Hyper Sexual, Hyper Masculine? Brittany C. Slatton, Kamesha Spates, 2016-05-13 This book provides critical insights into the many often overlooked challenges and societal issues that face contemporary black men focusing in particular on the ways in which governing societal expectations result in internal and external constraints on black male identity formation sexuality and black masculine expression Presenting new interview and auto ethnographic data and drawing on an array of theoretical approaches methodologies Hyper Sexual Hyper Masculine explores the formation of gendered and sexual identity in the lives of black men shedding light on the manner in which these are affected by class and social structure It examines the intersecting oppressions of race gender and class while acknowledging and discussing the extent to which black men's social lives differ as a result of their varying degrees of cumulative disadvantage A wide ranging and empirically grounded exploration of the intersecting roles of race masculinity and sexuality on the lives of black men this volume will appeal to scholars across the social sciences with interests in race and ethnicity gender and sexuality social stratification and intersectionality

Monstrous Intimacies Christina Sharpe, 2010-09-07 Arguing that the fundamental familiar sexual violence of slavery and racialized subjugation have continued to shape black and white subjectivities into the present Christina Sharpe interprets African diasporic and Black Atlantic visual and literary texts that address those monstrous intimacies and their repetition as constitutive of post slavery subjectivity Her illuminating readings juxtapose Frederick Douglass's narrative of witnessing the brutal beating of his Aunt Hester with Essie Mae Washington Williams's declaration of freedom in Dear Senator A Memoir by the Daughter of Strom Thurmond as well as the generational genital fantasies depicted in Gayl Jones's novel Corregidora with a firsthand account of such monstrous intimacies in the journals of an antebellum South Carolina senator slaveholder and vocal critic of miscegenation Sharpe explores the South African born writer Bessie Head's novel Maru about race power and liberation in Botswana in light of the history of the KhoiSan woman Saartje Baartman who was displayed in Europe as the Hottentot Venus in the nineteenth century Reading Isaac Julien's film

