The Many Ways of Being Muslim Coeli Maria Barry,2008 This collection brings together for the first time 22 short stories by nine Muslim Filipinos written over nearly seven decades beginning in the 1940s Muslims are a minority in the predominantly Catholic Philippines and the integration of Muslims into this nation has been uneven As the stories in this anthology reflect there is no simple or single way to capture the complex ways Muslims from different backgrounds but especially those from the college educated middle classes interact with and help define contemporary Filipino identity and intellectual life Few Muslims have seen their work anthologized in major short story collections in the Philippines this anthology possibly the biggest assemblage of Muslim Filipino fictionists is intended to give readers in the Philippines and elsewhere a chance to read and enjoy their writings Book Jacket Balik-Tanaw: The Road Taken Soledad S.

Reyes,2023-03-23 Balik Tanaw The Road Taken is the memoir of the distinguished Filipino critic Soledad S Reyes This book is a record of Reyes journey of more than seven decades where personal narrative intertwines with people and events with social and political movements with which the country sought to negotiate the treacherous shoals in the postwar years The account carries a fair amount of biographical data as lodged in the critics memory in the absence of diaries from her childhood into her college years But as the context becomes wider and more complex the narrative takes on a more analytical frame as she tries to make sense of disparate experiences whirling about her in the tumult of the 1970s and beyond and in the startling changes in the political landscape local and global that now grip the Filipino nation This account according to the author is a story of an individual constructing a narrative that seeks to impose order upon chaos by retrieving aspects of the past and weaving a series of recalcitrant experiences into a coherent whole Published in association with De La Salle University Publishing House A Dark Tinge to the World Soledad S.
