Light as Experience and Imagination from Medieval to Modern Times David S. Herrstrom, 2022-11-21 In Light as Experience and Imagination from Medieval to Modern Times David S. Herrstrom synthesizes and interprets the experience of light as revealed in a wide range of art and literature from medieval to modern times. The true subject of the book is making sense of the individual's relationship with light rather than the investigation of light's essential nature while telling the story of light seducing individuals from the Middle Ages to our modern times. Consequently, it is not concerned with the progress of scientific inquiries into the physical properties and behavior of light, optical science, but rather with subjective reactions as reflected in art, architecture, and literature. Instead of its evolution, this book celebrates the complexity of our relation to light's character. No individual experience of light being truer than any other.

Foxe's 'Book of Martyrs' and Early Modern Print Culture John N. King, 2006-10-12 This book was first published in 2006. Second only to the Bible and Book of Common Prayer, John Foxe's Acts and Monuments, known as the Book of Martyrs, was the most influential book published in England during the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries. The most complex and best illustrated English book of its time, it recounted in detail the experiences of hundreds of people who were burned alive for their religious beliefs. John N. King offers the most comprehensive investigation yet of the compilation, printing, publication, illustration, and reception of the Book of Martyrs. He charts its reception across different editions by learned and unlearned sympathetic and antagonistic readers. The many illustrations included here introduce readers to the visual features of early printed books and general printing practices both in England and continental Europe and enhance this important contribution to early modern literary studies, cultural and religious history, and the history of the book.

"Faith, Gender and the Senses in Italian Renaissance and Baroque Art" Erin E. Benay, 2017-07-05 Taking the Noli me tangere and Doubting Thomas episodes as a focal point, this study examines how visual representations of two of the most compelling and related Christian stories engaged with changing devotional and cultural ideals in Renaissance and Baroque Italy This book reconsiders depictions of the ambiguous encounter of Mary Magdalene and Christ in the garden John 20 11 19 known as the Noli me tangere and that of Christ's post Resurrection appearance to Thomas John 20 24 29 the Doubting Thomas as manifestations of complex theological and art theoretical milieus By focusing on key artistic monuments of the Italian Renaissance and Baroque periods the authors demonstrate a relationship between the rise of skeptical philosophy and empirical science and the efficacy of the senses in the construction of belief Further the authors elucidate the differing representational strategies employed by artists to depict touch and the ways in which these strategies were shaped by gender social class and educational level Indeed over time St Thomas became an increasingly public and therefore masculine symbol of devotional verification juridical inquiry and empirical investigation while St Mary Magdalene provided a more private model for pious women celebrating mostly behind closed doors the privileged and active participation of women in the faith The authors rely on primary source material paintings sculptures religious tracts hagiography popular sermons and new documentary evidence By reuniting their visual examples with important often little known textual sources the authors reveal a complex relationship between visual imagery the senses contemporary attitudes toward gender and the shaping of belief Further they add greater nuance to our understanding of the relationship between popular piety and the visual culture of the period
