the trial process      State Crime in the Global Age William Chambliss,Raymond Michalowski,Ronald Kramer,2013-05-13
 State Crime in the Global Age brings together original writings from leading scholars in the field to explore the many ways that the use and abuse of state power results in grave social harms that outweigh by far the consequences of ordinary street crime The topics covered include the crimes of empire illegal war the bombing of civilians state sanctioned torture state sacrifice of human lives and judicial wrongdoing The book breaks new ground through its examination of the ways globalization has intensified potentials for state crime as well as bringing novel theoretical understandings of the state to the study of state crime and exploring strategies for confronting state crime This book while containing much that is of interest to scholars of state crime is designed to be accessible to students and others who are concerned with the ways individuals social groups and whole nations are victimized by the misuse of state power      Comparative Criminal Justice and Globalization David Nelken,2016-05-23 In this exciting and topical collection leading scholars discuss the implications of globalisation for the fields of comparative criminology and criminal justice How far does it still make sense to distinguish nation states for example in comparing prison rates Is globalisation best treated as an inevitable trend or as an interactive process How can globalisation s effects on space and borders be conceptualised How does it help to create norms and exceptions The editor David Nelken is a Distinguished Scholar of the American Sociological Association a recipient of the Sellin Glueck award of the American Society of Criminology and an Academician of the Academy of Social Sciences UK He teaches a course on Comparative Criminal Justice as Visiting Professor in Criminology at Oxford University s Centre of Criminology      Perspectives on Crime Reduction Tim Hope,2017-11-22 This title was first published in 2000 The papers in this volume are concerned with the prevention of crime Like other books in the International Library the text is intended primarily for reference by those who need to reflect upon what criminology has had to say about important contemporary concerns of criminal policy The papers present a kind of history of ideas which together trace the emergence of some key components of contemporary thinking about reducing crime      Human Sex Trafficking Frances Bernat,2013-09-13 Human sex trafficking is believed to be the most common form of modern day slavery The victims of domestic and international sex trafficking are estimated to be in the millions Most of these victims are female and children They are enslaved in the commercial sex industry for little or no money This book will explore human sex trafficking in several nations of origin and destination This book will explore sex trafficking from the perspective that understanding its causes requires attention to global conditions while responding to it requires attention to local laws policies and practices Social service workers will need to understand how and why trafficking victims find it difficult to break free and why many victims will not cooperate with those persons who are attempting to assist them This book will be useful to anti trafficking agencies and personnel who wish to further understand the nature and extent of human sex trafficking in the U S and in countries of destination for sex trafficking In addition this book will be of use to students of human rights and social justice who want to join the effort to abolish human sex trafficking in our lifetime This book was published as a special issue of Women Criminal Justice

Global Policing Ben Bowling, James Sheptycki, 2011-12-16 In the transitional networked society police power is no longer constrained by the borders of the nation state It has globalised Global Policing shows how security threats have been constructed by powerful actors to justify the creation of a new global policing architecture and how the subculture of policing shapes the world system Demonstrating how a theory of global policing is central to understanding global governance the text explores the new security agenda focused on serious organised crime and terrorism and how this is transforming policing the creation of global organisations such as Interpol regional entities such as Europol and national policing agencies with a transnational reach the subculture of the global cops blurring boundaries between police private security military and secret intelligence agencies the reality of transnational policing on the ground its effectiveness legitimacy accountability and future development Written by two leading international experts who bring cutting edge theoretical debates to life with case studies and examples Global Policing will prove captivating reading for students and scholars in criminology criminal justice international relations law and sociology European Developments in Corporate Criminal Liability James

Gobert, Ana-Maria Pascal, 2011-06-10 When corporations carry on their business in a grossly negligent manner or take a cavalier approach to risk management the consequences can be catastrophic The harm may be financial as occurred when such well regarded companies as Enron Lehman Brothers Worldcom and Barings collapsed or it may be environmental as illustrated most recently by the Gulf oil spill Sometimes deaths and serious injuries on a mass scale occur as in the Bhopal gas disaster the Chernobyl nuclear explosion the Paris crash of the Concorde the capsizing of the Herald of Free Enterprise and rail crashes at Southall Paddington and Hatfield in England What role can the law play in preventing such debacles and in punishing the corporate offenders This collection of thematic papers and European country reports addresses these questions at both a theoretical and empirical level The thematic papers analyse corporate criminal liability from a range of academic disciplines including law sociology criminology economics philosophy and environmental studies whilst the country reports look at the laws of corporate crime throughout Europe highlighting both common features and irreconcilable differences between the various jurisdictions
