La política del desarrollo mexicano Roger D. Hansen,1998 El llamado milagro mexicano se caracteriz por un crecimiento sostenido de la economía que sin embargo no logró reducir la desigualdad de ingresos La estrategia del desarrollo se tradujo en hacer más ricos a los ricos y más pobres a los pobres disminuir el peso de la reforma agraria y controlar estrictamente las actividades sindicales El estudio abarca de mediados de los años treinta a principios de los setenta por lo que resulta indispensable para entender la crisis del presente Hispanic American Report Ronald Hilton,1964

Neoliberalism and Commodity Production in Mexico Thomas Weaver,James B. Greenberg,William L. Alexander,Anne Browning-Aiken,2012-06-15 Neoliberalism and Commodity Production in Mexico details the impact of neoliberal practice on the production and exchange of basic resources in working class communities in Mexico Using anthropological investigations and a market driven approach contributors explain how uneven policies have undermined constitutional protections and working class interests since the Mexican Revolution of 1910 Detailed ethnographic fieldwork shows how foreign investment privatization deregulation and elimination of welfare benefits have devastated national industries and natural resources and threatened agriculture driving the campesinos and working class deeper into poverty Focusing on specific commodity chains and the changes to production and marketing under neoliberalism the contributors highlight the detrimental impacts of policies by telling the stories of those most affected by these changes They detail the complex interplay of local and global forces from the politically mediated systems of demand found at the local level to the increasingly powerful municipal and state governments and the global trade and banking institutions Sharing a common theoretical perspective and method throughout the chapters Neoliberalism and Commodity Production in Mexico is a multi sided ethnography that makes a significant contribution to studies of neoliberal ideology in practice Hispanic American Report for ...,1964 Latin
