School Library Journal As a fan of this book and its companion The Long Way to a New Land, I put it. The books describe the difficulty and dangers of the journey in a way that is non-complaining and full of optimism for a new life in America. Teachers, these books are wonderful for integrating with other subjects and topics such as immigration, westward expansion, steamships, trains, geography, and American life in the 1860s. Author/artist Joan Sandin's grandfather was born in Sweden and immigrated to Wisconsin with his parents in 1882 when he was only two. Joan herself spent time in Sweden and did extensive research to create her well-loved classic books about the immigrant experience The Long

Chuma and Susi (Complete) David Livingstone, Preparations and equipment Fridtjof Nansen,1897 In September of 1893 Norwegian zoologist Fridtjof Nansen and a crew manned the schooner Fram intending to drift frozen in the Arctic pack ice to the North Pole. When it became clear that they would miss the pole, Nansen and his companion Hjalmar Johansen struck off by themselves. Racing the shrinking pack ice, they attempted by dog sled to go farthest north. They survived a winter in a moss hut eating walrus and polar bears, and the public assumed they were dead. In the spring of 1896, after three years of trekking and having made it to within four degrees of the pole they returned to safety Nansen's narrative stands with the best writing on polar exploration
