Lord High Executioner An Unashamed Look At Hangmen Headsmen And Their Kind:

Lord High Executioner Howard Engel, 2016-03-01 A grisly tour of hangings electrocutions beheadings and other state sanctioned deaths that are part of the long history of the death penalty In Lord High Executioner award winning writer Howard Engel traces the traditions of capital punishment from medieval England and early Canada to the present day United States Throughout civilized history executioners employed on behalf of the kingdom republic or dictatorship have beheaded chopped stabbed choked gassed electrocuted or beaten criminals to death and Engel doesn't shy away from the gritty details of the executioner's lifestyle focusing on the paragons buffoons and sadists of the dark profession Packed with all too true stories from hapless hangings to butchered beheadings this historically accurate look at the executioner's gruesome work makes for a thoroughly gripping read

The Essential Mystery Lists Roger M Sobin, 2011-09-30 For the first time in one place Roger M Sobin has compiled a list of nominees and award winners of virtually every mystery award ever presented He has also included many of the best of lists by more than fifty of the most important contributors to the genre Mr Sobin spent more than two decades gathering the data and lists in this volume much of that time he used to recheck the accuracy of the material he had collected Several of the best of lists appear here for the first time in book form Several others have been unavailable for a number of years Of special note are Anthony Boucher's Best Picks for the Year Boucher one of the major mystery reviewers of all time reviewed for The San Francisco Chronicle Ellery Queen Mystery Magazine and The New York Times From these resources Mr Sobin created Boucher's Best and Important Lists to Consider lists that provide insight into important writing in the field from 1942 through Boucher's death in 1968 This is a great resource for all mystery readers and collectors Winner of the 2008 Macavity Awards for Best Mystery Nonfiction

Hangman Michael Slade, 2024-10-08 A harrowing tale of revenge Hangman is a hardboiled police procedural Readers come away not only entertained and terrified but also enlightened Cemetery Dance A woman is killed on Halloween night in Seattle Death by hanging as cruel and vicious as it was back in the days when it was employed as a means of justice Only there is no justice in this murder And it isn't the last one Suddenly the police on both sides of the US Canadian border are tracking a killer with a taste for the drama of the gallows And just when the investigation zeroes in on a suspect another corpse is discovered The string of bizarre and brutal killings leaves a complex trail of clues and a terror that only escalates with each killing Master of the Northern Giallo There are more than a few reasons to take the stand and scream the glories of literary demon Michael Slade Rue Morgue Hangman's escalating suspense is sustained not only by readers wondering whodunit but who will be the next to die Every character is both a suspect and a potential victim Quill Quire Murder with gore galore and a killer who enjoys his hobby There's plenty of legerdemain before the trick ending The Globe and Mail Toronto Fascinating The research on real life hangmen is deftly larded into the fast paced story The Vancouver Sun First hand knowledge of the judicial system gives Slade's thrillers their authenticity North Shore News

Theatre and the Macabre Meredith Conti, Kevin J. Wetmore, Jr., 2022-03-01 The macabre

as a process and product has been haunting the theatre and more broadly performance for thousands of years In its embodied meditations on death and dying its thematic and aesthetic grotesquerie and its sensory rich environments macabre theatre invites artists and audiences to trace the stranger darker contours of human existence In this volume numerous scholars explore the morbid and gruesome onstage from freak shows to the French Grand Guignol from Hell Houses to German Trauerspiel from immersive theatre to dark tourism stopping along the way to look at phantoms severed heads dark rides haunted mothers and haunting children dances of death and dismembered bodies From Japan to Australia to England to the United States the global macabre is framed and juxtaposed to understand how the theatre brings us face to face with the deathly and the horrific

The Last to Die Robert J. Hoshowsky, 2007-04-30 Although they committed separate crimes Arthur Lucas and Ronald Turpin met their deaths on the same scaffold at Toronto's Don Jail on December 11 1962 They were the last two people executed in Canada but surprisingly little was known about them until now This is the first book to uncover the lives and deaths of Turpin a Canadian criminal and Lucas a Detroit gangster The result of more than five years of research The Last to Die is based on original interviews hidden documents trial transcripts and newspaper accounts Featuring crime scene photos and never before published documents this riveting book also reveals the heroic efforts of lawyer Ross MacKay who defended both men and Chaplain Cyril Everitt who remained with them to the end What actually happened the night of the hangings is shrouded by myth and rumour This book finally confirms the truth and reveals the gruesome mistake that cost Arthur Lucas not only his life but also his head

Heads Will Roll, 2012-01-20 The decapitation motif recurs in nearly all medieval and early modern genres from saints lives and epics to comedies and romances yet decollation is often little regarded save as a marker of humanity that is as the moment mortality exits or inhumanity that is as the moment the supernatural enters However as a seat of reason wisdom and even the soul the head has long been afforded a special place in the body politic even when separated from its body proper Capitalizing upon the enduring fascination with decapitation in European culture this collection examines through a variety of critical lenses the recurring roles of severed human heads in the medieval and early modern imagination Contributors are Nicola Masciandaro Mark Faulkner Jay Paul Gates Christine Cooper Rompato Dwayne Coleman Mary Leech Tina Boyer Ren e Ward Andrew Fleck Thomas Herron Thea Cervone and Asa Simon Mittman Preface by Jeffrey Jerome Cohen

