Teaspoon of Earth and Sea Dina Nayeri, 2013-01-31. From the author of Refuge, a magical novel about a young Iranian woman lifted from grief by her powerful imagination and love of Western culture. Growing up in a small rice farming village in 1980s Iran, eleven year old Saba Hafezi and her twin sister Mahtab are captivated by America. They keep lists of English words and collect illegal Life magazines, television shows and rock music. So when her mother and sister disappear, leaving Saba and her father alone in Iran, Saba is certain that they have moved to America without her. But her parents have taught her that all fate is written in the blood and that twins will live the same life even if separated by land and sea. As she grows up in the warmth and community of her local village, she falls in and out of love and struggles with the limited possibilities in post revolutionary Iran. Saba envisions that there is another way for her story to unfold. Somewhere it must be that her sister is living the Western version of this life. And where Saba's world has all the grit and brutality of real life under the new Islamic regime, her sister's experience gives her a freedom and control that Saba can only dream of. Filled with a colorful cast of characters and presented in a bewitching voice that mingles the rhythms of Eastern storytelling with modern Western prose, A Teaspoon of Earth and Sea is a tale about memory and the importance of controlling one's own fate. Eternal Soul

Gharana Suresh Sundaresan, The story spans over four generations of a group of people both from north India and from the Dharwad region who are involved in Hindusthani music their personal lives their issues with each other and related to their passion for music From being a student and a disciple to giving concerts of their own and developing an original style to trying to make a name for themselves in a highly competitive and politicised industry and to finally have students and disciples of their own thus completing the circle and starting a new cycle Southern Italian Farmer's Table Matthew Scialabba,Melissa Pellegrino,2012-04-03 The Southern Italian Farmer s Table is a sumptuously illustrated cookbook featuring authentic recipes from over thirty agriturismo working family farms that provide room board to travelers in central and southern Italy where the cuisine served epitomizes the farm fresh movement underway in the United States the UK and beyond Living Cargo Steven Blevins,2016-10-15 Offering a wide ranging study of contemporary literature film visual art and performance by writers and artists who live and work in the United Kingdom but also maintain strong ties to postcolonial Africa and the Caribbean Living Cargo explores how contemporary black British culture makers have engaged with the institutional archives of colonialism and the Atlantic slave trade in order to reimagine blackness in British history and to make claims for social and political redress Steven Blevins calls this reimagining unhousing history an aesthetic and political practice that animates and improvises on the institutional archive repurposing it toward different ends and new possibilities. He discusses the work of novelists including Caryl Phillips, Fred D. Aguiar, David Dabydeen, and Bernardine Evaristo; filmmakers Isaac Julien and Inge Blackman; performance poet Dorothea Smartt; fashion designer Ozwald Boateng; artists Hew Locke and Yinka Shonibare; and the urban redevelopment of Bristol, England, which unfolded alongside the public demand to remember the city's slave trading past. Living Cargo argues that the colonial archive is neither static nor residual but emergent. By reassembling historical fragments and traces consolidated in the archive, these artists not only perform a kind of counter historiography; they also imagine future worlds that might offer amends for the atrocities of the past.

Light of Life John Wesley Evarts, 1909 Being the Nação in the Eternal City James William Nelson Novoa, 2014-12-28

James William Nelson Novoa's new book Being the Nação in the Eternal City explores in a set of case studies focusing on seven carefully chosen figures the presence of Portuguese individuals of Jewish origin in Rome after the initial creation of a tribunal of the Portuguese Inquisition in 1531. The book delves into the varied ways in which the protagonists representing a cross section of Portuguese society went about grappling with the complexities of a New Christian identity and tracks them through their interactions with Roman society and its institutions. Some chose to flaunt Jewish origins. They espoused a sense of being part of a distinctive group, the Portuguese New Christian nação that set them apart from other Portuguese. Others chose to blend as much as possible into the broader Iberian world represented at Rome and avoided calling attention to their family past. All, however, had in their own way to work out the multiple shades of what was involved in being a Portuguese with Jewish roots needing to navigate the social and cultural pathways through Rome, the urban center of the Catholic Church. The book draws on archival research conducted in the Vatican, elsewhere in Italy, in Spain, and in Portugal. It brings a variety of sources to bear on the complex phenomenon of emergent group identities. It also proposes a critical reflexion on diasporas, the formation of sub-national communities, and on the structuring of collective memory in Early Modern Europe. The work will be useful to scholars and general readers interested in the Portuguese New Christian diaspora in sixteenth-century Rome and in the dynamics of community consciousness in Early Modern Europe.
