176b. KAZAKH RUG, 15th century, 27" x 32". Probably a little later than other Kazakh rugs shown here, this piece is a little more regular in its border and more quadrangle in the field. As we would expect, it shows the red and blue of the traditional Kazakh rug.

176. KAZAKH PRAYER RUG, 15th century, 31" x 31". While the design of this piece is comparatively simple, the appeal lies in the color, the strong shades of green in the field, contrasted with the intensity of the red. There is a maximum of one important motif each laid upon the different borders.

176c. KAZAKH PRAYER RUG, 15th century, 31" x 31". While the design here, including the more than one border, is more complex, the color border and structure of the rug itself is to be seen in a different way, quite possibly the highest one. Indeed, it seems a little more crowded than the typical Kazakh.
