National Library of Medicine Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.), 1993 American Women in Mission Dana Lee Robert, 1996 The stereotype of the woman missionary has ranged from that of the long-suffering wife characterized by the epitaph Died given over to hospitality to that of the spinster

in her unstylish dress and wire rimmed glasses alone somewhere for thirty years teaching heathen children Like all caricatures those of the exhausted wife and frustrated old maid carry some truth the underlying message of the stereotypes is that missionary women were perceived as marginal to the central tasks of mission Rather than being remembered for preaching the gospel the quintessential male task missionary women were noted for meeting human needs and helping others sacrificing themselves without plan or reason all for the sake of bringing the world to Jesus Christ Historical evidence however gives lie to the truism that women missionaries were and are doers but not thinkers reactive secondary figures rather than proactive primary ones The first American women to serve as foreign missionaries in 1812 were among the best educated women of their time Although barred from obtaining the college education or ministerial credentials of their husbands the early missionary wives had read their Jonathan Edwards and Samuel Hopkins Not only did they go abroad with particular theologies to share but their identities as women caused them to develop gender based mission theories Early nineteenth century women seldom wrote theologies of mission but they wrote letters and kept journals that reveal a thought world and set of assumptions about women s roles in the missionary task The activities of missionary wives were not random they were part of a mission strategy that gave women a particular role in the advancement of the reign of God By moving from mission field to mission field in chronological order of missionary presence Robert charts missiological developments as they took place in dialogue with the urgent context of the day Each case study marks the beginning of the mission theory Baptist women in Burma for example are only considered in their first decades there and are not traced into the present Robert believes that at this early stage of research into women s mission theory integrity and analysis lies more in a succession of contextualized case studies than in gross generalizations Pandemic Reflections Geoffrey

Karabin, 2023-11-25 St Francis of Assisi one of the most acclaimed and enduring of saints is particularly significant when reflecting upon the COVID pandemic Francis lived and ministered amid a leprosy pandemic How he lived in relation to that pandemic makes him a source of insight to as well as a potential critic of contemporary responses to COVID In turn one can use COVID to question Francis Did he exhibit a harmful form of religious devotion perhaps fanaticism by exposing himself and others to a lethal pathogen This edited collection examines a highly visible and impactful religious figure with the intent of bringing him into conversation with one of the defining issues of the early 21st Century Biographical Dictionary of Christian Missions Gerald H. Anderson, 1999 The book also features cross references throughout a bibliography accompanying each entry an elaborate appendix listing biographies according to particular categories of interest and a comprehensive index BOOK JACKET Moloka'i Alan Brennert, 2010-04-01 Young Rachel Kalama growing up in idyllic Honolulu in the 1890s is part of a big loving Hawaiian family and dreams of seeing the far off lands that her father a merchant seaman often visits But at the age of seven Rachel and her dreams are shattered by the discovery that she has leprosy Forcibly removed from her family she is sent to Kalaupapa the isolated leper colony on the island of Moloka i In her exile she finds a family of friends to replace the family she s lost a native healer Haleola who becomes her adopted auntie and makes Rachel aware of the rich culture and mythology of her people Sister Mary Catherine Voorhies one of the Franciscan sisters who care for young girls at Kalaupapa and the beautiful worldly Leilani who harbors a surprising secret At Kalaupapa she also meets the man she will one day marry True to historical accounts Moloka i is the story of an extraordinary human drama the full scope and pathos of which has never been told before in fiction But Rachel s life though shadowed by disease isolation and tragedy is also one of joy courage and dignity This is a story about life not death hope not despair It is not about the failings of flesh but the strength of the human spirit Healing Water Joyce Moyer Hostetter,2008 When teenaged Pia is sent to Hawaii s leprosy settlement on Molokai Island in the 1860s he chooses anger and self reliance as his means of survival but the faithful example of other villagers and one remarkable priest threaten to destroy his desire for revenge

Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.),1993 First multi year cumulation covers six years 1965 70 The Hawaii Novels Alan Brennert,2015-12-15 Alan Brennert s novels set in Hawai i are spellbinding A master of historical fiction San Francisco Chronicle Brennert s storytelling is brimming with warmth humor compassion and vividly realized characters Moloka i Rachel Kalama a spirited seven year old Hawaiian girl dreams of visiting far off land like her father a merchant seaman Then one day a rose colored mark appears on her skin and those dreams are stolen from her Taken from her home and family Rachel is sent to Kalaupapa the quarantined leprosy settlement on the island of Moloka i Here her life is supposed to end but instead she discovers it is just beginning Honolulu Traveling to Hawaii as a picture bride in 1914 Regret finds not the affluent young husband and chance at education she d been promised but a poor embittered laborer who takes his frustrations out on his new wife As she makes her own way in this strange land with the help of three fellow picture brides she prospers along with her adopted city But paradise has its dark side whether it s the struggle for survival in Honolulu s tenements or a crime that will become the most infamous in the island s history The Five American Citizen Saints James V. Canfield,Eileen A. Canfield,2012-12-17 Catholics have a special reverence for those canonized as saints by the pope We believe they were holy people and on their death they were with God Catholics pray to saints for their intercession with God to grant special requests The four saints whose lives are briefly described in this book share a very unique relationship They are the only saints who lived and died as American or United States citizens Bibliography of the History of Medicine ,1993 Mission of Grace Fran Gangloff,2023-12-08 St Marianne shows us that this world s ways can lead us to the Most High in both darkness and light Sr Margaret Carney from the foreword I am hungry for the work I am not afraid of any disease Mother Marianne Cope July 12 1883 A letter of invitation in 1883 beckoned her to travel from Syracuse New York to the islands now known as Hawai i Surprised by grace she gave an emphatic yes to God even after she learned that her work would be among persons stricken with Hansen s disease known then as leprosy After ministering on several of the islands she finally came to the settlement at Kalaupapa on the island of Moloka i where Fr Damien de Veuster worked with those afflicted with the disease With other sisters from her community she cared for the residents and was instrumental in administering hospitals and schools until her death in 1918 In Mission of Grace Sr Fran Gangloff tells the inspiring story of a woman committed to serving God s neediest children with love compassion respect and grace often in the face of both hardship and resistance from authorities blind to the needs At her canonization in 2012 St Marianne was called the beloved mother of outcasts Footsteps in the Sea John Garrett,1992
