Constant Fear Daniel Palmer, 2015 A doomsday prepper and private school custodian must rescue his genius hacker son who's caught by a brutal drug cartel for electronically siphoning off their funds

Hunger Movements in Early Victorian Literature Lesa Scholl, 2016-05-05 In Hunger Movements in Early Victorian Literature Lesa Scholl explores the ways in which the language of starvation interacts with narratives of emotional and intellectual want to create a dynamic evolving notion of hunger Scholl's interdisciplinary study emphasises literary analysis sensory history and political economy to interrogate the progression of hunger in Britain from the early 1830s to the late 1860s Examining works by Charles Dickens Harriet Martineau George Eliot Elizabeth Gaskell Henry Mayhew and Charlotte Bronte Scholl argues for the centrality of hunger in social development and understanding She shows how the rhetoric of hunger moves beyond critiques of physical starvation to a paradigm in which the dominant narrative of civilisation is predicated on the continual progress and evolution of literal and metaphorical taste Her study makes a persuasive case for how hunger as a signifier of both individual and corporate ambition is a necessarily self interested and increasingly violent agent of progress within the discourse of political economy that emerged in the eighteenth century and subsequently shaped nineteenth century social and political life

Allen, 1848 Under the Gaslight Augustin Daly, 1895 Once a Week S. Lucas, A Book of English Poetry George Beaumont, 1915 Merchants, Barons, Sellers and Suits Christa Mahalik, 2010-08-11 Merchants Barons Sellers and Suits The Changing Images of the Businessman through Literature originally began as a conversation about a hybrid course at Quinnipiac University Its purpose was to take an online English course for non traditional business majors and create a theme that would be relevant to the business world Being given the task to create this course from the ground up was exciting and intriguing There turned out to be a lot more material that could be used for this theme than previously thought To gauge the temperature of the topic a panel was set up with the theme of businessmen or women and their changing image through literature At the 2009 NeMLA Northeast Modern Language Association conference in Boston the panel was held and many ideas such as some of the ones presented in this book were discussed A secondary theme evolved out of the construction of the first Participants discussed the environment as a catalyst in the change of what a person actually thinks a businessman or woman looks like Many of these images were formed based upon pop culture such as the traveling salesman in the Looney Tunes cartoons who sells brushes door to door and hails from Walla Walla Washington Others were based on the images read about in books such as Willy Loman from Death of a Salesman The essays included in this volume presented by doctoral candidates and scholars from across a range of geographical regions and disciplines result in a collection that investigates the idea of the changing image of the businessman throughout literature both in America and in Europe The arrangement of the collection is a comparative timeline allowing the changing images of business to evolve with each essay Poems and Prose Christina Rossetti, 2008-10-09 The mystery of Life the mystery Of Death I see Darkly as in a glass Christina Rossetti 1830-94 is perhaps the most contradictory of the great Victorian poets She writes of the world s beauty but fears that it may be deceptive even deadly She is a religious poet but much of her work is driven by uncertainty Her poems are restrained even secretive but they seek nothing less than the mystery of Life and Death This edition contains Rossetti s strongest and most distinctive work poetry including Goblin Market The Prince s Progress and the sonnet sequence Monna Innominata stories including the complete text of Maude devotional prose with nearly fifty entries from the reading diary Times Flies and personal letters Those poems which Rossetti published and those which she withheld from publication are here brought together in chronological order allowing the reader to observe her poetic trajectory This edition also records the major revisions made by Rossetti when preparing her poems for publication It brings together the fullest range of Rossetti's poetry and prose in one volume and is an indispensable introduction to this entrancing writer ABOUT THE SERIES For over 100 years Oxford World's Classics has made available the widest range of literature from around the globe Each affordable volume reflects Oxford's commitment to scholarship providing the most accurate text plus a wealth of other valuable features including expert introductions by leading authorities helpful notes to clarify the text up to date bibliographies for further study and much more