Death in the Middle Ages and Early Modern Times Albrecht Classen, 2016-04-11 Death is not only the final moment of life it also casts a huge shadow on human society at large People throughout time have had to cope with death as an existential experience and this also of course in the premodern world The contributors to the present volume examine the material and spiritual conditions of the culture of death studying specific buildings and spaces literary works and art objects theatrical performances and medical tracts from the early Middle Ages to the late eighteenth century Death has always evoked fear terror and awe it has puzzled and troubled people forcing theologians and philosophers to respond and provide answers for questions that seem to evade real explanations The more we learn about the culture of death the more we can comprehend the culture of life As this volume demonstrates the approaches to death varied widely also in the Middle Ages and the early modern age This volume hence adds a significant number of new facets to the critical examination of this ever present phenomenon of death exploring poetic responses to the Black Death types of execution of a female murderess death as the springboard for major political changes and death reflected in morality plays and art

Histories of Crime Anne-Marie Kilday, David Nash, 2010-06-03 Providing a rounded and coherent history of crime and the law spanning the past 400 years Histories of Crime explores the evolution of attitudes towards crime and criminality over time Bringing together contributions from internationally acknowledged experts the book highlights themes current issues and key debates in the history of deviance and bad behaviour including Marital cruelty and adultery Infanticide Murder The underworld Blasphemy and moral crimes Fraud and white collar crime The death penalty and punishment Individual case studies of violent and non violent crime are used to explore the human means and motives behind criminal practice Through these the book illuminates society's wider attitudes and fears about criminal behaviour and the way in which these influence the law and legal system over time This fascinating book is essential reading for students and teachers of history sociology and criminology as well as anyone interested in Britain's criminal past

Devon Murders John Kiste, 2012-02-29 It recounts several notable cases from the killing of Sarah and Edward Glass at Wadland Down in 1827 and the poisonings of Samuel Wescombe in Exeter in 1829 and William Ashford at Honiton Clyst in 1866 both by wives whose affections had gone elsewhere to the horrific murder of Emma Doidge and her boyfriend William Rowe by the former's jilted suitor at Peter Tavey in 1892 as well as the strangling of schoolgirl Alice Gregory in 1916 and the triple murder of Emily Maye and her daughters at West Charleton Kingsbridge in 1936 which remains unsolved to this day Above all there is an account of Devon's most famous case the murder of Emma Keyse at Babbacombe and the convicted servant John Lee the man they couldn't hang John Van der Kiste's carefully researched well illustrated and enthralling text will appeal to anyone interested in the shady side of Devon's history

Handbook of Death and Dying Clifton D. Bryant, 2003-10-01 This is a singular reference tool essential for academic libraries Reference User Services Quarterly Students professionals and scholars in the social sciences and health professions are fortunate to have the unwieldy corpus of knowledge and literature on death studies organized and integrated Highly recommended for all collections CHOICE Excellent and highly recommended BOOKLIST Well researched with lengthy bibliographies The index is rich with See and See Also references Its multidisciplinary nature makes it an excellent addition to academic collections LIBRARY JOURNAL Researchers and students in many social sciences and humanities disciplines the health and legal professions and mortuary science will find the Handbook of Death and Dying valuable Lay readers will also appreciate the Handbook's wide ranging coverage of death related topics Recommended for academic health sciences and large public libraries E STREAMS Dying is a social as well as physiological phenomenon Each society characterizes and consequently treats death and dying in its own individual ways that differ markedly. These particular patterns of death and dying engender modal cultural responses and such institutionalized behavior has familiar economical, educational, religious, and political implications. The Handbook of Death and Dying takes stock of the vast literature in the field of thanatology, arranging and synthesizing what has been an unwieldy body of knowledge into a concise yet comprehensive reference work. This two-volume handbook will provide direction and momentum to the study of death-related behavior for many years to come.

Key Features: More than 100 contributors representing authoritative expertise in a diverse array of disciplines: Anthropology, Family Studies, History, Law, Medicine, Mortuary Science, Philosophy, Psychology, Social Work, Sociology, Theology. A distinguished editorial board of leading scholars and researchers in the field. More than 100 definitive essays covering almost every dimension of death-related behavior. Comprehensive and inclusive exploring concepts and social patterns within the larger topical concern. Journal article length essays that address topics with appropriate detail. Multidisciplinary and cross-cultural coverage.

The Flight of Icarus James S. Amelang, 1998-08-01. Exploring autobiographical texts written by European urban craftsmen from the fifteenth to the eighteenth centuries, this wide-ranging book studies memoirs, diaries, family chronicles, travel narratives, and other forms of personal writings from Spain, France, Italy, Germany, and England. In the process, it considers the motivations of the authors, the changing forms and emphases of artisan narratives, and more generally the significance of written self-expression in early modern popular culture. By analyzing reading and writing as practices laden with social meaning, this work aims to illuminate the changing role of the lower classes and other groups considered marginal in the history of literature and literacy. It uncovers an Icarian logic by which writing about the self and one's immediate and private world developed as a complex response to widely shared expectations regarding the cultural and political subordination of craftsmen and others relegated to the margins of public life and discourse. The book also contributes to the contemporary interdisciplinary debate concerning the nature and evolution of autobiographical writing. It draws upon those currents within literary studies such as feminist criticism which favor a more flexible approach to the study of first-person narrative than that adopted by traditional literary critics and historians of ideas. It also argues for revising the standard history of autobiography, eschewing the teleological presentation of a small handful of classic texts in favor of a more nuanced trajectory in which a wide range of social actors helped shape the emerging patterns of modern self-understanding and expression.
