The Long Way Home Marian Ritchie, 2003 The Long Road Home: Helen's Journey with Alzheimer's, My Journey: The Long Way Home Doug Fortenberry, 2022-05-04 Over thirty five years ago Doug Fortenberry was near fatally injured in a motorcycle accident with a car attempting a U turn on top of a steep hill The accident left Doug paralyzed and confined to a wheelchair along with painful lifelong injuries he continues to struggle with to this day This collection of essays and anecdotes explores Doug s journey to recover from his injuries and embrace his new life as a paraplegic Since that accident changed Doug s life he doesn t dwell on the unanswerable question of Why do bad things happen to good people In an attention getting style he presents the possibilities of the future by asking Now that this has happened what shall I do about it His no nonsense story makes a powerful impact helping people meet the challenge of adversity through his formula for success faith attitude action accountability success and excellence His compelling adventure reveals how he has turned a combination of liability and disability into an asset and personal strength If you are willing he is able to help anyone become their best

Into the Shadows Robert F. DeHaan, 2003 Acclaimed book from psychologist and lifelong Christian Dr Robert F DeHaan who writes about caring for his beloved wife Roberta as she embarks on a journey into Alzheimer s disease Perspectives on Science and the Christian Faith magazine says We have reviewed many books about Alzheimer s This book stands head and shoulders above the rest We recommend it highly

Journey Through Alzheimer's B. Geraldine Meggait, 2005-01-12 Caregivers would benefit from this read This is a moving inspirational personal journey into Alzheimers disease Gerry has incorporated many techniques with a gentle loving approach to address complications arising from crippling disease Her diary excerpts are real and honest This book is not only emotional truthful and educational it expresses the bond and undying love between mother and daughter Caregivers must read it It is a powerful book Twyla R Proud R N From the author My title refers to the journey Mother and I took into the world of Alzheimers As I listen to others talk about their experiences they also refer to it as a journey In many ways that word accurately describes the experience When you start out on a journey you often meet many obstaclestwists and turns in the roadmany joyful and some not so happy events occur Much the same happens when you care for someone with Alzheimers The road ahead is unknownsometimes scary with many bumps twists and turns and sometimes precious and breathtakingly wonderful I hope somehow that because of this book your experience may be less scary and much more precious

The Long Way Home Laura Mullenix, 2012-05 Pastor s wife do you feel You have become disconnected from the Lord while serving others Loneliness from being so far from family and friends Others expect more than you can give Desperate in your given situation Want to simply love your Lord and Savior and find peace rest and hope If you have thought about any of these this book is for you It s one of life s puzzling ambiguities a path dedicated to devotion to God and service to others can lead one away from actually walking with God Unfortunately church ministry can have that bitter side effect The Long Road Home comes alongside ministry wives as they trudge this path examining the struggles with painful honesty calling one and all back to their First Love Laura Mullenix is the Founder and Director of BethNuah Ministries BethNuah House of Rest has been a source of hope and encouragement for ministry wives since 2005 Laura is a wife mother grandmother and has over 30 years of experience serving churches alongside her husband Tom Drawing from this background Laura lovingly serves ministers wives and pastors wives through BethNuah In this book Laura shares from her heart and experiences providing direct yet gentle guidance in allowing God to meet the needs of ministry wives Laura is available for public speaking www.bethnuahministries.com The Longest Goodbye: A Family's Hope-Filled Journey Through Alzheimer's Shelly Calcagno,2022-11-15 Are we ever ready to say goodbye She looked out into the yard sprinkled with spring dandelions Yellow flowers she said searching for her words We knew something wasn't right That's when things began to fall apart for our family when our longest goodbye journey began the defining before and after moment And now looking back it's been almost a decade of slow loss and drawn out grief as we slowly let go of our beautiful mom In the middle of it all though we have learned to look for hope and chase down joy discovering that in spite of our pain there are always gifts to be found even on the hardest of days Alzheimer's disease affects almost fifty million people worldwide It touches people across every walk of life So how do millions of people figure out how to love as they let go The Longest Goodbye is a collection of stories and moments not just about the clinical side of memory loss but the emotional heart journey It is a story that shows how joy and grief are often intertwined and wrapped up together in the glorious mess of life The Longest Goodbye encourages readers to remember the ones they love while they are still here and to intentionally celebrate and live through the pain and hard days It's filled with tears hope and bitter sweet moments all held together by the beautiful love of a mother and daughter holding onto a life filled with memories while learning to let go and say goodbye

The Poetics and Politics of Alzheimer's Disease
Life-Writing Martina Zimmermann,2017-06-07 This book is open access under a CC BY 4 0 license This is the first book length exploration of the thoughts and experiences expressed by dementia patients in published narratives over the last thirty years It contrasts third person caregiver and first person patient accounts from different languages and a range of media focusing on the poetical and political questions these narratives raise what images do narrators appropriate what narrative plot do they adapt and how do they draw on established strategies of life writing It also analyses how these accounts engage with the culturally dominant Alzheimer s narrative that centres on dependence and vulnerability and addresses how they relate to discourses of gender and aging Linking literary scholarship to the medico scientific understanding of dementia as a neurodegenerative condition this book argues that first patients articulations must be made central to dementia discourse and second committed alleviation of caregiver burden through social support systems and altered healthcare policies requires significantly altered views about aging dementia and Alzheimer s patients
