Sacred Interconnections David Ray Griffin, 1990-01-01 This book shows the interconnections between postmodernism religion politics economics and art It shows that the awareness of interconnectedness is at the center of the postmodern sensibility Sacred Interconnections illustrates the rejection of the modern idea that these subjects can be discussed as separate disciplines While the term postmodern has been widely used for deconstructive cynical even nihilistic attitude especially in the world of art and literature the book represents the emergence of a reconstructive reenchanting postmodernism even within the artistic and literary circles

Sacred Interconnections David Ray Griffin, 1990-04-05 This book shows the interconnections between postmodernism religion politics economics and art It shows that the awareness of interconnectedness is at the center of the postmodern sensibility Sacred Interconnections illustrates the rejection of the modern idea that these subjects can be discussed as separate disciplines While the term postmodern has been widely used for deconstructive cynical even nihilistic attitude especially in the world of art and literature the book represents the emergence of a reconstructive reenchanting postmodernism even within the artistic and literary circles

Postmodernism and Public Policy John B. Cobb, 2002-01-01 Develops a naturalistic postmodern perspective to make constructive proposals about a wide range of topics now in public discussion

Founders of Constructive Postmodern Philosophy David Ray Griffin, John B. Cobb, Marcus P. Ford, Pete A. Y. Gunter, Peter Ochs, 1993-01-01 In presenting Peirce James Bergson Whitehead and Hartshorne as members of a common and distinctively postmodern trajectory this book casts the thought of each of them in a new light It also suggests a new direction for the philosophical community as a whole now that the various forms of modern philosophy and even the deconstructive form of postmodern philosophy are widely perceived to be dead ends This new option offers the possibility that philosophy may recover its role as critic and guide within the more general culture a recovery that is desperately needed in these perilous times

Transforming Human Culture Jay Earley, 1997-06-30 Explains how human social evolution has led both to worthwhile achievements and moral horrors and provides perspective on today's planetary crisis by viewing it as a transition within the larger picture of social evolution

