The Urban Archetypes of Jane Jacobs and Ebenezer Howard Abraham Akkerman, 2020-01-09 Ebenezer Howard an Englishman and Jane Jacobs a naturalized Canadian personify the twentieth century s opposing outlooks on cities Howard had envisaged small towns newly built from scratch fashioned on single family homes with small gardens Jacobs embraced existing inner city neighbourhoods emphasizing the verve of the living street From Howard's idea the American Dream of garden suburbs had emerged yet his conceptualization of a modern city received criticism for being uniform and alienated from the rest of the city Similarly at the turn of the new century Jacobs inner city neighbourhoods came to be recognized as the result of commodification vacillating between poverty and newly discovered hubs of urban authenticity Presenting Howard and Jacobs within a psychocultural context The Urban Archetypes of Jane Jacobs and Ebenezer Howard addresses our urban crisis in the recognition that city form is a gendered allegorical medium expressing femininity and masculinity within two founding features of the built environment void and volume Both founding contrasts bring tensions but also the opportunities of fusion between pairs of urban polarities human scale against superscale gait against speed and spontaneity against surveillance Jacobs and Howard in their respective attitudes have come to embrace the two ancient archetypes the Garden and the Citadel leaving it to future generations to blend their two contrarian stances Rethinking the High Renaissance Jill Burke, 2017-07-05 The perception that the early sixteenth century saw a culmination of the Renaissance classical revival only to degrade into mannerism shortly after Raphael's death in 1520 has been extremely tenacious but many scholars agree that this tidy narrative is deeply problematic Exploring how we can reconceptualize the High Renaissance in a way that reflects how we research and teach today this volume complicates and deepens our understanding of artistic change Focusing on Rome the paradigmatic centre of the High Renaissance narrative each essay presents a case study of a particular aspect of the culture of the city in the early sixteenth century including new analyses of Raphael s stanze Michelangelo's Sistine Ceiling and the architectural designs of Bramante The contributors question notions of periodization reconsider the Renaissance relationship with classical antiquity and ultimately reconfigure our understanding of high Renaissance style Unbuilt Utopian Cities 1460 to 1900: Reconstructing their Architecture and Political Philosophy Tessa Morrison, 2016-03-09 Bringing together ten utopian works that mark important points in the history and an evolution in social and political philosophies this book not only reflects on the texts and their political philosophy and implications but also their architecture and how that architecture informs the political philosophy or social agenda that the author intended Each of the ten authors expressed their theory through concepts of community and utopian architecture but each featured an architectural solution at the centre of their social and political philosophy as none of the cities were ever built they have remained as utopian literature Some of the works examined are very well known such as Tommaso Campanella s Civitas Solis while others such as Joseph Michael Gandy's Designs for Cottages are relatively obscure However even with the best known works this volume offers new insights by focusing on the architecture of the cities and how that architecture represents the author's political philosophy It reconstructs the cities through a 3 D computer program ArchiCAD using Artlantis to render Plans sections elevations and perspectives are presented for each of the cities The ten cities are Filarete Sforzina Albrecht D rer Fortified Utopia Tommaso Campanella The City of the Sun Johann Valentin Andreae Christianopolis Joseph Michael Gandy An Agricultural Village Robert Owen Villages of Unity and Cooperation James Silk Buckingham Victoria Robert Pemberton Queen Victoria Town King Camp Gillette Metropolis and Bradford Peck The World a Department Store Each chapter considers the work in conjunction with contemporary thought the political philosophy and the reconstruction of the city Although these ten cities represent over 500 years of utopian and political thought they are an interlinked thread that had been drawn from literature of the past and informed by contemporary thought and society The book is structured in two European Perceptions of Islam and America from Saladin to George W. Bush P. O'Brien, 2008-12-22 This book considers European perceptions of their rivals throughout history from the Islamic civilization between the first Crusade in 1095 and the final Ottoman siege of Vienna in 1683 to the United States of America from independence in 1776 until the present and investigates Europe s capacity to lead the world British Women Writers and the Reception of Ancient Egypt, 1840-1910 Molly Youngkin, 2016-04-29 Focusing on British women writers knowledge of ancient Egypt Youngkin shows the oftentimes limited but pervasive representations of ancient Egyptian women in their written and visual works Images of Hathor Isis and Cleopatra influenced how British writers such as George Eliot and Edith Cooper came to represent female emancipation Explorations in Renaissance Culture, 2008 Studying and Conserving Paintings New York University. Europe drawing a parallel between Avicenna's work and that of the great Christian medievals like Thomas Aquinas and Duns Scotus
