No parent wants their child to grow up with anything less than wholehearted confidence in themselves. Sadly, research shows that children as young as five are saying they need to go on a diet, and over half of 11 to 16 year olds regularly worry about the way they look. Campaigner and mum of two girls, Molly Forbes is here to help. In Body Happy Kids, Molly draws on her own experience and a range of experts to provide parents with a much needed antidote to the confusing health advice that bombards us every day. This reassuring and practical guide covers everything you need to help your child to care for their body with kindness, including how to approach good nutrition without falling for diet culture, how to see the reality behind beauty ideals and how social media can be used to support body confidence rather than destroy it. With Molly's help, you can arm yourself with the insight and tools to raise resilient children who love the skin they're in.

Truth Unchanging Becky Thompson,2019-04-16 Motherhood is often noisy and rarely silent Learn to hear God speaking above all the noise in these daily devotions that can be completed in five minutes or less As moms know even when there isn t noise around us there is usually noise within us The constant to do lists that spin in our minds the worry and wonder if we are doing a good job and the need to stay two steps ahead of our families when we feel two steps behind keeps our minds routinely restless So when quiet time with God isn t so quiet and alone time is nearly nonexistent how does a modern day momma tune in the voice of the Lord With Truth Unchanging you don t have to wait until you re alone to talk with Jesus