A Society Fit for Human Beings Elie Maynard Adams, 1997-10-31 Argues for a humanistic cultural reformation to counter our materialistic values and science dominated intellectual life and shows how this would affect our lives and transform our society A Society Fit for Human Beings contends that there is a profound incoherence in the foundations of modern Western civilization and that we are on a self destructive course With the quest for wealth and power our dominant concern we find ourselves with a flourishing economy and a supreme military force based on science and technology but with our moral civic and religious culture undermined by our way of comprehending the world Our human identity is problematic the wells of meaning that nourish the human spirit are polluted or drying up and the social order is in disarray This situation E M Adams argues requires nothing less than a historic cultural revolution based on a shift in priorities from wealth and power to humanistic values those grounded in selfhood and lived experience that are essential for human growth meaningful lives and a healthy society Such a shift in our governing values would require a restructuring of our intellectual vision of humankind and the world in terms of humanistic categories This book shows the import of such a humanistic cultural revolution for our human identity morality the social order and our major institutions including the family and community education the economy the government the military and religion It outlines how we can work toward such a cultural revolution and develop a constructive postmodern civilization with a society fit for human beings Being and Value Frederick Ferre,Frederick Ferré,1996-01-01 Being and Value begins with a discussion on metaphysics showing the vital relationship between human life and the philosophical placement of value and emphasizing the current transition from the old mechanical worldview to the postmodern alternative inspired by ecology Being and Value shows how intimately premodern philosophy bound value into the fabric of things and analyzes the expulsion of value from factual being during the modern period Special attention is given to beauty What is the relationship between the subjective and objective conditions of beauty Is the beauty of nature merely the product of human appreciation The answer is that beauty and value is a more potent ingredient in the structure of things than modern reductionism allows Postmodern Politics for a Planet in Crisis David Ray Griffin,Richard A. Falk,1993-01-01 This book argues that the planetary crisis which has been produced by modernity demands a postmodern politics especially in the United States the chief embodiment and exporter of modernity What is needed is an America that promotes a new world order that is genuinely new one based on a concern for the human race as a whole and on a sustainable relationship between the human species and the rest of the biosphere John B Cobb Jr Richard Falk David Ray Griffin Wes Jackson Frank Kelly Frances Moore Lapp Joanna Macy Douglas Sloan Jim Wallis and Roger Wilkins write about various dimensions of this postmodern politics including its educational aims morality time consciousness and ecological sensibility its agricultural and other environmental policies its truly democratic process and a postmodern presidency This book provides the most complete prescription yet for the kind of presidential leadership we need and the kind of transformation in the body politic necessary to evoke and complement such leadership Earth Summit Ethics J. Baird Callicott,Fernando J. R. da Rocha,1996-08-23 An international group of environmental philosophers and educators propose ways universities can produce and promote ecological literacy and environmental ethics Religion and Scientific Naturalism David Ray Griffin,2000-05-18 Articulates a metaphysical position capable of rendering both science and religious experience simultaneously and mutually intelligible Planting the Anthropocene Jennifer Clary-Lemon,2019-03-15 Planting the Anthropocene is a rhetorical look into the world of industrial tree planting in Canada that engages the themes of nature culture and environmental change Bringing together the work of material ecocriticism and critical affect studies in service of a new materialist environmental rhetoric Planting the Anthropocene forwards a frame that can be used to work through complex scenes of anthropogenic labor Using the results of interviews with seasonal Canadian tree planters Jennifer Clary Lemon interrogates the complex and messy imbrication of nature culture through the inadequate terminology used to describe the actual circumstances of the planters work and lives and offers alternative ways to conceptualize them Although silvicultural workers do engage with the limiting rhetoric of efficiency and humanism they also make rhetorical choices that break down the nature culture divide and orient them on a continuum that blurs the boundaries between the given and the constructed the human and nonhuman Tree planting work is approached as a site of a deep seated materiality a continued re creation of the land s disturbance rather than a simplistic form of doing good that further separates humans from landscapes Jennifer Clary Lemon s view of nature and the Anthropocene through the lens of material rhetorical studies is thoroughly original and will be of great interest to students and scholars of rhetoric and composition especially those focused on the environment

The Social Self in Zen and American Pragmatism Steve Odin,1996-01-01 This is the first book on East West comparative thought to critically analyze the Zen Buddhist model of self in modern Japanese philosophy from the standpoint of American pragmatism

Knowing and Value Frederick Ferre,1998-10-01 Offers a postmodern theory of knowledge based on an ecological worldview that stresses real relations and the pervasiveness of values

Jewish Theology and Process Thought Sandra B. Lubarsky,David Ray Griffin,2012-02-01 This collection constitutes the first extended discussion of the relationship between Judaism and process thought In the last half century the philosophies of Alfred North Whitehead and Charles Hartshorne have become important sources for contemporary theological reflection Recently a number of Jewish thinkers have examined process thought as a potentially valuable resource for postmodern Jewish theology This book brings together many Jewish thinkers who have pioneered this discussion Jewish thinkers who have found process thought to be a useful framework for contemporary Jewish thought discuss issues that are primarily theological such as God s transcendence and immanence the problem of evil the idea of revelation Also included is a dialogue between Jewish and Christian thinkers on the appropriateness of process thought for their religious traditions Critical reflection on the continuities and discontinuities between Judaism and the process model is also covered

Parapsychology, Philosophy, and Spirituality David Ray Griffin,1997-01-09 In this book David Ray Griffin best known for his work on the problem of evil turns his attention to the even more controversial topic of parapsychology Griffin examines why scientists philosophers and theologians have held parapsychology in disdain and argues that neither a priori philosophical attacks nor wholesale rejection of the evidence can withstand scrutiny After articulating a constructive postmodern philosophy that allows the parapsychological evidence to be taken seriously Griffin examines this evidence extensively He identifies four types of repeatable phenomena that suggest the reality of extrasensory perception and psychokinesis Then on the basis of a nondualistic distinction between mind and brain which makes the idea of life after death conceivable he examines five types of evidence for the reality of life after death messages from mediums apparitions cases of the possession type cases of the reincarnation type and out of body experiences

