50 Years Of The Chinese Community In Singapore Cheng Lian Pang, 2015-10-23 Singapore's success story is essentially a people story Singaporeans have good reason to celebrate the nation's golden jubilee with pride In the short space of five decades the country has moved from Third World to First and its real GDP has grown by 40 times For this phenomenal progress credit must go to its people the Republic's primary resource Against all odds and amidst dire predictions Singaporeans proved that a united and resourceful community could build a nation from scratch This book is dedicated to one segment of these Singaporeans the Chinese community In particular this collection of essays focuses on the Chinese speaking members of the community whose many contributions are less familiar to those brought up on a strict diet of the English language This celebratory book is divided into four broad categories The first section examines the major Chinese organisations and their contributions in the past five decades These include the Singapore Chinese Chamber of Commerce Industry the Singapore Federation of Chinese Clan Associations the Chinese Development Assistance Council and the Chinese Heritage Centre In addition it looks at the history and work of some of the social clubs and charitable organisations in the Chinese community The second section examines some community issues that have engaged the Chinese community in Singapore's first 50 years Two senior journalists and two academics review the evolution of the Chinese language the integration of new immigrants from China and the influence of Chinese religions The five essays in the third section trace the development of Chinese visual and performing art in the Republic The last section looks at the interactions between Singapore's Chinese community and China on the one hand and with the regional Chinese communities on the other The contributors of this salute to the Chinese community have been directly involved or are passionate about the subjects of their essays Chinese Organisations Singapore Chinese Chamber of Commerce Industry Inextricably Linked to Singapore's Economic Miracle Fiona HU Ai Lan Singapore Federation of Chinese Clan Associations Revitalising Clan Associations PANG Cheng Lian The Chinese Development Assistance Council An Enriching Journey with a Self Help Group Gerald SINGHAM The Chinese Heritage Centre Putting Singapore on the Diaspora Map LEE Tang Ling Chinese Philanthropy Past and Present CHEW Kheng Chuan Chinese Social Clubs AU Yue Pak Community Issues The Evolution of the Chinese Language LEONG Weng Kam New Immigrants from China Boosting Bilateral Relations ZHOU Zhaocheng Chinese Religious Traditions in Singapore Buddhism Taoism and Christianity HUE Guan Thye and Kenneth DEAN Chinese Visual Performing Arts Towards a Nanyang Culture CHOO Thiam Siew The Transformation of Chinese Visual Arts in Nanyang Bridget Tracy TAN Chinese Calligraphy is Alive and Well in Singapore WONG Joon Tai The Singapore Chinese Music Soundscape Terence HO In Step with Nanyang Dance Edmond WONG Interactions with Other Chinese Communities Singapore China People to People Exchanges A Singapore Perspective LYE Liang Fook and John WONG Singapore as a Centre of Southeast Asian Chinese Some Reflections Leo SURYADINATA

Contemporary Chinese

Diasporas Min Zhou, 2017-09-15 This book focuses on International migration among the Chinese long before European colonists set foot on the Asian continent Long before European colonists set foot on the Asian continent the Chinese moved across sea and land seasonally or permanently to other parts of Asia and the rest of the world to pursue economic opportunities and alternative means of livelihood This volume addresses the new Chinese diasporas around the world offering a snapshot of the cosmopolitan and shifting nature of Chinese population dynamics from the perspectives of anthropologists sociologists and scholars of international studies International Handbook of Rural Demography László J. Kulcsár, Katherine J. Curtis, 2011-12-15 This is the third in an essential series of Springer handbooks that explore key aspects of the nexus between demography and social science With an inclusive international perspective and founded on the principles of social demography this handbook shows how the rural population which recently dropped below 50 per cent of the world total remains a vital segment of society living in proximity to much needed developmental and amenity resources The rich diversity of rural areas shapes the capacity of resident communities to address far reaching social environmental and economic challenges Some will survive become sustainable and even thrive while others will suffer rapid depopulation

This handbook demonstrates how these future development trajectories will vary according to local characteristics including but not limited to population composition. The growing complexity of rural society is in part a product of significant international variations in population trends making this comparative and comprehensive study of rural demography all the more relevant. Collating the latest research on international rural demography the handbook will be an invaluable aid to policy makers as they try to understand how demographic dynamics depend on the economic social and environmental characteristics of rural areas. It will also aid researchers assessing the unique factors at play in the rural context and endeavoring to produce meaningful results that will advance policy and scholarship. Finally the handbook is an ideal text for graduate students in a spread of disciplines from sociology to international development.

