There's an elephant in the room

And I'm feeling kind of restless, as we begin to chatter, flatter, and commune
I'd really We to address it spresence Doesn't seem like you've noticed though
I'veally quite a distraction too.

There's notelling what an elephant in the house could do.

If we could just address the issue for a moment and all be aware.

I'd feel much more secure

There is an elephant in the room. I feel impending doom.
Its shadow is overwhelming with unspoken concern.
If we could just remove it first, Yes, that's what I yearn.
How can we talk about everything else as if this elephant isn't there?
This seems a littlerisky, as if you don't care.

Well, the conversation has been pleasant, what I could follow of it anyway
But that elephant in the room just keeps getting in the way.
So please don't take me wrong. But I really can't staylong,
I believe it's time I excuse myself from this elephant in the room.
