Ruth Benzacar:

Ruth Benzacar Daniel E. Larriqueta, 2005 Appropriation as Practice A. Schneider, 2006-06-30 How the traffic in culture is practiced rationalized and experienced by visual artists in the globalized world The book focuses on artistic practices in the appropriation of indigenous cultures and the construction of new Latin American identities Appropriation is the fundamental theoretical concept developed to understand these processes The Roof Garden Commission Beatrice Galilee, Adrián Villar Rojas, 2017-04-13 Celebrated Argentinian artist Adrián Villar Rojas is known for his site specific sculptural installations For The Theater of Disappearance the artist mines The Met's collection drawing on the five thousand years of world history within its galleries to create an elaborate ahistorical work Set atop the Iris and B Gerald Cantor Roof Garden Villar Rojas's installation transforms the space into a performative diorama where banquet tables occupy an oversize black and white checkerboard floor punctuated by sculptures that fuse together human figures and artifacts found within the museum The resulting juxtapositions put forth a radical reinterpretation of museum practices This illustrated book is the fifth edition in a series that documents and contextualizes The Met's annual rooftop commissions The introductory essay by Beatrice Galilee explores the conceptual framework that informs Villar Rojas's remarkable commission as well as his interventions around the world While exploring the Museum Villar Rojas took thousands of photographs of objects and moments of interest A selection of these images is featured here alongside the artist's commentary offering a unique visual diary of Villar Rojas's thought process as he developed this arresting installation The Political Body Andrea Giunta, 2023-03-28 This book discusses how some works of art produced in Latin America in the sixties seventies and eighties forged a different understanding of the female body understood as space for the expression of a dissident subjectivity in relation to socially normalized places Representations of art and of feminist activism interrogated the disciplining of the female body that entails as well the disciplining of the male body Before a history of highly regulated artistic representations regardless of the occasional exceptions a historian might point out images erupted that questioned the social and institutional naturalization of the feminine and the masculine South America and Central America Charles Raymond Dillon, 2002-10 This book gives vital information for those who plan to visit any country in South America or Central America It contains a brief description of each country its history people and resources The places of interest to visit are described for major cities and locales Useful information is provided about language documents needed when to visit seasonal events national holidays transportation dining and dress money and tipping health security time zones and electrical current Miguel Harte Miguel Harte, 2003 The Age of Dignity Ai-jen Poo, Ariane Conrad, 2009-03-17 One of Time's 100 most influential people shines a new light on the need for a holistic approach to caregiving in America Timely and hopeful Maria Shriver In The Age of Dignity thought leader and activist Ai-jen Poo offers a wake up call about the statistical reality that will affect us all Fourteen percent of our population is now over sixty five by 2030 that ratio will be one in five In fact our fastest growing demographic is the eighty five plus age group over five million people now a number that is expected to more than double in the next twenty years This change presents us with a new challenge how we care for and support quality of life for the unprecedented numbers of older Americans who will need it Despite these daunting numbers Poo has written a profoundly hopeful book giving us a glimpse into the stories and often hidden experiences of the people family caregivers older people and home care workers whose lives will be directly shaped and reshaped in this moment of demographic change The Age of Dignity outlines a road map for how we can become a more caring nation providing solutions for fixing our fraying safety net while also increasing opportunities for women immigrants and the unemployed in our workforce As Poo has said Care is the strategy and the solution toward a better future for all of us Every American should read this slender book With luck it will be the future for all of us Gloria Steinem Positive and inclusive The New York Times A big hearted book that seeks to transform our dismal view of aging and caregiving Ms magazine Tangled Alphabets León Ferrari,Luis Pérez

Oramas,2009 This exhibition presents new insights into these artists visual deconstructions of language and examines the connections and collisions among visual art the word and the social world Time Out Buenos Aires Editors of Time Out,2013-02-18 Sprawling and strange magical and melancholy continually veering between triumph and disaster Buenos Aires is an alluring city Written entirely by residents Time Out Buenos Aires casts an independent and critical eye on the places people and culture that have made this metropolis great and the contemporary trends that are conspiring to make it greater still Looking beyond the Paris of South America clichés we make sense of the confusing jumble of influences that is Buenos Aires trademark its century old cafés and world famous steak houses its word of mouth bars and backstreet bistros its late night tango salons and cutting edge all night clubs its prestigious cultural landmarks and improvised warehouse galleries the comforts of tradition rubbing up against the shock of the new Honest detailed and informative Time Out Buenos Aires is the perfect companion for the modern traveler Biotremology: Studying Vibrational Behavior Peggy S. M. Hill,Reinhard

Lakes-Harlan,Valerio Mazzoni,Peter M. Narins,Meta Virant-Doberlet,Andreas Wessel,2019-11-29 This volume is a self contained companion piece to Studying Vibrational Communication published in 2014 within the same series The field has expanded considerably since then and has even acquired a name of its own biotremology In this context the book reports on new concepts in this fascinating discipline and features chapters on state of the art methods for studying behavior tied to substrate borne vibrations as well as an entire section on applied biotremology Also included are a historical contribution by pioneers in the field and several chapters reviewing the advances that have been made regarding specific animal taxa Other new topics covered are vibrational communication in vertebrates multimodal communication and biotremology in the classroom as well as in art and music Given its scope the book will appeal to all those interested in communication and vibrational behavior but also to those seeking to learn about an ancient mode of communication Insight Guides:

Liliana Porter and the Art of

Simulation Florencia Bazzano-Nelson, 2017-07-05 Visually appealing conceptually startling and intellectually engaging these phrases aptly describe the art of Liliana Porter Florencia Bazzano Nelson's study focuses on the principal theme in the Argentine born artist's work since the 1970s her playful but subversive dismantling of the limits that separate everyday reality from the world of illusion and simulacra Over the years Porter's own evolving interest in perception lead the author to explore a series of interconnected and timely issues in her artistic production such as the representative function of art the structural links between art and language and the witty re-signification of the art historical images and mass produced kitsch figurines she has so often featured in her art Strongly founded in critical theory Bazzano Nelson's approach considers Porter's art as the site of conceptually exciting dialogues with Jorge Luis Borges Ren Aguirre Michel Foucault and Jean Baudrillard Her carefully crafted interdisciplinary analysis not only combines art historical literary and theoretical perspectives but also addresses the artist's work in different media such as printmaking conceptual art photography and film