Reinventing Rural Gregory M. Fulkerson, Alexander R. Thomas, 2016-10-19 Reinventing Rural is a collection of original research papers that examine the ways in which rural people and places are changing in the context of an urbanizing world. This includes exploring the role of the environment the economy and related issues such as tourism. While traditionally relying on primary sector work in agriculture mining natural resources and the like rural areas are finding new ways to sustain themselves. This involves a new emphasis on environmental protection as one important strategy has been to capitalize on natural amenities to attract residents and tourists. Beyond improvements to the economy are general improvements to the quality of life in rural communities. Consistent with this the volume focuses on the two cornerstones of education and health considering current challenges and offering ideas for reinventing rural quality of life.

Postcolonial Lesbian Identities in Singapore Shawna Tang, 2016-10-04 Taking lesbians in Singapore as a case study this book explores the possibility of a modern gay identity in a postcolonial society that is not dependent on Western queer norms. It looks at the core question of how this identity can be reconciled with local culture and how it relates to global modernities and dominant understandings of what it means to be queer. It engages with debates about globalization post colonialism and sexuality while emphasising the specificity diversity and interconnectedness of local lesbian sexualities.

Nations, National Narratives and Communities in the Asia-Pacific Norman Vasu, Yolanda Chin, Kam-ye Law, 2013-09-05 Many states in the Asia Pacific region are not built around a single homogenous people but rather include many large varied different national groups. This book explores how states in the region attempt to develop commonality and a nation and the difficulties that arise. It discusses the consequences which ensue when competing narratives clash and examines the nature of resistance to dominant narratives which arise. It considers the problems in a wide range of countries in the region including Indonesia Malaysia Singapore Hong Kong Korea Australia and New Zealand.

Politics of Difference in Taiwan T.W. Ngo, Hong-zen Wang, 2011-05-10 Offering systematic coverage of major social groups including ethnic minorities recent migrants gay and lesbian groups religious sects and marginalized workers this is the first study to investigate the multiple facets of social domination in Taiwan and the ongoing struggles by minority groups to overcome subordination.

Non-State Actors and Foreign Policy Agency Marianna Charountaki,Christos Kourtelis,Daniela Irrera,2024-03-19

This edited volume discusses non state actors as agents of foreign policy It questions whether non state actors can act as foreign policy makers and if the contemporary role of non state actors constitutes a theoretical challenge to foreign policy Chapters demonstrate the impact of non state entities through the lenses of their direct role as decision makers with examples drawn from the African continent the Middle East Europe and Asia Arguing for the necessity of approaching foreign policy in a broader frame beyond the scope of the state and the individual the book fills a gap in the literature and creates a closer nexus between area studies and foreign policy This volume will be of interest to both academics and practitioners across the fields of international relations foreign policy analysis and area studies Tamils, Social Capital and Educational Marginalization in Singapore Lavanya Balachandran,2021-07-29 Labouring to Learn examines academic mobility pathways among ethnic minority Tamil youths in public secondary schools and vocational institutions in Singapore This book qualitatively examines the interactive effects of race and class on the educational performance of these youths through the lens of social capital Despite their numerical majoritarian position within the Indian population in Singapore the foreclosed access for Tamils to diverse class networks within the ethnic community as well as limited inter ethnic interactions has historically truncated the means to resources and opportunities for social mobility In schools the narratives shared by Tamil boys and girls from the lower academic streams and economically disadvantaged backgrounds reveal that they typically experience exclusion on account of racial economic and academic marginalisation in their everyday lives Turning to bonding ties among peers and family members provides social support resources that offer some respite from marginalisation On the flipside articulations of resistance ensue among Tamil youths that tangibly take time away from learning and run the danger of strengthening the cultural deficit rhetoric for mainstream society to explain the poor academic performance among ethnic minorities This account of educational marginalisation amongst Singaporean Tamil youths contributes towards understanding social inequality in a non liberal multicultural context where marginalisation is differentially experienced across ethnic minority groups and traced to broader socio historical contexts of migration assimilation and minority majority relations Furthermore it also articulates the utility of a social capital framework in historically revealing how educational inequality emerged and continues to be sustained in a postcolonial context Singapore's Policy Designs for Higher Education and Economic Development J.J. Woo,2024-12-26 This book provides an overview of Singapore s higher education system focusing in particular on its role in supporting and facilitating the city state s economic development policies It discusses the various components of Singapore s post secondary higher education system such as its public and private universities polytechnics institutes of technical education private educational institutions foreign universities government affiliated and private training institutions among others and explicates the linkages between higher education and economic development Aside from educational institutions this book also discusses the Skills Future scheme which provides deep skills training to working adults in collaboration with the Singapore s various higher education providers
