we learn from one another I have written in this spirit drawing on what I have learned from others especially in teaching philosophy religion and psychology working with those who are dying bearing the loss of people I have cared deeply for and centering my life in times with friends and family that have brought deep meaning courage and delight Whatever flourishing we achieve will depend in part on fate all the physical social and psychological things that happen to us and that may work for us or against us This is especially likely to be an important side of our final stage of life Our well being though will also be a matter of how we engage life Some of this will be influenced by how we deal with whatever psychological problems life has brought but this book focuses rather on the creative life affirming uses to which we can put our basic human powers There are two fundamental perspectives those we can think of as secular and transcendental by which we in the West have been helped to experience this affirmative feeling for life I explore both perspectives for the insights they have to offer and ask what it is about life for all of us that can make possible new meaning greater intimacy and deepened belief Online
