The Putnam Hall Rivals Arthur M. Winfield, 1906 This tale of The Putnam Hall Rivals is a companion story to The Putnam Hall Cadets brought out about a year ago It relates the further adventures of Jack Ruddy Pepper Ditmore and their chums at and near Putnam Hall an ideal boarding school for boys located upon a beautiful lake in the upper portion of the State of New York As at all boarding academies there are many keen rivalries in the classrooms at the gymnasium on the athletic field and also on the lake The majority of the boys are upright and open hearted but among the cadets there are to be found a few who are mean and even base and these do a number of things which cause our heroes not a little trouble The Putnam Hall Series was started at the earnest solicitation of a number of my young friends who had read my Rover Boys Series and wanted to know more about what had happened at Putnam Hall previous to the coming of the three Rover brothers on the scene When the Rovers arrived they found at the academy a set of wide awake lads full of fun and go and it is about these that the present tale concerns itself
