The Legacy of the Filibuster War Marco Cabrera Geserick, 2019-06-24 The Legacy of the Filibuster War National Identity and Collective Memory in Central America analyzes the development of the Filibuster War as a symbol of Costa Rican national identity and presents several challenges to traditional theories of modernization and the creation of nationalism By focusing on the development of cultural features defined by the transformation of collective memory Marco Cabrera Geserick argues that national identity is a dynamic process defined according to local national and international contexts Modernization theories connect the creation of symbols of official nationalism with the period of consolidation of the nation state yet the Filibuster War started its rise to Costa Rican national identity years later Cabrera Geserick analyzes the threats to sovereignty and imperialist advances that served to promote the memory of the Filibuster War while local social transformations such as the abolition of the army the rise of popular forces and internal political conflict have continued to force drastic changes on the interpretation of the war

What Went Wrong? The Nicaraguan Revolution Dan La Botz, 2016-09-07 This volume is a valuable re assessment of the Nicaraguan Revolution by a Marxist historian of Latin American political history It shows that the FSLN the Sandinistas with politics principally shaped by Soviet and Cuban Communism never had a commitment to genuine democracy either within the revolutionary movement or within society at large that the FSLN's lack of commitment to democracy was a key factor in the way that revolution was betrayed from the 1970s to the 1990s and that the FSLN's lack of rank and file democracy left all decision making to the National Directorate and ultimately placed that power in the hands of Daniel Ortega Pursuing his narrative into the present La Botz shows that once their would be bureaucratic ruling class project was defeated Ortega and the FSLN leadership turned to an alliance with the capitalist class The End And The Beginning:
