Siloed Diversity Catherine Gomes, 2018-04-30 This book examines the experiences of transient migrants in the Asia Pacific and in so doing provides new ways of understanding diversity By focusing on the transient destination hubs of Australia and Singapore Catherine Gomes shifts our thinking about diversity for two disruptive reasons the increasingly large and global transient flows of people and our everyday reliance on digital media The unprecedented usage of digital media influences not only communication patterns and information seeking behaviour but has also led to the rapid evolution of the very nature of entertainment and news and directly impacted on our documenting and mapping of self e.g posts of photographs opinions and links on social media timelines The book introduces readers to the concept of siloed diversity a phenomenon which occurs when people rely on a hierarchy of identities developed while in transience to make connections and disconnections with others

Chinese as a Second Language Multilinguals' Speech Competence and Speech Performance Peijian Paul Sun, 2020-08-19 This book offers a comprehensive and systematic review of multilingual L2 learners spoken Chinese focusing on the dual dimensions of speech competence and speech performance Specifically by adopting a mixed methods approach it explores the cognitive affective and socio cultural differences between intermediate and advanced multilingual learners L2

Chinese speech competence and speech performance Drawing on a theoretical framework underpinned by the affective filter hypothesis L2 willingness to communicate model L2 motivational self system and L2 speech production models this book not only contributes to our theoretical understanding of the roles of various factors in L2 Chinese speech competence and speech performance but also offers practical insights into the implications for both teachers and learners in terms of how to minimize the gap between these two dimensions among L2 Chinese learners It concludes with a discussion on the limitations of L2 Chinese speech and on future directions for the field      The Future of Singapore Kamaludeen Mohamed Nasir, Bryan S. Turner, 2014-05-09 Singapore like many other advanced economies has a relatively low and declining birth rate One consequence of this and a consequence also of the successful economy is that migrants are being drawn in and are becoming an increasing proportion of the overall population This book examines this crucial development and assesses its likely impact on Singapore society politics and the state It shows that although Singapore is a multi ethnic society migration and the changing ethnic mix are causing increasing strains putting new demands on housing education and social welfare and changing the make up of the workforce where the government is responding with policies designed to attract the right sort of talent The book discusses the growing opposition to migration and explores how the factors which have underpinned Singapore's success over recent decades including a cohesive elite with a clearly focused ideology a tightly controlled political system and strong continuity of government are at risk of being undermined by the population changes and their effects The book also compares the position in Singapore with other East Asian countries including Japan South Korea and the Philippines which are also experiencing population changes with potentially far reaching consequences      The Sociology of Singapore Religion J.
