Rubén Darío and the Romantic Search for Unity Cathy Login Jrade, 2012-10-03 Modernism was the major Spanish American literary movement of the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries. Leader of that influential movement was Rubén Darío, the Nicaraguan now recognized as one of the most important Hispanic poets of all time. Like the Romantics in England and the Symbolists on the Continent, Darío and other Modernists were strongly influenced by occultist thought. But as the poet Octavio Paz has written, academic criticism has preferred to close its eyes to the stream of occultism that runs throughout Darío's work. This silence damages our comprehension of his poetry. Cathy Login Jrade's groundbreaking study corrects this critical oversight. Her work clearly demonstrates that esoteric tradition is central to Modernism and that an understanding of this centrality clarifies both the nature of the movement and its relationship to earlier European literature. After placing Modernism in a broad historical and literary perspective, Jrade examines the impact of esoteric beliefs upon Darío's view of the world and the role of poetry in it. Through detailed and insightful analyses of key poems, she explores the poet's quest for solutions to the nineteenth-century crisis of belief. The movement that Rubén Darío headed brought Hispanic poetry into the mainstream of the modern tradition with its sense of fragmentation and alienation and its hope for integration and reconciliation with nature. Rubén Darío and the Romantic Search for Unity enriches our understanding of that movement and the work of its leading poet.

Woman and the Infinite Vialla Hartfield-Méndez, 1996 Woman and the Infinite demonstrates how Pedro Salinas's poetry and frequently overlooked narrative and theater reveal a preoccupation with the nature of time especially extraordinary moments that transcend space and time Many of these moments are intimately connected with the man woman yo tu relationship Salinas's exploration of this theme is best understood in the context of other modern literary evocations of epiphanic moments Such literary phenomena as William Wordsworth's spots of time and James Joyce's epiphanies are among the precursors of Salinas's moments of eternity as are moments of timelessness in works by Marcel Proust and the French Symbolist poets Salinas's reception of the Symbolists was direct but also refracted through his reading of the Latin American modernistas especially Ruben Dario In his well known commentary on Dario Salinas connects the perception of woman with a visionary moment of extraordinary lucidity a connection found in his own works Woman is elusive for Salinas She has a multiplicity of forms and varying identities that are expressed with mirrors and shadows or Classical and Biblical mythological archetypes All of these are found in Aurora de verdad from Vispera del gozo a narrative piece which can be read as representative of Salinas's work as a whole Specific images in the story including mirrored figures and references to mythological goddesses are also key elements in a trajectory in Salinas's works in general toward an all encompassing absolute and infinite moment