His philosophical and empirical examinations of these phenomena suggest that they provide support for a postmodern spirituality that overcomes the thinness of modern religion without returning to supernaturalism Process and Difference Catherine Keller, Anne Daniell, 2012-02-01 The similarities and creative tensions between French based poststructuralism and Whiteheadian process thought are examined here by leading scholars Although both approaches are labeled postmodern their own proponents often take them to be so dissimilar as to be opposed Contributors to this book however argue that processing these differences of theory at a deeper level may cultivate fertile and innovative modes of reflection Through their comparisons contrasts and hybridizations of process and poststructuralist theories the contributors variously redefine concepts of divinity and cosmos advance the interaction between science and religion and engage the sex gender and religious ethics of otherness and subjectivity Creating Women's Theology Monica A. Coleman, Nancy R. Howell, Helene Tallon Russell, 2011-09-22 Creating Women's Theology engages women's questions Can women from different religious traditions engage one theological approach Can one philosophical approach support feminist religious thought What kind of belief follows women's criticism of traditional Christianity Creating Women's Theology offers a portrait of how some women have found room for faith and feminism For the last twenty five years women religion scholars have synthesized process philosophy with their feminist sensibilities and faith commitments to highlight the value of experience the importance of freedom and the interdependence of humanity God and all creation Cutting across cultural and religious traditions process relational feminist thought represents a theology that women have created This volume offers an introduction to process and feminist theologies before presenting selections from canonical works in the field with study questions This volume includes voices from Christianity Judaism goddess religion the Black church and indigenous religions Creating Women's Theology invites new generations of undergraduate seminary and university graduate students to the methods and insights of process relational feminist theology Spiritual Titanism Nicholas F. Gier, 2012-03-27 This work in comparative philosophy uses the concept of Titanism to critique certain trends in both Eastern and Western philosophy Titanism is an extreme form of humanism in which human beings take on divine attributes and prerogatives The author finds the most explicit forms of spiritual Titanism in the Jaina Samkhya and Yoga traditions where yogis claim powers and knowledge that in the West are only attributed to God These philosophies are also radically dualistic and liberation involves a complete transcendence of the body society and nature Five types of spiritual Titanism are identified and in addition to this typology a heuristic based on Nietzsche's three metamorphoses of camel lion and child is offered The book determines that answers to spiritual Titanism begin not only with the Hindu Goddess religion but also are found in Buddhism Confucianism and Daoism especially Zen Buddhism and Confucianism Physics and Whitehead Timothy E. Eastman, Hank Keeton, 2012-02-01 Featuring discussions and dialogue by prominent scientists and philosophers this book explores the rich interface of contemporary physics and Whitehead inspired process thought The contributors share the conviction that quantum physics not only corroborates many of Whitehead's philosophical theses but is also illuminated by them. Thus though differing in perspective or emphasis the contributions by Geoffrey Chew, David Finkelstein, Henry Stapp and other scientists conceptually dovetail with those of Philip Clayton, Jorge Nbo, Yutaka Tanaka and other process philosophers. Whitehead's Philosophy Janusz A. Polanowski, Donald W. Sherburne, 2012-02-01. This volume explores the range of Alfred North Whitehead's philosophy and his relevance to contemporary philosophical traditions. While philosophers and theologians with only a passing acquaintance with Whitehead might think that his philosophy is unconnected to our Western philosophical tradition, the contributors prove that nothing could be further from the truth. The most respected scholars in the field: George Allan, Lisa Bellantoni, John B. Cobb Jr., Frederick Ferr, David L. Hall, William S. Hamrick, Robert Cummings, Neville Janusz A. Polanowski, Patrick Shade and Donald W. Sherburne illustrate points of connection between Whitehead's ideas to the following: Descartes, the so-called Father of Modern Philosophy; classical American thought; several contemporary American thinkers including Richard Rorty and Alasdair MacIntyre; aspects of European philosophy and current reflections upon the environment and technology.
