Sacred Gift Of Life:

The Sacred Gift of Life John Breck, 2000 The gift of life J.M. Vorster, 2021 The concept human life and what it entails have become a prominent idea in current theological ethical discourses especially in the growing Christian reflection on bioethics eco ethics and social justice Contemporary Christian ethicists focus on concepts such as flourishing life happiness and joy and how these deep human desires can be realised and fulfilled in life today amidst perennial surges of racism xenophobia sexism systemic violence and policies and structures which further poverty and other forms of social injustices Christian soteriology and subsequent moral agency grapples with the question How can humans flourish in societies today and how should Christian morality be defined and designed to be instrumental in the current pursuit of happiness joy and hope This publication aims to participate in this modern day discourse by proposing relevant theological perspectives on the concept of life and in particular its relevance for Christians living in this age and in an environment that poses major challenges to public morality and the common good In conjunction with the emerging theological interest in the concept of life this project is a modest attempt to take part in the advancement of an ethic of life for today under the rubric of an ethic of flourishing personhood The point of departure is the biblical concept of the gift of life and what this gift entails for understanding human life personhood and moral agency today The line of reasoning in this book delineates the broad concept ethic of life and the biblical concept gift of life and draws the line towards an ethic of flourishing personhood The central theoretical argument of the study is that reformed theology can give direction to the contemporary theological search for meaning and purpose of human life and offer answers to the questions on life facing humanity today especially by pursuing the idea of flourishing personhood Understanding End of Life Practices: Perspectives on Communication, Religion and Culture Chandana Banerjee, 2023-10-18 This book is an exploration of issues that are essential in end of life care Understanding end of life practices across cultures and religions is important in the delivery of patient centered end of life care This book helps clinicians and non clinicians understand the various end of life practices in their vast patient populations further contributing to providing empathetic and compassionate end of life care to patients With the advent of many new options at the end of life this book also explores the modern day approaches to end of life often sought by patients when faced with disease progression and adversity The Circle of Life James David Audlin, 2012-02-22 THE CIRCLE OF LIFE presents traditional oral Native American sacred teachings from the Iroquois Lakota and other traditions The author has been receiving these teachings from elders since his youth The wisdom embraces cosmology ethics epistemology metaphysics sociology psychology healing dream interpretation and more Audlin calls himself neither a spiritual teacher nor an authority but a conduit through which these oral traditions can be presented meaningfully to people in a modern world He outlines universal principles common to many traditional peoples worldwide The Red Road is available to all regardless of religion or ethnicity willing to follow its paths These paths however are often not easy and require deep personal and spiritual commitment Audlin says in his introduction If this book serves any purpose let it be to help us bring the Sacred Hoop of All the Nations back together again so we and all that lives may stand as one in silent awe before that Great Mystery
