Saving Fear in Christian Spirituality Ann W. Astell, 2019-11-30 Hailed in Sacred Scripture as the beginning of wisdom Ps 111 10 the fear of the Lord is seldom mentioned and little understood today A gift of the Spirit and a moral virtue or disposition the fear of the Lord also frequently entails emotional experiences of differing kinds compunction dread reverence wonderment and awe Starting with the Bible itself this collection of seventeen essays explores the place of holy fear in Christian spirituality from the early church to the present and argues that this fear is paradoxically linked in various ways to fear s seeming opposite love Indeed the charged dynamic of love and fear accounts for different experiences and expressions of Christian life in response to changing historical circumstances and events The writings of the theologians mystics philosophers saints and artists studied here reveal the relationship between the fear and the love of God to be profoundly challenging and mysterious its elements paradoxically conjoined in a creative tension with each other but also tending to oscillate back and forth in the history of Christian spirituality as first one then the other comes to the fore sometimes to correct a perceived imbalance sometimes at the risk of losing its companion altogether Given this historical pattern clearly evident in these chronologically arranged essays the palpable absence of a discourse of holy fear from the mainstream theological landscape should give us pause and invite us to consider if and how under what aspect in which contexts a holy fear inseparable from love might be regained or discovered anew within Christian spirituality as a remedy both for a crippling anxiety and for a presumptive recklessness

This book will be of interest to students and scholars of Christian spirituality theology biblical studies religious studies and religion and literature Contributors Ann W Astell Pieter G R de Villiers Donna R Hawk Reinhard John Sehorn Catherine Rose Cavadini Joseph Wawrykow Robert Boenig Ralph Keen Wendy M Wright Ephraim Radner Julia A Lamm Cyril O Regan Brenna Moore Maj Britt Frenze and Todd Walatka      The Ethical Imagination Margaret Somerville,2009 Developing a boundary crossing ethics by paying attention to our stories myths and moral intuition      A Precious Fountain Mary E.

Francis Susan Pitchford,2006-05-01 A wonderful resource to guide admirers of the humblest of saints what it means to live out the Christian life with a Franciscan accent In a little town in Italy nearly 800 years ago Francis of Assisi renounced everything he owned to follow Christ with passionate and single minded abandon Even today centuries later this simple saint draws people around the world to his story of living in humility love and joy Here in Following Francis Susan Pitchford tells her own story of the Franciscan life as a member of the Third Order founded by Francis himself so that people from all walks of life can follow the saint s ideal without leaving their homes or occupations Pitchford learned that the Franciscan tradition isn t the exclusive possession of monks cloistered in a monastery but a spiritual path for ordinary people living in the 21st century      Opposition Gives You an Opportunity Bobbie Williams,2012-04 This book is based on scriptures from

Nehemiah a Jewish servant of a Persian king and an effective leader who organized and guided the rebuilding of the city walls around Jerusalem While on this special assignment he faced great opposition In spite of harassment he along with others persevered and finished the work When faced with opposition allow it to bring us to a place of unity as well as strength      Our Lady of Everyday Life María Del Socorro Castañeda-Liles,2018 For Mexican Catholic women in the United States devotion to Our Lady of Guadalupe La Virgen is a necessary aspect of their cultural identity In this masterful ethnography Mar a Del Socorro Casta eda Liles considers three generations of Mexican origin women between the ages of 18 and 82 She examines the Catholic beliefs the women inherited from their mothers and how these beliefs become the template from which they first learn to see themselves as people of faith She also offers a comprehensive analysis of how Catholicism creates a culture in which Mexican origin women learn how to be good girls in a manner that reduces their agency to rubble

Through the nexus of faith and lived experience these women develop a type of Mexican Catholic imagination that helps them challenge the sanctification of shame guilt and aguante endurance at all cost This imagination allows these women to transgress strict notions of what a good Catholic woman should be while retaining life giving aspects of Catholicism This transgression is most visible in their relationship to La Virgen which is a fluid and deeply engaged process of self awareness in everyday life
