continuing preoccupation with socio ethical issues imbued with autobiographical elements in non realist texts including her masterful novels L'iguana, Il cardillo addolorato and Alonso e i visionari. The book combines theme and genre analysis highlighting Ortese's adoption and hybridization of diverse literary forms such as poetry, the novel, the short story, the essay, autobiography, realism, fairy tales, fantasy, allegory. In her work Ortese weaves an ongoing dialogue with literary and non literary works through direct quotations, allusions, echoes, adoption of motifs and topoi. The book thus highlights the intertextual relationship with her sources: Leopardi, Dante, Petrarch, Manzoni, Collodi, Montale, Serao, Shakespeare, Milton, Keats, Blake, Joyce, Conrad, Melville, Poe, Hawthorne, Hardy, Manrique, Gongora, de Quevedo, Villalón, Bello, Cantar del mio Cid, Heine, Valéry, Puccini's Madam Butterfly, folklore, popular songs and the Bible. Ortese thus shapes her literary themes in the background of social, political and economic upheavals over six decades of Italian history, culminating in an allegorical critique of modernity and a call for a renewed bond between humans and the Other.

The New Phase of Global Terrorism Binneh S. Minteh, James Bacigalupo, Kevin Borgeson, Robin Maria Valeri, 2025-05-30. The New Phase of Global Terrorism explores the nuances of the shift in the organization, strategy and operation of terrorist groups into smaller and more robust terror groups in both the United States and international levels. To develop efficient counterterrorism measures, both domestically and globally, an understanding of the changing nature of terrorist group structure and strategy is essential. In this edited collection, authoritative scholars use relevant theories of sociology and psychology as well as evidence from leading counterterrorism agencies such as the FBI to support analysis, examples and explanations of the landscape of terrorism around the world. Part I discusses the evolution, theories and psychology of terrorism. In this part, the authors outline the rationale of the book, capturing how terrorism has changed over the years. In Part II, the book explores the new phase of domestic terrorism, drawing on left wing extremism, right wing extremism and jihadist attackers in the United States, with a focus on their use of lone actor attacks and decentralized networks. Part III focuses on the new phase of international terrorism and discusses operational organization and strategies of international terror groups and their capabilities in the form of combat operations and small group operatives in Sub-Saharan Africa, the Middle East and South East Asia. Part IV covers terrorists' use of technology for propaganda, recruitment, training and operations, with examples from the use of technology in recruiting and training by Al Qaeda and Islamic State in Iraq and Syria, ISIS. Part V brings this information together and analyzes the criminal justice response, including building partnerships with counterterrorism agencies, intelligence sharing and the use of courts to bring terrorist actors to justice. Ideal as a text in terrorism, counterterrorism and homeland security courses, this book is highly readable for criminal justice, psychology and sociology students and professors as well as policymakers and practitioners concerned with countering terrorism at home and abroad.
