understood that the central claim of Christianity that Jesus born of Mary is the Son of God is as much a declaration of the mystery of the human as it is the mystery of God just as the claim that in virtue of this identity he is the Christ who restores and more transforms the created order intensifies the mystery of the human even further When the age of revolution was followed by the age of science and the effort to shape the environment by technology was joined by an injunction to shape societies and economies and class conflicts became part of world conflicts the question about the human emerged as a crisis in the meaning of being human Yet the Catholic mind preoccupied like every other with the crisis has conducted its reflection within a tradition of Christian humanism insisting on the mystery and the tragedy and still the dignity of the human This collection of essays by thirteen Catholic scholars of philosophy theology and political thought investigates a range of topics from human sexuality and marriage to moral freedom and responsibility in a pluralistic society while demonstrating that the Gospel passed on in an ecclesial tradition entered into through a sacramental tradition remains the one radical source of confidence in the quest for human truth The World as Sacrament Mathai Kadavil,2005 Sacramentology is one of the few theological disciplines that have undergone tremendous changes in the past In the background of all these developments this study aims to look for a paradigm the world as sacrament that encompasses various trends and is relevant to the multi religious context of contemporary society The aim of this study is to rediscover this paradigm that existed from the beginning of Christianity Its main concern is to see the different possibilities it offers for today as well as observing the different concerns that are present in it It is done from the perspectives of Latin Greek and Syrian Christian traditions The Rites of Christian Initiation Maxwell E. Johnson, 2016-03-24 Originally published in 1999 The Rites of Christian Initiation was hailed for its clarity and comprehensiveness Kallistos Ware OSB called it the best overall treatment of Christian initiation available and Paul Bradshaw predicted it would be the standard textbook on the subject for very many years to come The current edition draws on new translations of early texts on baptism as well as recent scholarship on the early traditions in the East and West It is sure to replace itself as the new standard reference on the rites of Christian initiation Maxwell E Johnson's expanded and revised text provides a more complete view of the history and interpretation of the rites in the Eastern Church including two chapters that explore the pre Nicene Eastern and Western traditions in detail Revisiting the theology of baptism this edition also provides more nuanced positions on the Eastern and Western traditions Finally recent liturgical developments in American Protestant churches particularly Lutheran as well as the ongoing development of the RCIA and confirmation practices of Catholics made it necessary to revisit the place and meaning of these rites in the church today Maxwell E Johnson PhD is professor of liturgy at the University of Notre Dame and an ordained minister of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America He has published in Worship and is the editor of and contributor to Living Water Sealing Spirit Readings on Christian Initiation Liturgical Press 1995 and the revised and expanded edition of E C Whitaker Documents of the Baptismal Liturgy Liturgical Press and S P C K 2003 to which this study serves as a companion volume
