The Need For a Sacred Science Seyyed Hossein Nasr, 2005-08-12 The meaning of a science rooted in the sacred its contrast to modern science and its pertinence to us today The Sacred Science Nick Polizzi, 2018-04-03 In 2010 Nick Polizzi did something unimaginable He assembled a group of eight desperately ill patients from around the world and brought them into the heart of the Amazon rainforest to put the mysterious medicines of native shamans to the test The healing journey that unfolded would change their lives and his own forever In The Sacred Science we join Nick as he explores these primordial traditions and learns firsthand what it takes to truly heal ourselves of physical disease emotional trauma and the sense of lostness that so many of us feel in these modern times We venture into a place where the ordinary rules we live by even survival instincts don't apply where the only thing to do is to step forward and be ready for anything Nick is not a guru or shaman he is an ordinary guy who pieced together an illuminating journey one experience at a time In this riveting true story we're shown the many layers that must be peeled away in order for us to find the truth of who we are and why we're here This book is a bridge between the flashy fast moving modern world and the forgotten ways of a healthier earth connected ancestral past You'll find practices and principles of native wisdom that you can put to use in your own life and you'll gain a new understanding of what it means to heal In the end what will become of the eight patients who set out on this path with Nick Will the exotic jungle medicines and harrowing rites of passage destroy them or give them a new lease on life Five will return with remarkable healing results Two will return disappointed One won't return at all SUMMA

Summa Theologica (Complete) Saint Thomas Aquinas, 1955-01-01 All Scripture inspired of God is profitable to teach to reprove to correct to instruct in justice Now Scripture inspired of God is no part of philosophical science which has been built up by human reason Therefore it is useful that besides philosophical science there should be other knowledge i e inspired of God I answer that It was necessary for man s salvation that there should be a knowledge revealed by God besides philosophical science built up by human reason Firstly indeed because man is directed to God as to an end that surpasses the grasp of his reason The eye hath not seen O

God besides Thee what things Thou hast prepared for them that wait for Thee Isa 66 4 But the end must first be known by men who are to direct their thoughts and actions to the end Hence it was necessary for the salvation of man that certain truths which exceed human reason should be made known to him by divine revelation Even as regards those truths about God which human reason could have discovered it was necessary that man should be taught by a divine revelation because the truth about God such as reason could discover would only be known by a few and that after a long time and with the admixture of many errors Whereas man's whole salvation which is in God depends upon the knowledge of this truth Therefore in order that the salvation of men might be brought about more fitly and more surely it was necessary that they should be taught divine truths by divine revelation It was therefore necessary that besides philosophical science built up by reason there should be a sacred science learned through revelation Although those things which are beyond man's knowledge may not be sought for by man through his reason nevertheless once they are revealed by God they must be accepted by faith Hence the sacred text continues For many things are shown to thee above the understanding of man Eccles 3 25 And in this the sacred science consists Sciences are differentiated according to the various means through which knowledge is obtained For the astronomer and the physicist both may prove the same conclusion that the earth for instance is round the astronomer by means of mathematics i.e. abstracting from matter but the physicist by means of matter itself Hence there is no reason why those things which may be learned from philosophical science so far as they can be known by natural reason may not also be taught us by another science so far as they fall within revelation Hence theology included in sacred doctrine differs in kind from that theology which is part of philosophy Further no science deals with individual facts But this sacred science treats of individual facts such as the deeds of Abraham Isaac and Jacob and such like Therefore sacred doctrine is not a science On the contrary Augustine says to this science alone belongs that whereby saving faith is begotten nourished protected and strengthened But this can be said of no science except sacred doctrine Therefore sacred doctrine is a science I answer that Sacred doctrine is a science We must bear in mind that there are two kinds of sciences There are some which proceed from a principle known by the natural light of intelligence such as arithmetic and geometry and the like There are some which proceed from principles known by the light of a higher science thus the science of perspective proceeds from principles established by geometry and music from principles established by arithmetic So it is that sacred doctrine is a science because it proceeds from principles established by the light of a higher science namely the science of God and the blessed Hence just as the musician accepts on authority the principles taught him by the mathematician so sacred science is established on principles revealed by God

Barefoot Zen Nathan J. Johnson, 2000-11-15 Johnson makes the Shaolin way legacy accessible to all, releasing the art from the clutches of popular images and painful concerns about self-defense. Barefoot Zen is a brave new approach to the martial arts which clearly demonstrates that the traditional movements of both Kung Fu and Karate, contained in the solo choreographed sequences of movements known as forms or kata, grew out of the spiritual practices of the Shaolin order of Buddhist monks and nuns. Nathan Johnson explains that this mystical and non-violent teaching is a profound and beautiful expression of Chan Zen Buddhism and its pursuit of wisdom, peace, and enlightenment. Contrary to popular assumption, he contends that it was never intended to be an actual means of self-defense. Barefoot Zen bridges the gap between Kung Fu and Karate and reveals their common origin through the disclosure of vital research material on three of the world's most important Karate kata. Part I explains the spiritual disciplines that contributed to what we know as the martial arts. Part II explains the creation of the art along with practical instruction for performing kata. Part III explains the formation of many of the world's Kung Fu styles. We learn that the original empty hand art was used as a method of kinetic meditation between pairs and was designed as a practical tool to assist practitioners in transcending the fear and insecurity of everyday living. The legendary courage of the Shaolin Chan Zen order was not developed by fighting with enemies but by not fighting. The Shaolin teaching was designed to free us from fear, the only true enemy.
