Modern Canadian Stories:

Modern Canadian stories John Stevens, 1980 Modern Canadian Stories Giose Rimanelli, 1966 The Canadian Short Story Reingard M. Nischik, 2007 Beginning in the 1890s reaching its first full realization by modernist writers in the 1920s and brought to its heyday during the Canadian Renaissance starting in the 1960s the short story has become Canada's flagship genre. It continues to attract the country's most accomplished and innovative writers today among them Margaret Atwood, Mavis Gallant, Alice Munro, Carol Shields and many others. Yet in contrast to the stature and popularity of the genre and the writers who partake in it surprisingly little literary criticism and theory has been devoted to the Canadian short story. This collection redresses that imbalance by providing the first collection of critical interpretations of a range of thirty well known and often anthologized Canadian short stories from the genre's beginnings through the twentieth century. A historical survey of the genre introduces the volume and a timeline comparing the genre's development in Canada, the US and Great Britain via representative examples completes it. The collection is geared both to specialists in and to students of Canadian literature. For the latter it is of particular benefit that the volume provides not only a collection of interpretations but a comprehensive introduction to the history of the Canadian short story. Reingard M. Nischik is professor and chair of American Literature at the University of Constance, Germany.

Profiles in Canadian Literature Jeffrey M. Heath, 1991 The English Short Story in Canada Reingard M. Nischik, 2017-04-20 In 2013 the Nobel Prize for Literature was for the first time awarded to a short story writer and to a Canadian, Alice Munro. The award focused international attention on a genre that had long been thriving in Canada, particularly since the 1960s. This book traces the development and highlights of the English language Canadian short story from the late 19th century up to the present. The history as well as the theoretical approaches to the genre are covered with in-depth examination of exemplary stories by prominent writers such as Margaret Atwood and Alice Munro.

Literary History of Canada Carl F. Klinck, Alfred G. Bailey, Claude Bissell, Roy Daniells, Northrop Frye, Desmond Pacey, 1976-12-15 Hailed as a landmark in Canadian literary scholarship when it was originally published in 1965, the Literary History of Canada is now being reissued, revised and enlarged in three volumes. This major effort of a large group of scholars working in the field of English language Canadian literature provides a comprehensive up-to-date reference work. It has already proven itself invaluable as a source of information on authors, genres and literary trends and influences. It represents a positive attempt to give a history of Canada in terms of writings which deserve attention because of significant thought, form and use of language. Volume 3 has been newly written for this edition of the History and covers the years from about 1960 to 1974. The contributors to this volume are Claude Bissell, Desmond Pacey, Lauriat Lane Jr, Michael S. Cross, Thomas A. Goudge, John Webster Grant, John H. Chapman, William E. Swinton, Henry B. Mayo, Malcolm Ross, Brandon Conron, Clara Thomas, Sheila A. Egoff, John Ripley, William H. New, George Woodcock and Northrop Frye.

Literary History of Canada William H. New, Carl Berger, Alan Cairns, Frances G. Halpenny, Henry Kreisel, Douglas Lochhead, Philip

