Rowan's Rule Rupert Shortt, 2009-02-24 A fascinating fair minded depiction of Archbishop Rowan Williams Rowan Williams is a complex and controversial figure Widely revered for his personal qualities he is also an intellectual giant who towers over almost all his predecessors as Archbishop of Canterbury Among other achievements he has trounced the atheist Richard Dawkins and published over twenty well regarded books including several volumes of poetry and a major study of Dostoevsky Yet he is also one of the most reviled church leaders in modern history Long before facing calls to step down after his lecture on sharia law in early 2008 he had been accused of heresy on account of his pro gay views He has disappointed many of his own supporters as well So how has high office changed Rowan Williams Has he been bullied and manipulated Or is he perhaps playing a long game obliged to rate church unity above the pursuit of his own vision at a time when the Anglican Communion has never looked more unstable Rupert Shortt already the author of an acclaimed introduction to the Archbishop's thought offers answers to these and other questions in this authoritative biography He explores how the events of the Archbishop's remarkable life have shaped his beliefs and practices today Of particular interest is the riveting account of Williams's experience near the World Trade Center towers on the morning of September 11 201 Written with Williams's cooperation Rowan's Rule not only elucidates his ideas but gives a compelling portrait of a private and in some ways surprisingly vulnerable man

Cora Wilson Stewart and Kentucky's Moonlight Schools Yvonne Baldwin,2006-03-03 The first woman elected superintendent of schools in Rowan County Kentucky Cora Wilson Stewart 1875 1958 realized that a major key to overcoming the illiteracy that plagued her community was to educate adult illiterates To combat this problem Stewart opened up her schools to adults during moonlit evenings in the winter of 1911 The result was the creation of the Moonlight Schools a grassroots movement dedicated to eliminating illiteracy in one generation Following Stewart s lead educators across the nation began to develop similar literacy programs within a few years Moonlight Schools had emerged in Minnesota South Carolina and other states Cora Wilson Stewart and Kentucky's Moonlight Schools examines these institutions and analyzes Stewart's role in shaping education at the state and national levels To improve their literacy Moonlight students learned first to write their names and then advanced to practical lessons about everyday life Stewart wrote reading primers for classroom use designing them for rural people soldiers Native Americans prisoners and mothers Each set of readers focused on the knowledge that individuals in the target group needed to acquire to be better citizens within their community The reading lessons also emphasized the importance of patriotism civic responsibility Christian morality health and social progress Yvonne Honeycutt Baldwin explores the elusive line between myth and reality that existed in the rhetoric Stewart employed in order to accomplish her crusade As did many educators engaged in benevolent work during the Progressive Era Stewart sometimes romanticized the plight of her pupils and overstated her successes As she traveled to lecture about the program in other states interested in addressing the problem of illiteracy she often reported that the Moonlight Schools took one mountain community in Kentucky from moonshine and bullets to lemonade and Bibles All rhetoric aside the inclusive Moonlight Schools ultimately taught thousands of Americans in many under served communities across the nation how to read and write Despite the many successes of her programs when Stewart retired in 1932 the crusade against adult illiteracy had yet to be won Cora Wilson Stewart presents the story of a true pioneer in adult literacy and an outspoken advocate of women's political and professional participation and leadership Her methods continue to influence literacy programs and adult education policy and practice

Every person is unique At least we believe ourselves to be Many of us have a heightened sexuality With the latter group a common denominator must exist in the pulsating intensity and grinding confusion I have found in the rollercoaster ride which has been my sex life As a homosexual man who has breathed in more than half of the 20th and the beginning of the 21st Centuries I have experienced some privileged moments always with the knowledge of being a man set apart mostly because I am a Queer Looking back on my life I recognize it as a rich tapestry of favourable experiences my work as a successful hairdresser in the film industry in Toronto with celebrity acquaintances my family my friends my pets home music travel and my lovers Well the lovers don't all fall into the success category but do add colour to the picture Because of the dark wings of Depression which have hovered over me throughout much of my life the element of Joy has been elusive in spite of a splendid endowment of entitlement or plain old fashioned good luck bestowed on me by Fate My addiction to the pursuit of sexual gratification which has ruled my social patterns and actions since I was a child is all part of the story Sometimes I think it is my story
