Newton's Forgotten Lunar Theory Nick Kollerstrom, 2000 Around the turn of the eighteenth century one of the most pressing practical scientific problems was accurate prediction of the moon's position Although Isaac Newton had hoped to solve this problem using the dynamic approach developed in Principia in 1687 he never succeeded in doing so Instead he reverted to an old fashioned kinematic theory using epicyclic motion A terse summary of the theory was published in 1702 by David Gregory as part of his Astronomiae elementa The present work includes Newton's full text with annotations explaining terms and relating the text to Kollerstrom's analysis In this detailed study Kollerstrom solves the enigma of Newton's forgotten lunar theory He ascertains for the first time ever just what Newton's theory did and did not achieve Amazon

Salganik,2019-08-06 This essential guide to doing social research in this fast evolving digital age explains how the digital revolution is transforming the way social scientists observe behavior ask questions run experiments and engage in mass collaborations The Emergence of Geophysics: A Journey into the Twentieth Century R.J. Howarth,2024-12-02 How did geophysics begin Who were the pioneers of this new science What instruments did they devise to measure the Earth related phenomena they were interested in This Memoir attempts to answer such questions in a well illustrated and largely non technical account The seventeenth century saw magnetism used as an aid to prospecting for iron ore in Sweden and Isaac Newton s derivation of the law of gravitational attraction A gradually increasing interest in physics of the Earth brought forth the new discipline of geophysics in the early nineteenth century and by the end of the following century airborne and satellite based investigations had become routine The Emergence of Geophysics explores this evolution in several parallel strands terrestrial magnetism and electricity gravity seismicity heat geodynamics and radioactivity broadly reflecting the timing of their introduction as tools aiding geophysical studies Biographical information is included for many of its practitioners and the book should be of interest to both geophysicists and to anyone interested in the history of Earth science The Last Man Who Knew Everything Andrew Robinson,2023-05-09 No one has given the polymath Thomas Young 1773 1829 the all round examination he so richly deserves until now Celebrated biographer Andrew Robinson portrays a man who solved mystery after mystery in the face of ridicule and rejection and never sought fame As a physicist Young challenged the theories of Isaac Newton and proved that light is a wave As a physician he showed how the eye focuses and proposed the three colour theory of vision only confirmed a century and a half later As an Egyptologist he made crucial contributions to deciphering the Rosetta Stone It is hard to grasp how much Young knew This biography is the fascinating story of a driven yet modest hero who cared less about what others thought of him than for the joys of an unbridled pursuit of knowledge with a new foreword by Martin Rees and a new postscript discussing polymathy in the two centuries since the time of Young It returns this neglected genius to his proper position in the pantheon of great scientific thinkers Simplifying Complexity George E. Yoos,2015-01-01 Simplifying complexity explores how to eliminate ignorance which in the view of the author is the purpose of the sciences and technologies and their consequent developments More specifically the book deals with the plurality of the sciences and technologies It is about the way in which each of them develops around the prosthetics of printed languages and the models used as visual aids to help us create new modes of communication to understand and solve human problems Consequently the task is to simplify the complexity that we find in different sciences both social and physical In his collection of essays George E Yoos surveys a number of different models that have evolved from the innate biological forms of grammar logic and modes of orientation He investigates the evolution of socially constructed systems of numeracy and measurement that have evolved and developed in different languages for the use in scientific and technological communication He identifies methods derived from three distinct personal experiences the use of types of prosthetic mnemonic and attention controlling devices in order to yield simpler perspectives of complex states of affairs George E Yoos emeritus professor is a legend in the field of rhetoric Founder and editor of the Rhetoric Society Quarterly 1972 1985 author of Reframing Rhetoric 2007 Politics and Rhetoric 2009 and fellow of the Rhetoric Society of America The New Face of War Bruce D. Berkowitz, 2003 In many ways modern warfare is information warfare Bruce Berkowitz's explanation of how Information War revolutionized combat and what it means for our soldiers could not be better timed As Western forces wage war against terrorists and their supporters in actions large and small on several continents The New Face of War explains how they fight and how they will win or lose America's use of networked elite ground forces in combination with precision guided bombing from manned and unmanned flyers turned Afghanistan from a Soviet graveyard into a lopsided field of American victory Yet we are not invulnerable and the same technology that we used in Kuwait in 1991 is now available to anyone with a credit card and access to the Internet Al Qaeda is adept in the new model of war and has searched long and hard for weaknesses in our defenses
