Burke is an acclaimed writer of crime novels in which protagonists battle low life thugs who commit violent crimes and corporate executives who exploit the powerless He is best known for his Dave Robicheaux series set in New Orleans and the surrounding bayou country With characters inspired by his own family Burke uses the mystery genre to explore the nature of evil and an individual s responsibility to friends family and society at large This companion to his works provides a commentary on all of the characters settings events and themes in his novels and short stories along with a critical discussion of his writing style technique and literary devices Glossaries describe the people and places and define unfamiliar terms Selected interviews provide background information on both the writer and his stories      Bulletin ,1930

Echeverria,2025-02-06 In the mystical backdrop of the Pyrenees young Blanca s life takes a dramatic turn when she experiences a divine apparition of the Virgin Mary Set in the turbulent 1930s Basque Country Apparitions intertwines historical events with spiritual mysticism as Blanca is chosen to deliver a message of hope amidst impending doom As political tensions rise and the threat of war looms Blanca must navigate her newfound role while grappling with the weight of her visions Her journey is one of faith family and the struggle to do what is right in a world where the lines between reality and the supernatural blur Echeverria crafts a poignant narrative that delves deep into the intersection of religion tradition and the personal challenges of a young girl thrust into extraordinary circumstances Will Blanca be able to heed the Blessed Mother's call and protect her loved ones or will the darkness of war consume them all Apparitions is a compelling tale of courage political awakening and the enduring power of belief     The poems of Catullus and Tibullus and The virgil of Venus Gaius Valerius Catullus,1927     Bidcombe Hill Francis Skurray,1824     Southern Writers Joseph M. Flora,Amber Vogel,2006-06-21 This new edition of Southern Writers assumes its distinguished predecessor's place as the essential reference on literary artists of the American South Broadly expanded and thoroughly revised it boasts 604 entries nearly double the earlier edition's written by 264 scholars For every figure major and minor from the venerable and canonical to the fresh and innovative a biographical sketch and chronological list of published works provide comprehensive concise up to date information Here in one convenient source are the South's novelists and short story writers poets and dramatists memoirists and essayists journalists scholars and biographers from the colonial period to the twenty first century What constitutes a southern writer is always a matter for debate Editors Joseph M Flora and Amber Vogel have used a generous definition that turns on having a significant connection to the region in either a personal or literary sense New to this volume are younger writers who have emerged in the quarter century since the dictionary's original publication as well as older talents previously unknown or unacknowledged For almost every writer found in the previous edition a new biography has been commissioned Drawn from the very best minds on southern literature and covering the full spectrum of its practitioners Southern Writers is an indispensable reference book for anyone intrigued by the subject
