Rubens's Landscapes Making And Meaning:

Rubens's Landscapes Christopher Brown, 1998-08 Christopher Brown takes a fresh look at the development of Rubens's landscape paintings re-examining their chronology and their construction and reconsidering the works in the context of Rubens's life and artistic concerns. He begins his survey by placing the landscapes in the tradition of Flemish landscape painting in particular showing their relationship to the work of Pieter Bruegel the Elder whose Flight into Egypt was owned by Rubens. He looks at Rubens's early landscapes completed in the years following his return from Italy in 1608 immediately raising one of the principal themes of the book: how these paintings were made. A chapter is devoted to Landscape with Het Steen in which he describes Rubens's life as a country gentleman, his purchase of the estate of Het Steen and the time he spent there in the 1630s with his second wife and young family and discusses the composition of Landscape with Het Steen and its pendant, the Landscape with a Rainbow now in the Wallace Collection, London. He also considers Rubens's pastoral landscapes of the 1630s showing how their mood was influenced by classical literature, Rubens's working methods, his drawing from nature, his adaptation of landscape motifs in the studio, his use of oil sketches, and compares them with contemporary landscape practice. In a chapter on the making of the landscapes, Dr. Brown describes the construction, preparation, and the ground of the panels Rubens used for his landscape paintings and the panelmakers who made them. Finally, he considers the last years at Het Steen and the ways in which Rubens's essentially private landscape paintings were made known during his lifetime and later, for example, through engravings, and looks at the influence of these works on British painters, particularly Gainsborough and Constable.

Making and Meaning - Rubens's Landscapes Peter Paul Rubens, Christopher Brown, 1997 Rubens and the Eloquence of Drawing Catherine H. Lusheck, 2017-08-07 Rubens and the Eloquence of Drawing re-examines the early graphic practice of the preeminent northern Baroque painter Peter Paul Rubens (Flemish 1577-1640) in light of early modern traditions of eloquence, particularly as promoted in the late sixteenth and early seventeenth-century Flemish Neostoic circles of philologist Justus Lipsius (1547-1606). Focusing on the roles that rhetorical and pedagogical considerations played in the artist's approach to disegno during and following his formative Roman period (1600-08), this volume highlights Rubens's high ambitions for the intimate medium of drawing as a primary site for generating meaningful and original ideas for his larger artistic enterprise. As in the Lipsian realm of writing personal letters, the humanist activity then described as a cognate activity to the practice of drawing, a Senecan approach to eclecticism, a commitment to emulation, and an Aristotelian concern for joining form to content all played important roles. Two chapter-long studies of individual drawings serve to demonstrate the relevance of these interdisciplinary rhetorical concerns to Rubens's early practice of drawing. Focusing on Rubens's Medea Fleeing with Her Dead Children (Los Angeles, Getty Museum) and Kneeling Man (Rotterdam, Museum Boijmans Van Beuningen), these close-looking case studies demonstrate Rubens's commitments to creating new models of eloquent drawing and to highlighting his own status as an inimitable maker.

Demonstrating the force and quality of Rubens's intellect in the medium then most associated with the closest ideas of the artist such designs were arguably created as more robust pedagogical and preparatory models that could help strengthen art itself for a new and often troubled age      Leonardo da Vinci - Nature and Architecture Constance Moffatt, Sara Taglialagamba, 2019-06-17 The second volume of Leonardo Studies explores a dual theme of nature and architecture offering a wide ranging overview of current Leonardo scholarship on these two abundant subjects While Leonardo worked on his Treatise on Painting he noted that understanding the physical properties of nature must precede individual projects of painting or designing buildings The volume begins with the Trattato and follows with physics geology painting that imitates architectural structure and vice versa and proceeds to architectural projects questions of attribution urban planning and the dissemination of Leonardo's writings in the Trattato and its historiography This impressive group of articles constitutes not only new research but also a departure point for future studies on these topics Contributors are Janis Bell Andrea Bernardoni Marco Carpienci Paolo Cavagnero Fabio Colonnese Kay Etheridge Diane Ghirardo Claudio Giorgione Domenico Laurenza Catherine Luchek Silvio Mara Jill Pederson Richard Schofield Sara Taglialagamba Cristiano Tessari Marco Versiero and Raffaella Zama      Peasant Scenes and Landscapes Larry Silver, 2012-01-04 Larry Silver investigates the origins of new pictorial types and their media as a phenomenon of sixteenth century Antwerp and interprets several pictorial genres as he charts their evolution and their role in the development and marketing of individual artistic styles      "Rubens, Velázquez, and the King of Spain " Larry Silver, 2017-07-05 This study provides a new analysis of the pictorial ensemble of the Torre de la Parada the hunting lodge of King Philip IV of Spain Created in the late 1630s by a group of artists led by Peter Paul Rubens this cycle of mythological imagery and hunting scenes was completed by Diego Velázquez Despite the lack of a written program surviving works provide eloquent testimony of several basic themes that embody Neostoic ideals of self restraint and prudent governance While Rubens set the moral tone through his serio comic Ovidian narratives Velázquez added an important grace note with his portraits of ancient philosophers and royals and fools of the court This study is the first to consider in depth their joint artistic contributions and shared ambition Through analysis of individual works the authors situate these pictorial inventions within broader intellectual currents in both Spanish Flanders and Spain especially in the advice literature and drama presented to the Spanish king Moreover they point to the lasting resonance of Torre de la Parada for Velázquez especially within his late masterworks Las Meninas and Las Hilanderas Ultimately this study illuminates the dialogical nature of this ensemble in which Rubens and Velázquez offer a set of complementary views on subjects ranging from the nature of classical gods to the role of art as a mirror of the prince      Gainsborough's Vision Amal Asfour, Dr Paul Williamson, Paul Williamson, 1999-01-01 Thomas Gainsborough one of the most popular British painters has been celebrated as a landscapist a portrait painter and a man of feeling whose impetuous character is revealed in his art life and letters This book reveals that the style themes and ideas of Gainsborough's paintings constitute purposeful expressions of an intellectual and visual culture whose importance in the development of eighteenth century British art has gone unrecognized Amal Asfour and Paul Williamson have set out to make us look more knowledgeably at the paintings of Gainsborough their treatment is richly informative George Steiner The Observer Asfour and Williamson display a profound knowledge of 18th century aesthetics a highly stimulating book The British Art Journal
