Troubling Care Pat Armstrong,Susan Braedley,2013 How can we plan organize distribute and offer care in ways that treat both those who need it and those who provide it with dignity and respect Using the example of residential services Troubling Care Critical Perspectives on Research and Practices investigates the fractures in our care systems and challenges how caring work is understood in social policy in academic theory and among health care providers In this era defined by government cutbacks and a narrowing sense of collective responsibility long term residential care for the elderly and disabled is being undervalued and undermined A result of a seven year interdisciplinary research project in progress this book draws together the work of fourteen leading health researchers including sociologists medical practitioners social workers policy researchers cultural theorists and historians Using a feminist political economy lens these scholars explore and challenge the theories work organization practices and state society relations that have come to shape long term care Troubling Care offers critical perspectives on the often disquieting arena of care provision and proposes alternatives for thinking about and meeting the needs of some of our most vulnerable citizens in ways that go beyond residential care This book seeks to bridge not only the gaps between disciplines but also those between theory and practice Features takes an interdisciplinary approach making this work appropriate for courses in a variety of disciplines including sociology medicine social work health policy cultural studies and political economy includes the work of fourteen leading health researchers including sociologists medical practitioners social workers policy researchers cultural theorists and historians bridges the gap between theory and practice by incorporating both theoretical research and specific case examples

Self-Management in Chronic Illness Jose Frantz, Laura Schopp, Anthea Rhoda, 2021-04-20 Self management is a term that was used as early as the 1960s when it was applied during the rehabilitation of chronically ill children Subsequently self management was applied as formalized programs for a variety of populations and health issues In reflecting on self management it is important to note that it would be difficult for individuals not to be aware of their specific health behaviors which could include unhealthy behaviors As self management has evolved essential skills identified include behavioral modeling decision making planning social persuasion locating accessing and utilizing resources assisting individuals to form partnerships with their health care providers and taking action These are key skills that would benefit health professional educators clinicians and patients This book consisting of three parts provides insights into the aspects of self management as it relates to its definition and application It highlights how self management can be applied to various long term health conditions for different populations or target groups and in different contexts The text provides an overview of self management and the rationale for its applications by illustrating its use in specific clinical conditions and in different sub populations and target groups Academics can use the book as a textbook when teaching postgraduate and undergraduate students about self management as a technique to facilitate community reintegration for individuals living with long term conditions It can also be used by clinicians to enhance their management of individuals with long term conditions Furthermore researchers can use the text to expand and support their research in this area

Women and Borders Seema Shekhawat, Emanuela C. Del Re, 2017-12-18 Borders whether settled or contested violent or calm closed or open may have a direct and often acute human impact Those affected may be people living nearby those attempting to cross them and even those who succeed in doing so At the border vulnerable refugee and migrant communities especially women are exposed to state centred boundary practices paving the way for both their alienation and exploitation The militarization of borders subjugates the very position of women in these marginalized areas and often subjects them to further victimization which is facilitated by patriarchal socio cultural practice Structural violence is endemic to these regions and gender interlocks with their perimeters to reinforce and shape violence This book locates gender and violence along geographical edges and critically examines the gendered experiences of women as global border residents and border crossers Broadly it explores two questions First what are women s experiences of engaging with borders Second where are women positioned in the theory and practice of marking remarking and demarking these margins Offering a nuanced and thorough approach this book suggests that research on borders and violence needs to focus on how bordered violence shapes the embodiment of gender identity and norms and how they are challenged It examines an array of issues including forced migration trafficking and cross border ties to explore how gender and borders intersect Chronic Illness and Ageing in China Colette Joy Browning,Shane Andrew Thomas,Zeqi Qiu,Anna Chapman,Shuo Liu,2020-07-09 This eBook is a collection of articles from a Frontiers Research Topic Frontiers Research Topics are very popular trademarks of the Frontiers Journals Series they are collections of at least ten articles all centered on a particular subject With their unique mix of varied contributions from Original Research to Review Articles Frontiers Research Topics unify the most influential researchers the latest key findings and historical advances in a hot research area Find out more on how to host your own Frontiers Research Topic or contribute to one as an author by contacting the Frontiers Editorial Office frontiersin.org about contact Living with Chronic Illness and Disability Esther Chang,Amanda Johnson,2021-10-12 Fully updated and refreshed to reflect current knowledge data and perspectives Community/Public Health Nursing - E-Book Mary A.