The Attendant Sharpe takes up issues of representation slavery and the sadomasochism of everyday black life Her powerful meditation on intimacy subjection and subjectivity culminates in an analysis of Kara Walker s black silhouettes and the critiques leveled against both the silhouettes and the artist     The Black Speculative Arts Movement Reynaldo Anderson,Clinton R. Fluker,2019-11-13 The Black Speculative Arts Movement Black Futurity Art Design is a 21st century statement on the intersection of the future of African people with art culture technology and politics This collection enters the global debate on the emerging field of Afrofuturism studies with an international array of scholars and artists contributing to the discussion of Black futurity in the 21st century The contributors analyze and respond to the invisibility or mischaracterization of Black people in the popular imagination in science fiction and in philosophies of history     Entering the Picture Jill Fields,2012-02-27 In 1970 Judy Chicago and fifteen students founded the groundbreaking Feminist Art Program FAP at Fresno State Drawing upon the consciousness raising techniques of the women s liberation movement they created shocking new art forms depicting female experiences Collaborative work and performance art including the famous Cunt Cheerleaders were program hallmarks Moving to Los Angeles the FAP produced the first major feminist art installation Womanhouse 1972 Augmented by thirty seven illustrations and color plates this interdisciplinary collection of essays by artists and scholars many of whom were eye witnesses to landmark events relates how feminists produced vibrant bodies of art in Fresno and other locales where similar collaborations flourished Articles on topics such as African American artists in New York and Los Angeles San Francisco s Las Mujeres Muralistas and Asian American Women Artists Association and exhibitions in Taiwan and Italy showcase the artistic trajectories that destabilized traditional theories and practices and reshaped the art world An engaging editor s introduction explains how feminist art emerged within the powerful women s movement that transformed America Entering the Picture is an exciting collection about the provocative contributions of feminists to American art     Transforming Universities in the Midst of Global Crisis Richard Hil,Kristen Lyons,Fern Thompsett,2021-12-22 This book calls into question the colonial and neoliberal university presenting alternative models of higher education that can more effectively respond to today s intersecting social economic environmental and political crises The authors argue that universities should be driven by a different set of core values one that promotes the common good over private or commercial interests individualism and market fundamentalism Presenting a broad range of educational initiatives from around the world that reflect life affirming regenerative and relational practices Indigenous intellectual sovereignty and principles of social and ecological justice the authors contend that pathways toward transforming higher education already exist within and without the university This task say the authors is urgent and necessary if universities and other institutions are to hold relevance in a rapidly changing global environment This book makes a unique contribution to critiques of the modern neoliberal university by looking for alternatives within and beyond traditional institutions of higher education In doing so the authors dismantle the longstanding ivory tower image of the university instead resituating education within broader social and ecological communities Transforming Universities in the Midst of Global Crisis is aimed at all those who have a direct or indirect interest and stake in universities from the general reader to futurists ecologists as well as students academics administrators managers policy makers and politicians Contemporary Design Education in Australia Lisa Scharoun,Deanna Meth,Philip Crowther,Dean Brough,Lindy Osborne Burton,Muge Fialho Leandro Alves Teixeira,2023-09-04 This book offers a range of approaches to teaching higher education design students to learn to design collaboratively and creatively through transdisciplinary multidisciplinary cross disciplinary and interdisciplinary learning experiences It highlights that the premise of traditional disciplinary silos does little to advance the competencies needed for contemporary design and non linear career paths It makes the point that higher education should respond to the impacts of a changing society including fluctuating market demands economic variations uncertainties and globalization Chapters highlight approaches that address this changing landscape to meet student industry and societal needs and reflect a range of design education contexts in which the authors have taught with a focus on experiences at the Queensland University of Technology Australia but also including collaborations and comparative discussions elsewhere in Australia and globally spanning Europe Asia the Middle East and the United States The book is positioned not as a definitive theoretical model for transdisciplinary design education but instead as a collective of chapters in which many forms of learning are explored through overarching themes of curriculum design and experiential and authentic learning and collaboration transforming professional identities and design cultures Gendering Landscape Art Steven Adams,Anna Gruetzner Robins,2000 While gender has been the subject of extensive critical inquiry the debate has focused primarily on the human particularly the female body The spaces bodies occupy and the ways in which those spaces are depicted in landscape art has not however been subject to investigation This book is the first sustained attempt to fill this gap in art history Constitutional History of Virginia Brent Tarter,2023-05 This is the only modern comprehensive constitutional history of any state and as a history of Virginia it is one of the oldest and most complex Virginia s state legislature is the Virginia General Assembly which was established in July 1619 making it the oldest current lawmaking body in North America Brent Tarter s Constitutional History of Virginia covers over three hundred years of Virginia s legislative policy from colony to statehood revealing its political and legal backstory From the very beginning in 1606 when James I chartered the Virginia Company to establish a commercial outpost on the Atlantic coast of North America through the first two decades of the twenty first century the fundamental constitutions of the colony and state of Virginia have evolved and changed as the demographic economic political and cultural characteristics of Virginia changed Elements of the colonial constitution influenced the character of the state s first constitution in 1776 and changing relationships between the people and their government as well as relationships between the state and federal governments have influenced how the state s constitution has evolved Tarter explores that evolution and taps into its relevance to the people who have lived and still live in Virginia Feather Brain Drew Chicone,2013 Step by step tying instructions and explanations of how the author designed 14 winning saltwater flies

The Politics of Ritual Molly Farneth, 2023-03-14 Professional athletes taking a knee during the national anthem Student activists holding candlelight vigils to commemorate victims of sexual violence Jewish activists reciting the Mourner's Kaddish on the streets of New York City in the wake of another police shooting Why are members of these groups performing these particular actions to express their political views Noting that these are examples of ritual performance Molly Farneth argues that rituals in general are acts that mark boundaries shape habits and dispositions express commitments and attitudes inculcate norms and create sustain or transform the communities to which the ritual performers belong Because rituals have the potential to either sustain or challenge power relations within communities they are she argues deeply political Drawing on these and other examples this book is an investigation into the inescapable political significance and power of ritual While readily acknowledging that rituals can enable authoritarian regimes and facilitate relationships of domination Farneth here pays particular attention to the rituals of democratic life those that create sustain and transform properly democratic communities contest unjust power relations and political structures and encourage and cultivate habits of participation

