Porter,University of Texas at El Paso,1970 However after acquiring the 200 000 acre Ojitos Ranch in northern Mexico from Lord Beresford of England in 1910 Found on the internet this was probably when the ranch was sold by Lord Charles The Mexico Ranch Listen to this Heritage Trail In the late 1800s the wealthy English parents of Delaval James De la Poer Beresford sent their younger son abroad As a remittance man it was occasional sums of money from homes or remittances that ensured he stayed abroad According to Dorothy Field of Alberta Historic Site Services the young man liked hanging out with cowboys He d already been in Mexico where he had started up a ranching operation and where he d met up with a black woman popularly known as Lady Flo who got his finances on the straight and narrow She was apparently rather more adept at money than he And he gradually expanded his ranching operation moving north through the United States and eventually ending up in Alberta in about 1902 Lord Beresford as he was called by the locals set up a free range cattle operation in the Badlands along the Red Deer River He called it the Mexico Ranch There weren t too many trees around the badlands so buildings were constructed from logs that came floating down the Red Deer River in the spring They have dovetailed notched corners The roofs are made out of pine poles with sod over top And apparently they were nice and cozy in the winter but they tended to leak when it rained which fortunately was not very frequently Unfortunately Beresford was killed in a train crash in 1906 What happened to Lady Flo is unknown So Mexico Ranch ended up in the hands of its foreman Hansel Happy Jack Jackson As Dorothy Field wrote in Legacy Magazine Happy Jack stayed on at the ranch until his death in 1942 He didn t make any improvements to the facilities He still went to the river to get his water and hiked out into the sagebrush to use the outhouse So it s pretty much a picture of what rough and ready ranch life was like in the early 1900s The Mexico Ranch can still be seen in Dinosaur Provincial Park ancestry com
