

TERRY M. LONG

A man in a military uniform, wearing a beret and a jacket with a patch, is kneeling on a patterned prayer rug in a desert setting. He is looking down at his hands, which are resting on his knees. The background is a vast, flat, sandy landscape under a clear sky.

Saddams War Of Words Politics Religion And The:

A Century of State-Making in Iraq Marianna Charountaki, James R. Moore, Liam Anderson, 2025-03-20 As an interdisciplinary publication this book will have a strong international appeal to those across the Middle East who are interested in the complex issues of state building democratic transitions and federalism It will also appeal to the many scholars in North America and Europe engaged in the study of these questions The search for just and stable constitutional arrangements has been a central feature of political debates in the region and since the Arab Uprisings political scientists around the world have focused their attention on changes in the region Iraq is a fascinating case study of a state that emerged from the mandate system with political institutions derived from Western political ideas but one where the application of those ideas reflected the historical circumstances and social realities of fragmented community life Iraq's political and constitutional problems have been fiercely debated since the Iraq war of 2003 with stuttering attempts to create a new constitutional settlement for Iraq This book seeks to place these debates in their wider historical and socio political context and demonstrate how contemporary problems are rooted in Iraq's political system state building processes and unique constitutional past The volume examines different aspects of Iraq's struggle to create a coherent state identity through political institutions that can accommodate diversity This is a topical work with extensive primary source based empirical research alongside the conceptual and theoretical insights offered Its different approach will be valuable to a variety of audiences ranging from scholars and students of international politics relations and law diplomatic history and the Middle East to policymakers and indeed beyond to a broader audience of informed non specialist readers

Visual Culture in the Modern Middle East Christiane Gruber, Sune Haugbolle, 2013-07-17 A collection of essays examining the role and power of images from a wide variety of media in today's Middle Eastern societies This timely book examines the power and role of the image in modern Middle Eastern societies The essays explore the role and function of image making to highlight the ways in which the images speak and what visual languages mean for the construction of Islamic subjectivities the distribution of power and the formation of identity and belonging Visual Culture in the Modern Middle East addresses aspects of the visual in the Islamic world including the presentation of Islam on television on the internet and other digital media in banners posters murals and graffiti and in the satirical press cartoons and children's books This volume takes a new approach to the subject and will be an important contribution to our knowledge in this area It is comprehensive and well structured with fascinating material and analysis Peter Chelkowski New York University An innovative volume analyzing and instantiating the visual culture of a variety of Muslim societies which constitutes a substantially new object of study in the regional literature and one that creates productive links with history anthropology political science art history media studies and urban studies as well as area studies and Islamic studies Walter Armbrust University of Oxford

International Relations in the Middle East Ewan Stein, 2021-02-25 Developing an original theoretical approach to understanding the roots of regional conflict and cooperation International Relations in the Middle East explores domestic and international foreign policy dynamics for an accessible insight into how and why Middle Eastern regional order has changed over time Highlighting interactions between foreign policy trajectories in a range of states including Egypt Iran Iraq Israel Saudi Arabia Syria and Turkey Ewan Stein identifies two main drivers of foreign policy and alignments competitive support seeking and ideological externalisation Clearly linking political ideological and foreign policy dynamics Stein demonstrates how the sources of regional antagonisms and solidarities are to be found not in the geopolitical chessboard but in the hegemonic strategies of the region s pivotal powers Making the case for historical sociology in particular the work of Antonio Gramsci and Louis Althusser as the most powerful lens through which to understand regional politics in the Middle East with wider implications for the study of regional order elsewhere Arts & Humanities Citation Index ,1997 The Middle East, Abstracts and Index ,2004 Maximum Rocknroll ,1991-05 The Compact Edition of the Oxford English Dictionary Sir James Augustus Henry Murray,1971 Micrographic reproduction of the 13 volume Oxford English dictionary published in 1933 The Greatest War Ever Freda Lemuel,2022-05-16 Religion in Politics Richard M.