Stratford, Clara Thomas, 1990-12-15 This new volume of the Literary History of Canada covers the continuing development of English Canadian writing from 1972 to 1984 As with the three earlier volumes this book is an invaluable guide to recent developments in English Canadian literature and a resource for both the general reader and the specialist researcher The contributors to this volume are Laurie Ricou David Jackel Linda Hutcheon Philip Stratford Barry Cameron Balachandra Rajan Robert Fothergill Brian Parker Cynthia Zimmerman Frances Frazer Edith Fowke Bruce G Trigger Alan C Cairns Douglas Williams Carl Berger Shirley Neuman Raymond S Corteen and Frances G Halpenny Reference Sources for Canadian Literary Studies Joseph Jones, 2005-01-01 Reference Sources for Canadian Literary Studies offers the first full scale bibliography of writing on and in the field of Canadian literary studies Approximately one thousand annotated entries are arranged by reference genre with sub groupings related to literary genre The Routledge Introduction to the Canadian Short Story Maria Löschnigg, 2022-12-30 This volume aims to introduce undergraduates graduates and general readers to the diversity and richness of Canadian short story writing and to the narrative potential of short fiction in general Addressing a wide spectrum of forms and themes the book will familiarise readers with the development and cultural significance of Canadian short fiction from the early 19th century to the present A strong focus will be on the rich reservoir of short fiction produced in the past four decades and the way in which it has responded to the anxieties and crises of our time Drawing on current critical debates each chapter will highlight the interrelations between Canadian short fiction and historical and socio cultural developments Case studies will zoom in on specific thematic or aesthetic issues in an exemplary manner The Routledge Introduction to the Canadian Short Story will provide an accessible and comprehensive overview ideal for students and general readers interested in the multifaceted and thriving medium of the short story in Canada Creative Canada, 1971-12-15 Did he ever play Hamlet Has she worked in television What was the title of his first novel Under whom did she study How many children has he Answers to such questions about contemporary Canadian artists have often been difficult even impossible to find This series has been created to provide the answers it covers creative and performing artists who have contributed as individuals to the culture of Canada in the twentieth century Each volume in the series presents a cross section of many different kinds of artists authors of imaginative works artists and sculptors musicians performers composers conductors and directors and performing artists in ballet modern dance radio theatre television and motion pictures directors designers and producers in theatre cinema radio television and the dance choreographers and for cinema cartoonists and animators Within each category of art is included a selection of those who have achieved national and international recognition those who have been recognized locally and some now deceased who markedly influenced their contemporaries locally nationally or internationally This is not a critical compilation rather it is an objective and factual reference work for those interested in contemporary Canadian culture Information was collected by painstaking research in a wide variety of sources and wherever possible it has been verified by the artist to make each entry as accurate and comprehensive as possible Profiles in Canadian Literature 7 Jeffrey M. Heath, 1991-09-01 Profiles in Canadian Literature is a wide ranging series of essays on Canadian authors Each profile acquaints the reader with the writer s work providing insight into themes techniques and special characteristics as well as a chronology of the author s life Finally there is a bibliography of primary works and criticism that suggests avenues for further study I know of no better introduction to these writers and the studies in question are full of basic information not readily obtainable elsewhere U of T Quarterly Library of Congress Subject Headings Library of Congress, Library of Congress. Cataloging Policy and Support Office, 2009 The Cambridge Companion to Canadian Literature Eva-Marie Kröller, 2017-05-27 This fully revised second edition of The Cambridge Companion to Canadian Literature offers a comprehensive introduction to major writers genres and topics For this edition several chapters have been completely rewritten to reflect major developments in Canadian literature since 2004 Surveys of fiction drama and poetry are complemented by chapters on Aboriginal writing autobiography literary criticism writing by women and the emergence of urban writing Areas of research that have expanded since the first edition include environmental concerns and questions of sexuality which are freshly explored across several different chapters A substantial chapter on francophone writing is included Authors such as Margaret Atwood noted for her experiments in multiple literary genres are given full consideration as is the work of authors who have achieved major recognition such as Alice Munro recipient of the Nobel Prize for literature "Collecting Stamps Would Have Been More Fun" Jordan Stouck, David Stouck, 2010-07-15 This unique exchange of letters between literary icon Sinclair Ross and several prominent writers publishers agents and editors asks why many Canadian artists especially those in western provinces spent a lifetime struggling for recognition and remuneration Featuring exchanges with Earle Birney Margaret Laurence and Margaret Atwood among others this collection exposes the conditions of cultural work in Canada for much of the twentieth century This vivid often moving selection of professional and personal letters plus the only formal interview Ross ever gave provides a valuable resource for those engaged with the history of publishing in Canada as well as for those with an interest in Canadian literature "Collecting Stamps Would Have Been More Fun" Sinclair Ross, 2010-07-15 The peculiar struggles of Canadian authors are writ large in the letters of Sinclair Ross Changing Representations of Minorities, East and West Larry E. Smith, John Rieder, 1996-01-01 Canada and the Idea of North Sherrill E Grace, 2002-04-15 Canada and the Idea of North examines the ways in which Canadians have defined themselves as a northern people in their literature art music drama history geography politics and popular culture From the Franklin Mystery to the comic book superheroine Nelvana Glenn Gould s documentaries the paintings of Lawren Harris and Molson beer ads the idea of the north has been central to the Canadian imagination Sherrill Grace argues that Canadians have always used ideas of Canada as North to promote a distinct national identity and national unity In a penultimate chapter The North Writes Back Grace presents newly emerging northern voices and shows how they view the long tradition of representing the North by southern activists artists and scholars With the recent creation of Nunavut increasing concern about northern ecosystems and social challenges and renewed attention to Canada's role as a circumpolar nation Canada and the Idea of North shows that nordicity still plays an urgent and central role in Canada at the start of the twenty first century

Alice Munro: Writing Her Lives Robert Thacker, 2011-05-03 This is the book about one of the world's great authors Alice Munro which shows how her life and her stories intertwine For almost thirty years Robert Thacker has been researching this book steeping himself in Alice Munro's life and work working with her co operation to make it complete The result is a feast of information for Alice Munro's admirers everywhere By following the parallel tracks of Alice Munro's life and Alice Munro's texts he gives a thorough and revealing account of both her life and work There is always a starting point in reality she once said of her stories and this book reveals just how often her stories spring from her life The book is chronological starting with her pioneer ancestors but with special attention paid to her parents and to her early days growing up poor in Wingham Then all of her life stages the marriage to Jim Munro the move to Vancouver then to Victoria to start the bookstore the three daughters the divorce the return to Huron County and the new life with Gerry Fremlin leading to the triumphs as story by story book by book she gains fame around the world until rumours of a Nobel Prize circulate

Adele Wiseman Ruth Panofsky, 2001 This collection of essays details the complexity and diversity of author Adele Wiseman Writing in several different genres from children's books to plays and essays Wiseman became one of the most renowned Canadian authors and won Canada's Governor General's award for her first novel The Sacrifice With the success of her first novel at the age of 28 Wiseman came to prominence in both the United States and Canada quite early Her second novel Crackpot about prostitution has been the subject of current critical debate
