Islamic Accounting And Finance: A Handbook Khaled Hussainey, Hidayat Al Lawati, 2023-03-23 Islamic finance is one of the fastest growing sectors in international banking and finance. Owing to the increasing availability and ease of access to Islamic services, Islamic finance has become increasingly important not only in Muslim countries but around the world, making it a global industry. Under the Gulf Cooperation Council (GCC) as well as in some regions such as the Middle East and North Africa, a dual financial system is implemented where Sharia-compliant products are marketed alongside conventional financial systems. In this thoroughly researched collection of chapters, researchers from around the world examine the role of Islamic finance in the economies and prospects of different countries. They discuss Islamic finance literature from both theoretical and empirical perspectives. The theoretical section of the book consists of conceptual chapters that enable readers to critically evaluate and expand their understanding of accounting and finance. The chapters in the empirical section of this handbook discuss and interpret empirical evidence to provide clear implications for practice, research, and society. This section bridges the gap between theory and practice and offers suggestions for future research. Islamic Accounting and Finance is geared towards scholars and students but it is also of use to banking and finance practitioners. The Oxford Handbook of Refugee and Forced Migration Studies Elena Fiddian-Qasbiyeh, Gil Loescher, Katy Long, Nando Sigona, 2014-06-12 Refugee and Forced Migration Studies has grown from being a concern of a relatively small number of scholars and policy researchers in the 1980s to a global field of interest with thousands of students worldwide studying displacement either from traditional disciplinary perspectives or as a core component of newer programmes across the Humanities and Social and Political Sciences. Today the field encompasses both rigorous academic research which may or may not ultimately inform policy and practice as well as action research focused on advocating in favour of refugees' needs and rights. This authoritative Handbook critically evaluates the birth and development of Refugee and Forced Migration Studies and analyses the key contemporary and future challenges faced by academics and practitioners working with and for forcibly displaced populations around the world. The 52 state-of-the-art chapters written by leading academics, practitioners, and policymakers working in universities, research centres, think tanks, NGOs, and international organizations provide a comprehensive and cutting-edge overview of the key intellectual, political, social, and institutional challenges arising from mass displacement in the world today. The chapters vividly illustrate the vibrant and engaging debates that characterize this rapidly expanding field of research and practice. Labor Economics in an Islamic Framework Toseef Azid, Umar Burki, Muhammad Junaid Khawaja, Nasim Shah Shirazi, Muhammad Tahir, 2021-12-30 The labor market in Islam is governed by the Islamic laws of fairness, justice, and reward that is equivalent to the job done. Most of the literature in the field discusses the normative aspect of the labor market, whereas few attempts can be seen to address more positive aspects. There is a need for new theoretical and empirical models for the Islamic labor market which should differ from established approaches This book provides a comprehensive overview of the nature scope and dimensions of the labor market in an Islamic context from both theoretical and practical perspectives It presents and discusses labor economics and then compares the similarities and differences between conventional and Islamic views of the labor market explaining where they meet and critically justifying why they differ under the umbrella of Shari ah The book raises pertinent issues which it analyzes from both standpoints and widens the discourse to include norms morality and related institutions such as social security and welfare A unique feature of the book is that it examines labor economics practices among a specific group of countries and studies the labor conditions within these countries where the majority of the population follow the teachings of Islam in their daily lives The book proposes practical strategies for the development of new models for the Islamic labor market which are compatible with the modern world The book will enable academics and practitioners of Islamic economics to make economic sense of Shari ah compliance and human resource development