Black Males and Racism Terence D. Fitzgerald, 2015-10-23 Behind the twenty first century curtain of colorblind public sentiment lies an often ignored reality shared by many African American males racism continues to thrive and often drastically affects their lives Fitzgerald draws on his extensive interviews of black males to reveal the experiences of racism that continue in public schools and in American higher education Using empirical data and the methods of sociological research Fitzgerald analyzes how the persistent effects of white supremacy in education have threatened the psychological and economic welfare of black males The effects often last well into adulthood Unraveling the subtle and overt mechanisms of institutional social control leads Fitzgerald to proposals to reduce structural racism and improve the lives of African American youth

African Americans and Africa Nemata Amelia Ibitayo Blyden, 2019-05-28 An introduction to the complex relationship between African Americans and the African continent What is an African American and how does this identity relate to the African continent Rising immigration levels globalization and the United States first African American president have all sparked new dialogue around the question This book provides an introduction to the relationship between African Americans and Africa from the era of slavery to the present mapping several overlapping diasporas The diversity of African American identities through relationships with region ethnicity slavery and immigration are all examined to investigate questions fundamental to the study of African American history and culture

Blessed Are You Who Believe Deacon Stephen A. Olenchok, 2021-04-12 Blessed Are You Who Believe invites you yet again to enter on another journey into Holy Scripture The book presents selected reflections from the Book of Genesis to the Book of Revelation that are written in plain language Through the insertion of the author's personal stories the reader is invited to replace the experiences of the author with the reader's own stories happy or sad personal or family related as they enter into the world of Holy Scripture Additionally there is no order to this book and the reader may join in the reflections at any point in the book It is the author s hope that by reading these reflections and then by reading the recommended and related references from Holy Scripture that you the reader will prayerfully be brought closer to our Lord Jesus Christ Throughout this book as you read and add your own reflections always remember that blessed are you who believe

Racing While Black Leonard T. Miller,2011-01-04 Starting a NASCAR team is hard work Starting a NASCAR team as an African American is even harder These are just a few of the lessons learned by Leonard T Miller during his decade and a half of running an auto racing program Fueled by more than the desire to win Miller made it his goal to create opportunities for black drivers in the vastly white Southern world of NASCAR Racing While Black chronicles the travails of selling marketing plans to skeptics and scraping by on the thinnest of budgets as well as the triumphs of speeding to victory and changing the way racing fans view skin color With his father former drag racer and longtime team owner Leonard W Miller along for the ride Miller journeys from the short tracks of the Carolinas to the boardrooms of the Big Three automakers to find out that his toughest race may be winning over the human race New Approaches to Family Practice Nancy R. Vosler,1996-09-27 How do economic stresses on the family such as dual earner parents unemployment and poverty affect the human service professional s assessment of the families he or she serves The field of family sociology is now providing a wealth of empirical relevant knowledge on the impact of macroeconomic issues on the families most frequently helped by social workers New Approaches to Family Practice takes current research driven by the family systems theoretical framework and applies it to human services direct practice with families in three specific areas employed work and family work unemployment and poverty To illustrate the linkages from research to practice the book presents chapters on the theory and research in each of the three target areas each followed by a chapter on application and tools for direct practice in that area Individual chapters include case studies assessment tools multilevel interventions and evaluations and strategies for social change In addition to being a rich resource for the human services professional who works with families this book is ideal for courses in social work with the family social work and human services family studies and clinical counseling psychology The Christian Educator ,1914 Magic City Burgin Mathews,2023-11-28 Magic City is the story of one of American music s essential unsung places Birmingham Alabama birthplace of a distinctive and influential jazz heritage In a telling replete with colorful characters iconic artists and unheralded masters Burgin Mathews reveals how Birmingham was the cradle and training ground for such luminaries as big band leader Erskine Hawkins cosmic outsider Sun Ra and a long list of sidemen soloists and arrangers He also celebrates the contributions of local educators club owners and civic leaders who nurtured a vital culture of Black expression in one of the country s most notoriously segregated cities In Birmingham jazz was more than entertainment long before the city emerged as a focal point in the national civil rights movement its homegrown jazz heroes helped set the stage crafting a unique tradition of independence innovation achievement and empowerment Blending deep archival research and original interviews with living elders of the Birmingham scene Mathews elevates the stories of figures like John T Fess Whatley the pioneering teacher bandleader who emphasized instrumental training as a means of upward mobility and community pride Along the way he takes readers into the high school band rooms fraternal ballrooms vaudeville houses and circus tent shows that shaped a musical movement revealing a community of players whose influence spread throughout the world
