Searching for Peace Ehud Olmert, 2022-03-15 A revealing memoir by the Israeli leader who almost made peace with the Palestinians Written almost entirely from inside a prison cell Searching for Peace is the compelling memoir of former Israeli prime minister Ehud Olmert The child of parents who were members of the Irgun the paramilitary group that fought for the establishment of Israel Olmert became the youngest member of the Israeli Knesset in 1973 serving in the right wing Likud party He rose quickly in the party serving in national government before being elected mayor of Jerusalem in 1993 As mayor he overcame decades of municipal malaise inertia and waves of terror attacks to bring huge improvements in the city's infrastructure education and welfare Although a child of the Israeli right it was during his mayoralty that he realized the inevitability of compromise and the need to divide the city in any future peace agreement with the Palestinians Olmert rejoined the national government in 2003 as a top aide to then Prime Minister Ariel Sharon After Sharon suffered a debilitating stroke in 2006 Olmert took over as acting prime minister then led Sharon's new centrist party Kadima to victory in elections Heading a coalition government Olmert led Israel through the war with Lebanon in July 2006 and approved the dramatic strike on Syria's nuclear reactor the following year From late 2006 through 2008 Olmert engaged in some three dozen negotiations with Palestinian leader Mahmoud Abbas The talks Olmert says came within a hair's breadth of reaching a comprehensive peace deal At the same time Olmert was fighting allegations that he had illegally accepted large sums of money from a well connected American businessman He was acquitted of all but a minor charge against him but in 2014 he was convicted on charges of taking 15 000 in bribes involving the construction of an industrial park while he served as Minister of Industry and Trade He served 16 months in prison using his time to write these memoirs Searching for Peace offers a riveting political story and an unparalleled window into Israeli history peacemaking politics U S Israel relations and the future of the Middle East

Daisaku Ikeda's Philosophy of Peace Olivier Urbain,2010-03-30 Who is Daisaku Ikeda At one level he is the leader of a religious movement Soka Gakkai which began in Japan where it still has its headquarters but which now claims 12 million adherents around the world At another level he is a globetrotting figure whose formal conversations with diverse writers thinkers and diplomats including Arnold Toynbee Joseph Rotblat and Mikhail Gorbachev have garnered him an international profile as well as academic recognition Perhaps above all else Daisaku Ikeda is viewed as a campaigner for peace And it is Ikeda s specific contribution to peacebuilding notably through the central emphasis he has placed on the significance of dialogue that this book explores the first to do so in a concerted way Olivier Urbain shows that while Soka Gakkai the value society may stem from the medieval principles of Nichiren Buddhism under Ikeda s leadership it has taken these classic wisdoms and transformed them Now essentially classless and secularised as well as adaptable and sensitive to modern challenges like resource shortages and climate change this argues the author is a pragmatic approach to peace which has proved both popular and eminently transportable

Where is Peace? Daryl G. Chamlee,2022-08-01 When Adam and Eve sinned in the garden it changed everything from the way God intended for it to be

Romans 5 12 God s desire from day one in the beginning was to have fellowship with man kind With that being said many has asked why didn t God stop sin before it happened If God had created us that way we would have been no different than the angels We would not understand the true meaning of the love of God God gave man the ability to make his own choice to love God back and want to have fellowship with Him But the human race in our hearts want to follow our on lust to do to have and to seek after the things of the world instead of the things of God We cannot do God s will without having Jesus in our hearts for it is the love of God through Christ that changes a man s heart Stop to think for a second how such a God that has created the earth the moon the stars and everything in all the universe would want to have fellowship with us Out of all His creations mankind means the most to Him We meant so much that He sent his son Jesus to be born in flesh itself to face hatred sufferings and pain like we do that we could learn of His true love toward mankind Romans 5 8 Man s sin has brought all the sufferings on this earth that we face today But God gave us His Son Jesus to be for us the door way to find peace that only God can give and the way back to God Himself Romans 5 1 2
